Kathleen Thompson, Hilary Austin, 1999 Images of Black Women from Colonial America to the Present Stories from the Camera Michele M. Penhall, 2016-03-15 The remarkable photography collection of the University of New Mexico Art Museum owes its unique character and quality to the directors curators scholars and artists who have taught worked and studied at the museum and in the university's Department of Art and Art History In this indispensable book these distinguished scholars and artists reflect on the pictures from the collection that hold significance to them Through their own professional and artistic practice they represent different generations of aesthetic voices and intellectual directions As one of the earliest collegiate institutions to begin collecting photography the University of New Mexico Art Museum holds a stunning array of images that span photography's 175 year history In addition to iconic works by famous photographers this book also features less familiar but equally masterful pictures Together these essays represent a unique history of photography and this renowned museum Teaching the American Civil Rights Movement Julie Buckner Armstrong, 2002 The past fifteen years have seen renewed interest in the civil rights movement Television documentaries films and books have brought the struggles into our homes and classrooms once again New evidence in older criminal cases demands that the judicial system reconsider the accuracy of investigations and legal decisions Racial profiling affirmative action voting districting and school voucher programs keep civil rights on the front burner in the political arena In light of this there are very few resources for teaching the civil rights at the university level This timely and invaluable book fills this gap This book offers perspectives on presenting the movement in different classroom contexts strategies to make the movement come alive for students and issues highlighting topics that students will find appealing Including sample syllabi and detailed descriptions from courses that prove effective this work will be useful for all instructors both college and upper level high school for courses in history education race sociology literature and political science North of Dixie Mark Speltz, 2016-11-01 The history of the civil rights movement is commonly illustrated with well known photographs from Birmingham Montgomery and Selma leaving the visual story of the movement outside the South remaining to be told In North of Dixie historian Mark Speltz shines a light past the most iconic photographs of the era to focus on images of everyday activists who fought campaigns against segregation police brutality and job discrimination in Chicago Detroit Los Angeles Philadelphia and many other cities With images by photojournalists artists and activists including Bob Adelman Charles Brittin Diana Davies Leonard Freed Gordon Parks and Art Shay North of Dixie offers a broader and more complex view of the American civil rights movement than is usually presented by the media North of Dixie also considers the camera as a tool that served both those in support of the movement and against it Photographs inspired activists galvanized public support and implored local and national politicians to act but they also provided means of surveillance and repression that were used against movement participants North of Dixie brings to light numerous lesser known images and illuminates the story of the civil rights movement in the American North and West Artifacts , 1989 Black Enterprise , 1989-09 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance Signs of the Times Elizabeth Abel,2010-05-06 The George Gund Foundation imprint in African American studies Page i of preliminary pages

Photography and the Black Arts Movement, 1955-1985 Philip Brookman,Deborah Willis,2025-09-16 Featuring more than 100 artists this landmark book charts the intricate connections between photography and the Black Arts Movement The Black Arts Movement brought together writers filmmakers and visual artists who were exploring ways of using art to advance civil rights and Black self determination This book examines the vital role of photography in the evolution of the Black Arts Movement revealing how photographs operated across art community building journalism and political messaging to contribute to the development of a distinctly Black art and culture Works by Romare Bearden Dawoud Bey Kwame Brathwaite Samuel Fosso Jeanne Moutoussamy Ashe Gordon Parks Juan Sanchez Robert A Sengstacke Lorna Simpson Ming Smith and Carrie Mae Weems among dozens of other celebrated and underappreciated artists span documentary and fashion photography portraiture collage installation performance and video Pictured luminaries include Miles Davis Mahalia Jackson Martin Luther King Jr Bob Marley Nina Simone Malcolm X and many more The book s essays by distinguished scholars focus on topics such as women and the movement community activism and Black photojournalism Taking an expansive approach the authors consider the complex connections between American artists and the African diaspora and the dynamic interchange of pan African ideas that propelled the movement Authoritative and beautifully illustrated this is the definitive volume on photography and the Black Arts Movement Published in association with the National Gallery of Art Washington Exhibition Schedule National Gallery of Art Washington DC September 21 2025 January 4 2026 J Paul Getty Museum Los Angeles CA February 24 May 24 2026 Mississippi Museum of Art Jackson MS July 25 November 1 2026 EyeMinded Kellie Jones,Imamu Amiri Baraka,2011-05-27 Selections of writing by the influential art critic and curator Kellie Jones reveal her role in bringing attention to the work of African American African Latin American and women artists History of African Americans Thomas J. Davis,2016-10-24 This rich cultural history of African Americans outlines their travails triumphs and achievements in negotiating individual and collective identities to overcome racism slavery and the legacies of these injustices from colonial times to the present One of every five Americans at the nation s beginning was an African American a fact that underscores their importance in U S growth and development This fascinating study moves from Africans early contacts with the Americas to African Americans 21st century presence exploring their role in building the American nation and in constructing their own identities communities and cultures Historian and lawyer Thomas J Davis s multi themed narrative of compelling content provides a historical overview of the rise of African Americans from slavery and segregation in their anti racist quest to enjoy equal rights and opportunities to reach the American Dream of pursuing happiness The work features portraits of individuals and treats images of African Americans in their roles as performers producers consumers and creators and as the face of social problems such as crime education and poverty Next Generation Southeastern Center for Contemporary Art,1990 An examination of African American art Strange Fruit Kathy A.

Perkins,Judith L. Stephens,1998-01-22 These lynching dramas may not present the picture that America wants to see of itself but these visions cannot be ignored because they are grounded not only in the truth of white racism s toxic effect on our national existence but also in the truth that there exists a contesting collective response that is part of an on going and continually building momentum Theaatre Journal A unique powerful collection worthy of high school and college classroom assignment and discussion Bookwatch This anthology is the first to address the impact of lynching on U S theater and culture By focusing on women s unique view of lynching this collection of plays reveals a social history of interracial cooperation between black and white women and an artistic tradition that continues to evolve through the work of African American women artists Included are plays spanning the period 1916 to 1994 from playwrights such as Angelina Weld Grimke Georgia Douglas Johnson Lillian Smith and Michon Boston Art Now Gallery Guide ,1991-03 The Washingtonian ,1990 Exhibiting Difference Margaret R Daniel,2001 Face Value Donna M. De Salvo,Maurice Berger,1995 What is a portrait today is the defining question of this volume Essays by such leading scholars and critics as Maurice Berger Kenneth E Silver Max Kozloff and Michele Wallace propose fascinating answers framing portraiture through its age old kinship with status and wealth its employ in fashion politics and advertising and its current association with issues of identity The catalogue also explores the seemingly quixotic rebirth of studied portraiture in an age of instant image making the philosophical difficulties inherent in capturing individual essence and why portraits of individuals have such cachet in mass audience advertising
