Black Sisters Speak Out:

Speak Out, Black Sisters Awa Thiam, 1986 Black Sisters, Speak Out Awa Thiam, 1996-09-01 Speak Out, Black Sisters Awa Thiam, 1986 Black Women in America Kim Marie Vaz, 1994-11-02 This stimulating volume challenges the tendency to represent African American women's experiences as a monolithic whole. The interdisciplinary approach organized around the theme of activism enables an unusual and inventive selection of topics to be presented. The history, culture, sociology, and psychology of black women are richly represented. Black Feminist Thought Patricia Hill Collins, 2002-06-01 In spite of the double burden of racial and gender discrimination, African American women have developed a rich intellectual tradition that is not widely known. In Black Feminist Thought, Patricia Hill Collins explores the words and ideas of Black feminist intellectuals as well as those African American women outside academe. She provides an interpretive framework for the work of such prominent Black feminist thinkers as Angela Davis, bell hooks, Alice Walker, and Audre Lorde. The result is a superbly crafted book that provides the first synthetic overview of Black feminist thought.

Social Care with African Families in the UK Viola Nzira, 2010-09-16 This important text promotes understanding of the complexities and diversities of African family life. It stimulates creative thinking about how social care professionals can develop meaningful relationships and engage confidently and effectively with African families they encounter within work contexts. The book will help students and professionals to develop specific knowledge and skills for working with African families, including refugees, asylum seekers, new and settled immigrants, and people of dual heritage. Whilst highlighting differences in terms of practices across the continent, the common threads and shared identities of these families can provide the building blocks for new and relevant knowledge which then inform anti-oppressive practice. Issues such as child discipline, officialdom, roles and responsibilities within the family, image and identity, and the perception of others are discussed in chapters covering economic and social pressures, family structures, marriage patterns, partnerships, mortality and death, faith and spirituality. Containing numerous illustrative examples, this accessible text will be useful to all social work and social care students. North-south Linkages and Connections in Continental and Diaspora African Literatures African Literature Association. Meeting, 2005 This volume collects some of the best lectures at the African Literature Association's 25th annual conference held in 1999. The conference brought together for the first time a large number of scholars, creative writers, and artists from Northern Africa and their counterparts from Sub-Saharan Africa. The conference and this collection highlight the inspiring and stimulating dialogue between two literary and cultural areas that have often been artificially compartmentalised. The essays draw surprising connections and illustrate the breadth and dynamism of African literature.

Female Genital Mutilation: Proposals for Change, Medically unnecessary and extremely painful operations are routinely carried out on babies and young girls. In their most severe forms, they involve the partial or complete removal of the external female genitalia. This little-known custom affects more than 80 million women and girls in over 20 countries in Africa.

Please note that the terminology in the fields of minority rights and indigenous peoples rights has changed over time MRG strives to reflect these changes as well as respect the right to self identification on the part of minorities and indigenous peoples At the same time after over 50 years work we know that our archive is of considerable interest to activists and researchers Therefore we make available as much of our back catalogue as possible while being aware that the language used may not reflect current thinking on these issues

Cutting the Rose: Female Genital Mutilation - The Practice and Its Prevention Efua Dorkenoo,1994-01-01 Only from such models is it fully possible to explore such issues as the rights of women and of children of the part which the well being of women plays in the health of a nation and also the strengths and weaknesses of the various international campaigns on the subject

The Standard of the Best Interests of the Child Claire Breen,2021-10-18 This text examines the application of the standard of the best interests of the child in the context of international law The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child recognises the best interests standard as being one of its guiding principles The question of whether the best interests standard succeeds in reaching this goal is the central theme of this book The point of departure for this analysis is that of the best interest standard being a Western notion based on an idea of the child as an innocent in need of protection However difficulties arise when the best interests standard has to be applied to a child who does not fit these criteria Consideration is then given to the malleability of the standard which allows it to overcome such difficulties and to justify its position as one of the guiding principles underpinning children s rights at the domestic and international level

Women in the Third World Lynne Brydon,1989 Women in the Third World provides an up to date general account and review of research on the roles and status of women in contemporary Third World societies The book focuses on four major themes of underdevelopment which have particular relevance for gender roles and relations the household production reproduction and policy These issues are illustrated with material from rural and urban areas in all parts of the Third World The book summarizes significant ideas and findings Lynne Brydon and Sylvia Chang have avoided a narrow focus on particular regions and countries to provide a synoptic overview In addition to being a valuable source of reference for scholars interested in gender and development in the Third World the book also attempts to pinpoint fundamental aspects of gender inequality which apply to women everywhere The overriding conclusion of the book is that women s experiences of development are generally negative and that intervention is urgently required to prevent their positions relative to men s deteriorating still further

Peacebuilding and the Arts Jolyon Mitchell,Giselle Vincett,Theodora Hawksley,Hal Culbertson,2019-11-19 Ending violent conflict requires societies to take leaps of political imagination Artistic communities are often uniquely placed to help promote new thinking by enabling people to see things differently In place of conflict s binary divisions artists are often charged with exploring the ambiguities and possibilities of the excluded middle Yet their role in peacebuilding remains little explored This excellent and agenda setting volume provides a ground breaking look at a range of artistic practices and the ways in which they have attempted to support peacebuilding a must read for all practitioners and policy makers and indeed other peacemakers looking for inspiration Professor Christine Bell FBA Professor of Constitutional Law Assistant Principal Global Justice and co director of the Global Justice Academy The University of Edinburgh UK Peacebuilding and the Arts offers an impressive and impressively comprehensive engagement with the role that visual art music literature film and theatre play in building peaceful and just societies Without idealizing the role of the arts the authors explore their potential and limits in a wide range of cases from Korea Cambodia Colombia and Northern Ireland to Uganda Rwanda South Africa and Israel Palestine Roland Bleiker Professor of International Relations University of Queensland Australia and author of Aesthetics and World Politics and Visual Global Politics Peacebuilding and the Arts is the first publication to focus critically and comprehensively on the relations between the creative arts and peacebuilding expanding the conventional boundaries of peacebuilding and conflict transformation to include the artist actor poet novelist dramatist musician dancer and film director The sections on the visual arts music literature film and theatre include case studies from very different cultures contexts and settings but a central theme is that the creative arts can play a unique and crucial role in the building of peaceful and just societies with the power to transform relationships heal wounds and nurture compassion and empathy Peacebuilding and the Arts is a vital and unique resource which will stimulate critical discussion and further research but it will also help to refine and reframe our understanding of peacebuilding While it will undoubtedly become mandatory reading for students of peacebuilding and the arts its original approach and dynamic exploratory style should attract a much wider interdisciplinary audience Professor Anna King Professor of Religious Studies and Social Anthropology and Director of Research Centre of Religion Reconciliation and Peace WCRRP University of Winchester UK This volume explores the relationship between peacebuilding and the arts Through a series of original essays authors consider some of the ways that different art forms including film theatre music literature dance and other forms of visual art can contribute to the processes and practices of building peace This book breaks new ground by setting out fresh ways of analysing the relationship between peacebuilding and the arts Divided into five sections on the Visual Arts Music Literature Film and Theatre Dance over 20 authors offer conceptual overviews of each art form as well as new case studies from around the globe and critical reflections on how the arts can contribute to peacebuilding As interest in the topic increases no other book approaches this complex relationship in the way that Peacebuilding and the Arts does By bringing together the insights of scholars and practitioners working at the intersection of the arts and peacebuilding this book develops a series of unique critical perspectives on the interaction of diverse art forms with a range of peacebuilding endeavours

Worlding Women Jan Jindy Pettman, 2005-12-20 In Worlding Women Jan Jindy Pettman asks Where are the women in international relations She develops a broad picture of women in colonial and post colonial relations racialized ethnic and national identity conflicts in wars liberation movements and peace movements and in the international political economy Bringing contemporary feminist theory together with women's experiences of the international Pettman shows how mainstream international relations is based on certain constructions of masculinity and femininity Her ground breaking analysis has implications for feminist politics as well as for the study of international relations Roads to Decolonisation Amy Duvenage, 2024-04-16 Roads to Decolonisation An Introduction to Thought from the Global South is an accessible new textbook that provides undergraduate students with a vital introduction to theory from the Global South and key issues of social justice arming them with the tools to theorise and explain the social world away from dominant Global North perspectives Arranged in four parts it examines key thinkers activists and theory work from the Global South theoretical concepts and socio historical conditions associated with race and racism gender and sexuality identity and un belonging in a globalised world and decolonisation and education challenges to dominant Euro American perspectives on key social justice issues linking decolonial discourses to contemporary case studies Each chapter offers an overview of key thinkers and activists whose work engages with social justice issues many of whom are under represented or left out of undergraduate humanities and social sciences textbooks in the North This is essential reading for students of the humanities and social sciences worldwide as well as scholars keen to embed Southern thought in their curricula and pedagogical practice

Making and Remaking Mosques in Senegal Cleo Cantone, 2012-04-03 This book constitutes a seminal contribution to the fields of Islamic architectural history and gender studies It is the first major empirical study of the history and current state of mosque building in Senegal and the first study of mosque space from a gender perspective The author positions Senegalese mosques within the field of Islamic architectural history unraveling their history through pre colonial travelers accounts to conversations with present day planners imams and women who continually shape and reshape the mosques they worship in Using contemporary Dakar as a case study the book s second aim is to explore the role of women in the making and remaking of mosques In particular the rise of non tariqa grass roots movements i e the Sunni Ibadou movement has empowered women particularly young women and has greatly strengthened their capacity to use mosques as places of spirituality education and socialization The text is aimed at several specialized readerships readers interested in Islam in West Africa in the role of women in Islam as well as those interested in the sociology and art history of mosques Race, Ethnicity and the Women's Movement in England, 1968-1993 Natalie Thomlinson, 2016-04-08 This book is the first archive based account of the charged debates around race in the women s movement in England during the second wave period Examining both the white and the Black women s movement through a source base that includes original oral histories and extensive research using feminist periodicals this book seeks to unpack the historical roots of long running tensions between Black and white feminists It gives a broad overview of the activism that both Black and white women were involved in and examines the Black feminist critique of white feminists as racist how white feminists reacted to this critique and asks why the women s movement was so unable to engage with the concerns of Black women Through doing so the book speaks to many present day concerns within the women s movement about the politics of race and indeed the place of identity politics within the left more broadly The Routledge Handbook of the Global 1980s Jonathan Davis,2025-08-18 The 1980s was a decade of enormous global change Upheaval from the top of governments to the bottom of societies saw a new world order begin to emerge A new form of capitalism redefined global economics on both the right and left as market forces were unleashed The ideological conflict of the previous four decades petered out as superpower relations improved A more interconnected world introduced new consumer products and forms of popular culture to societies across the globe And protest movements saw new battles fought and new alliances forged in an increasingly interdependent world The Routledge Handbook of the Global 1980s brings together specialists from across the world to examine how the decade was shaped by these changes to politics economics culture societies and protest movements The Handbook is divided into five parts focusing on the global environment globalisation and neoliberalism politics and society culture and society and the closing stages of the global Cold War By taking an international approach to the history of the 1980s this book offers a wide ranging and important new perspective of this hugely transformative decade It will appeal to students and scholars alike as well as all those interested in the political social economic and cultural shifts of the 1980s Intersectional Feminist Research Methodologies Jennifer Cooke,Line Nyhagen,2024-08-14 Intersectional Feminist Research Methodologies Applications in the Social Sciences and Humanities is a multi disciplinary volume in which emerging and established scholars present new feminist research methods and re evaluate existing approaches This collection examines how both new and established feminist methods address intersecting identities and structures of inequality including gender race sexuality and class Each chapter provides a case study of a methodology or methodologies that have been adopted developed or adapted within the author s field including sociology criminology political science history literature and performance studies The volume articulates the importance of knowledge production that arises from the situated and lived experiences of individuals groups and communities It discusses how we survive as feminists in today s neoliberal universities and includes research on trans and nonbinary people Indonesian history and the MeToo movement world literature from the Philippines memory work and crime on the London transport network The contributors engage with intersectionality in different ways but collectively they demonstrate the pervasiveness of intersectional thinking and practice in feminist scholarship today Intersectional Feminist Research Methodologies will be of value to both undergraduate and graduate students conducting research as well as doctoral researchers and more established feminist researchers Women's Activism in Twentieth-Century Britain Paula Bartley,2022-04-01 This book serves as an introduction to the extraordinary diversity of women s activism Paula Bartley s original research is supported by a range of writing to provide a powerful impression of the actions taken by groups of women from across the social and political spectrum making the book invaluable to both students and interested readers These women set out to make a difference to their locality their country and sometimes the world The story of women s activism embodies stimulating accounts of progress and reversals of commitment and uncertainty of competing rights and challenging wrongs The story of women s activism is not tidy or well ordered It is messy and unorthodox And full of surprises
