Reproduction of the original Black Rock by Ralph Connor Black Rock Ralph Connor, 1899 Black Rock: A Tale of the Selkirks Ralph Connor, 2022-11-21 This literary work is set in a mining and lumberjack boom town in the 1880s The story focuses on a new minister who brings the fight for men's souls to the doors of the seedy saloons and dastardly drug pushers Plots conflicts and double crosses abound in the never ending battle played out in the lives of several characters

Black Rock Ralph Connor, 1917 Pioneer Woman Elizabeth Thompson, 1991-03-01 Elizabeth Thompson develops the idea of the pioneer woman as an archetypal character firmly entrenched in Canadian fiction and the Canadian consciousness Thompson's broad definition of the concept of pioneer can be seen to reflect the history of Canadian women starting with the pioneers of settlement and continuing through the pioneers of spiritual perfection and psychological liberation Various versions of the pioneer woman have appeared in English Canadian fiction since Traill's development of the character type Sara Jeannette Duncan's The Imperialist and Ralph Connor's The Man From Glengarry and Glengarry School Days feature pioneer women who cope not only with physical frontiers but also with those grounded in social and personal concerns More recently Margaret Laurence used this character type in The Stone Angel A Jest of God and The Diviners with characters who inhabit internal personal frontiers Thompson argues that the longevity of this character type in English Canadian fiction reveals an affinity between the pioneer woman and a common conception of the role of women in Canadian society She suggests that the role for women proposed by the early immigrants was an appropriate choice for the Canadian frontier regardless of the location and nature of that frontier The Assembly Herald, 1899 History of Literature in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2008 The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations Contributors Reingard M Nischik Eva Gruber Iain M Higgins Guy Lafleur Dorothee Scholl Gwendolyn Davies Tracy Ware Fritz Peter Kirsch Julia Breitbart Lorraine York Marta Dvorak Jerry Wasserman Ursula Mathis Moser Doris G Eibl Rolf Lohse Sherrill Grace Caroline Rosenthal Martin Kuester Nicholas Bradley Anne Nothof Georgiana Banita Gilles Dupuis and Andrea Oberhuber Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany

The Literary History of Alberta Volume One George Melnyk, 1998-04 Alberta's contradictory landscape has fired the imaginative energies of writers for centuries The sweep of the plains the thrust of the Rockies and the long roll of the woodlands have left vivid impressions on all of Alberta's writers both those who passed through Alberta in search of other horizons and those who made it their home The Literary History of Alberta surveys writing in and about Alberta from prehistory to the middle of the twentieth century It includes profiles of dozens of writers from the earnestly intended to the truly gifted and their texts from the commercial to the arcane It reminds us of long forgotten names and faces figures who quietly or not so quietly wrote the books that underpin Alberta's thriving literary culture today Melnyk also discusses the institutions that have shaped Alberta's literary culture The Literary History of Alberta is an essential text for any reader interested in the cultural history of western Canada and a landmark achievement in Alberta's continuing literary history

Authors and Audiences Clarence Karr, 2000 From the 1890s through the 1920s the best selling fiction of Ralph Connor Robert Stead Nellie McClung Lucy Maud Montgomery and Arthur Stringer was internationally recognized In this intriguing cultural history of the conception production and reception of popular fiction Clarence Karr challenges the common assumption that best sellers are a conservative cultural influence reflecting and promoting traditional values By focusing on a society and its cultural leaders at a period when they were coming to grips with modernity Karr provides a new perspective on popular culture and the interaction between readers and popular authors

The Routledge Introduction to Gender and Sexuality in Literature in Canada Linda M. Morra, 2023-01-31 The Routledge Introduction to Gender and Sexuality in Literature in Canada charts the evolution of gender and sexuality as they have been represented and performed in the literatures of Canada for more than three centuries From early colonial texts by Frances Brooke to settler texts by Susanna Moodie and Catherine Parr Traill to more contemporary texts by Jane Rule Alice Munro Joshua Whitehead Ivan Coyote and others this volume will introduce readers to how gender and sexuality have been variably conceived in Canada and the work they perform across multiple genres Calling upon recent currents of gender theory and examining the composition structure and history of selected literary texts that is the literary sediments that have accumulated over centuries readers of this book will explore how those representations shift over time By examining literature in Canada in relation to crucial cultural political and historical contexts readers will better apprehend why that literature has significantly transformed and broadened to address racialized and fluid identities that continue to challenge and disrupt any stable notion of gendered and sexualized identity today

The Annual American Catalog, 1900-1909, 1901 Ecology & Wonder in the Canadian Rocky Mountain Parks World Heritage Site Robert W. Sandford, 2010 Ecology and Wonder celebrates Western Canada's breathtaking landscape The book makes several remarkable claims The greatest cultural achievement in the mountain region of western Canada may be what has been preserved not what has been developed Protecting the spine of the Rocky Mountains will preserve crucial ecological functions Because the process of ecosystem diminishment and species loss has been slowed an ecological thermostat has been kept alive This may well be an important defence against future impacts of climate change in the Canadian West
