Black Power And Christian Responsibility:

Black Power and Christian Responsibility Charles Freeman Sleeper, 1968      Black Theology and Black Power Cone, James, H., 2018 The introduction to this edition by Cornel West was originally published in Dwight N Hopkins ed Black Faith and Public Talk Critical Essays on James H Cone's Black Theology reprinted 2007 by Baylor University Press      The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology Katie G. Cannon, Anthony B. Pinn, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of African American Theology brings together leading scholars in the field to present a critical and comprehensive analysis of African American Theology in its many forms and contexts providing an interdisciplinary examination of the nature content and meaning of this form of theology      The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America      The Columbia Guide to African American History Since 1939 Robert L. Harris, Rosalyn Terborg-Penn, 2006 A multifaceted approach to understanding the central developments in African American history since 1939 It combines a historical overview of key personalities and movements with essays on specific facets of the African American experience a chronology of events and a guide to further study From publisher description      Practices, Politics, and Performance Michael G. Cartwright, 2006-06-01 Drawing on the hermeneutical reflections of John Howard Yoder Stanley Hauerwas and Mikhail Bakhtin Cartwright challenges the way twentieth century American Protestants have engaged the problem of the use of scripture in Christian ethics and issues a summons for a new debate oriented by a communal approach to hermeneutics By analyzing particular ecclesial practices that stand within living traditions of Christianity the politics of scriptural interpretation can be identified along with the criteria for what a good performance of scripture should be This approach to the use of scripture in Christian ethics is displayed in historical discussions of two Christian practices through which scripture is read ecclesiologically the Eastern Orthodox liturgical celebration of the Eucharist and the Anabaptist practice of binding and loosing or the rule of Christ When American Protestants consider performances of scripture such as these alongside one another within more ecumenical contexts they begin to confront the ecclesiological problem with their attempts to use the Bible in Christian ethics the relative absence of constitutive ecclesial practices in American Protestant congregations that can provide moral orientation for their interpretations of Christian scripture      Confronting the Color Line Alan B. Anderson, George W. Pickering, 2008-01-01 In Confronting the Color Line Alan Anderson and George Pickering examine the hopes and strategies the frustrations and internal conflicts the hard won successes and bitter disappointments of the civil rights movement in Chicago The scene of a protracted local struggle to force equality in education and open housing for blacks the city also became the focus of national attention in the summer of 1966 as Martin Luther King Jr and the Southern Christian Leadership Conference challenged the entrenched political machine of Mayor Richard J Daley The failure of King's campaign a failure he would not live to redeem marked the final unsuccessful attempt to secure significant social change in Chicago and soon afterward the national civil rights movement itself would unravel amid white backlash and cries of black power Picking up the threads of our own recent history Confronting the Color Line examines a political movement that remains unfinished a dilemma for America's system of democratic social change that remains unsolved

Twenty Years After Brown United States Commission on Civil Rights, 1974      A Black Theology of Liberation James H. Cone, 2010 With the publication of his two early works Black Theology Black Power 1969 and A Black Theology of Liberation 1970 James Cone emerged as one of the most creative and provocative theological voices in North America These books which offered a searing indictment of white theology and society introduced a radical reappraisal of the Christian message for our time Combining the visions of Malcolm X and Martin Luther King Jr Cone radically reappraised Christianity from the perspective of the oppressed black community in North America Forty years later his work retains its original power enhanced now by reflections on the evolution of his own thinking and of black theology and on the needs of the present moment      A Black Theology of Liberation Cone, James H., 2020-11-18 The classic text in black theology with a new foreword by Peter J Paris and a new afterword by Kelly Brown Douglas      The Bible and the Moral Life Charles Freeman Sleeper, 1992-01-01 The Bible helps to shape our understanding of Christian responsibility Sleeper shows how various church bodies use the Bible to speak to specific contemporary ethical issues and deals directly with the question of the authority of the Bible by taking up the teaching of four basic styles of moral reflection law prophecy apocalypse and wisdom Includes practical exercises      The Shadows of the Past, 1974      Religion and Politics in Presidential Elections Victor Wan-Tatah, 2012-12-14 My frustration and disappointment with the media coverage of the 2008 and 2012 presidential elections prompted me to write this book I feel strongly about correcting the misinformation the presentation of fabrications as truth and the blatant demonizing of the experiences and perspectives of others I made up my mind that I wanted to address these issues the best way that I know how Politics involving religion and moral issues particularly in the areas of Christianity African American religion and Black Liberation Theology are my areas of interest and expertise At different times I have taught classes at the university level involving these topics and with the encouragement of my students I wish to address them in this book Drilling down to the root cause of the anti Obama rhetoric coming from Republicans and Christian conservatives not only provided useful talking points for my introductory course in Africana Studies but the issue became personal and convinced me to embark on this project      The Church and Racial Hostility William Rader, 2011-07-12 Interaction between biblical study and the practical work of the church receives attention in this book The author seeks biblical perspective on the problem of racial conflict In New Testament times the deepest conflict between groups was that between Jews and Gentiles Ephesians 2:11-12 summarizes this conflict and its reconciliation in Jesus Christ The book traces the history of the passage's interpretation from the early church to the present in order to clarify the current situation It illustrates the significance of biblical scholarship for the practice of ministry      "The Air I Breathe is Wartburg Air"

Craig L. Nesson, 2003-06-20 The ministry of William H Weiblen at Wartburg Theological Seminary bridges the generations from the time of J Michael Reu and the second generation of Fritschels to the present time of celebration at the seminary's sesquicentennial This book captures the wisdom of Dr Weiblen as he reflects on the missionary history of the seminary and the course of his own life The Air I Breathe Is Wartburg Air includes intimate conversations with Bill Weiblen and offers a substantial collection of his theological writings addresses and sermons      From Labor to Reward Martha C.

Taylor, 2016-06-24 From Labor to Reward is a pioneering epic and groundbreaking book that fills a huge void in American religious history black religious history and traditions of the black church Until now no other book has chronicled the rich religious experiences of black church beginnings in the Bay Area Martha C Taylor provides penetrating insight into the early makings of the black church in the Bay Area With attention to detail Taylor captures the joys frustrations and unity of black people who left the segregated Deep South came to the Bay Area seeking freedom only to face similar adversities of segregation racism housing discrimination KKK threats of violence and other socio political barriers Remarkably these early pioneers brought their culture traditions and experiences from the South and built a strong vibrant religious community From Labor to Reward speaks for the legacy of African Americans who were gospel social activists using the church as the anchor Multiple sources of research and interviews were gathered from church records newspaper clippings and other written sources to tell this unknown story This book is sure to be a classic and a must read for all persons interested in history embed container position relative padding bottom 56 25% height 0 overflow hidden max width 100% embed container iframe embed container object embed container embed position absolute top 0 left 0 width 100% height 100%

Transformative Pastoral Leadership in the Black Church J. Tribble, 2005-07-04 Transformative Pastoral Leadership in the Black Church offers practical wisdom from comparative analysis of the experiences of a male pastor and a female pastor in the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church Church leaders must be transformed themselves as they are transforming their churches to serve their communities From his research of the perspectives of laity clergy and scholars of the black church Jeffery L Tribble offers hopeful stories and helpful strategies for those who believe that the black church must continue its historic mission of being an instrument of survival elevation and liberation for its people Transformative Pastoral Leadership in the Black Church is an important contribution to studies of black religion womanist thought and social justice
