Black Water Plume Contemporary Fiction:

Black Water Joyce Carol Oates,1993-05-01 Flattered by the attentions of a senator she has met at a Fourth of July beach party on Grayling Island Kelly Kelleher accepts a ride from him taking a first step toward her final confrontation with death

The Cambridge Introduction to Contemporary American Fiction Stacey Olster,2017-06-09 The Cambridge Introduction to Contemporary American Fiction explores fiction written over the last thirty years in the context of the profound political historical and cultural changes that have distinguished the contemporary period Focusing on both established and emerging writers and with chapters devoted to the American historical novel regional realism the American political novel the end of the Cold War and globalization 9 11 borderlands and border identities race and the legacy of postmodern aesthetics this Introduction locates contemporary American fiction at the intersection of a specific time and long standing traditions In the process it investigates the entire concept of what constitutes an American author while exploring the vexed yet resilient nature of what the concept of home has come to signify in so much writing today This wide ranging study will be invaluable to students instructors and general readers alike Contemporary American Women Fiction Writers Laurie

Champion,Rhonda Austin,2002-11-30 American women writers have long been creating an extraordinarily diverse and vital body of fiction particularly in the decades since World War II Recent authors have benefited from the struggles of their predecessors who broke through barriers that denied women opportunities for self expression This reference highlights American women writers who continue to build upon the formerly male dominated canon Included are alphabetically arranged entries for more than 60 American women writers of diverse ethnicity who wrote or published their most significant fiction after World War II Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes L DBLA brief biography L DBLA discussion of major works and themes DBLA survey of the writer s critical reception L DBLA bibliography of primary and secondary sources Emotion, Race, and Space in Contemporary African American Literature Marijana Mikić,2025-05-13

This open access book examines how selected African American authors Colson Whitehead Edward P Jones Toni Morrison Brit Bennett Percival Everett Maurice Carlos Ruffin Sherri L Smith and N K Jemisin narrate relationships between emotion race and space On the one hand they bear witness to the structural production of Black emotional pain at the confluence of racial and spatial discrimination On the other hand they reveal meaningful and subversive interlinkages between Black emotional experiences and Black spatial practices Weaving together insights from psychology narrative theory African American studies affect theory and Black Geographies Marijana Miki interrogates fear hope shame guilt anger and grief in relation to the racial geographic projects of slavery Jim Crow segregation and their continued legacies Miki draws attention to the narrative strategies contemporary African American authors employ to prompt their readers engagement with both the pain and the possibility that continues to shape Black lives in the twenty first century Review of Contemporary Fiction

Character and Satire in Post War Fiction Ian Gregson, 2008-04-01 This monograph analyses the use of caricature as one of the key strategies in narrative fiction since the war Close analysis of some of the best known postwar novelists including Toni Morrison Philip Roth Joyce Carol Oates Angela Carter and Will Self reveals how they use caricature to express postmodern conceptions of the self In the process of moving away from the modernist focus on subjectivity postmodern characterisation has often drawn on a much older satirical tradition which includes Hogarth and Gillray in the visual arts and Dryden Pope Swift and Dickens in literature Its key images depict the human as reduced to the status of an object an animal or a machine or the human body as dismembered to represent the fragmentation of the human spirit Gregson argues that this return to caricature is symptomatic of a satirical attitude to the self which is particularly characteristic of contemporary culture

The Publishers Weekly, 2000 Black Water Joyce Carol Oates, 1993-05-01 The Pulitzer Prize nominated novel from the author of the New York Times bestselling novel We Were the Mulvaneys Its power of evocation is remarkable The New Yorker In the midst of a long summer on Grayling Island Maine twenty six year old Kelly Kelleher longs for something interesting to happen to her something that will make her finally feel some of what she imagines other people must feel when they watch the fireworks explode off the beach So when Kelly meets The Senator at an exclusive party and he asks her to go back to a hotel room on the main island with him she says yes Even though the senator is old enough to be her father even though he has perhaps been drinking too heavily to get behind the wheel the danger of saying yes is an inevitable and even exciting part of the adventure Kelly is finally going to have However as The Senator s car whips around the island s roads and eventually crashes through a guardrail it becomes clear to Kelly and the reader that this man embodies a wholly different and more sinister type of danger one much larger and harder to contain than the horrible events that unfold as Kelly is left in the sinking car Black Water is a chilling meditation on power trust and violation and a timeless classic from one of America s foremost storytellers New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement ,1993-04 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2004 American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Cosmopolitan Cultures and Oceanic Thought Dilip M Menon,Nishat Zaidi,2023-03-29 This book imagines the ocean as central to understanding the world and its connections in history literature and the social sciences Introducing the central conceptual category of ocean as method it analyzes the histories of movement and traversing across connected spaces of water and land sedimented in literary texts folklore local histories autobiographies music and performance It explores the constant flow of people material and ideologies across the waters and how they make their presence felt in a cosmopolitan thinking of the connections of the world Going beyond violent histories of slavery and indenture that generate global connections it tracks the movements of sailors boatmen religious teachers merchants and adventurers The essays in this volume summon up this miscegenated history in which land and water are ever linked A significant rethinking of world history this volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of history especially connected history and maritime history literature and Global South studies Splattered Ink Sarah E Whitney,2016-08-01 In depth and refreshingly readable Splattered Ink is a bold analysis of postfeminist gothic a literary genre that continues to jar readers reject happy endings and find powerful new ways to talk about violence against women Sarah E Whitney explores the genre s challenge to postfeminist assumptions of women s equality and empowerment The authors she examines Patricia Cornwell Jodi Picoult Susanna Moore Sapphire and Alice Sebold construct narratives around socially invisible and physically broken protagonists who directly experience consequences of women s ongoing disempowerment Their works ask readers to inhabit women s suffering and to face the uncomfortable all too denied fact that today s women must navigate lives fraught with risk Whitney s analysis places the authors within a female gothic tradition that has long given voice to women s fears of their own powerlessness But she also reveals the paradox that allows the genre to powerfully critique postfeminism s often sunshiney outlook while uneasily coexisting within the same universe Palimpsests in Ethnic and Postcolonial Literature and Culture Yiorgos D. Kalogeras,Johanna C. Kardux,Monika Mueller,Jopi Nyman,2021-01-28 This volume explores ways in which the literary trope of the palimpsest can be applied to ethnic and postcolonial literary and cultural studies Based on contemporary theories of the palimpsest the innovative chapters reveal hidden histories and uncover relationships across disciplines and seemingly unconnected texts The contributors focus on diverse forms of the palimpsest the incarceration of Native

Americans in military forts and their response to the elimination of their cultures mnemonic novels that rework the politics and poetics of the Black Atlantic the urban palimpsests of Rio de Janeiro Marseille Johannesburg and Los Angeles that reveal layers of humanity with disparities in origin class religion and chronology and the palimpsestic configurations of mythologies and religions that resist strict cultural distinctions and argue against cultural relativism Ghosts of the African Diaspora Joanne Chassot, 2018-01-02 The first monograph to investigate the poetics and politics of haunting in African diaspora literature Ghosts of the African Diaspora: Re-Visioning History, Memory, and Identity examines literary works by five contemporary writers Fred D Aguiar Gloria Naylor Paule Marshall Michelle Cliff and Toni Morrison Joanne Chassot argues that reading these texts through the lens of the ghost does cultural theoretical and political work crucial to the writers engagement with issues of identity memory and history Drawing on memory and trauma studies postcolonial studies and queer theory this truly interdisciplinary volume makes an important contribution to the fast growing field of spectrality studies Africana Methodology James L. Conyer, Jr., 2018-10-15 This book critically examines the collection interpretation and analysis of quantitative and qualitative data from an Afrocentric perspective The necessity of interpretive Afrocentric research is relevant to position agency and to locate Africana studies in place space and time This study will provide readers with a compilation of literary historical philosophical and social science essays that describe and evaluate the Africana experience from a methodological perspective Paradoxically the collection presents measurable and qualitative research in order to flush out a global Pan Africanist consciousness Precarious Passages Tuire Valkeakari, 2022-06-28 Precarious Passages unites literature written by members of the far flung Black Anglophone diaspora Rather than categorizing novels as simply African American Black Canadian Black British or postcolonial African Caribbean this book takes an integrative approach it argues that fiction creates and sustains a sense of a wider African diasporic community in the Western world Tuire Valkeakari analyzes the writing of Toni Morrison Caryl Phillips Lawrence Hill and other contemporary novelists of African descent She shows how their novels connect with each other and with defining moments in the transatlantic experience most notably the Middle Passage and enslavement The lives of their characters are marked by migration and displacement Their protagonists yearn to experience fulfilling human connection in a place they can call home Portraying strategies of survival adaptation and resistance across the limitless varieties of life experiences in the diaspora these novelists continually reimagine what it means to share a Black diasporic identity A Spirit of Dialogue Christopher

N. Okonkwo, 2008 A groundbreaking study A Spirit of Dialogue examines through extensive interdisciplinary research theory and close reading the intricate reconstructions extensions and resonances of the West African myth of spirit children the Born to Die in contemporary African American neo slave narratives Arguing that the myth called Ogba je in Igbo language and b k in Yoruba has had over thirty years of uncharted presence in African American literature Okonkwo advances a compelling case absent in extant scholarship He traces Ogba je the Born to Die s appearance in African American texts to a convergence of factors They include but are not limited to the impact of Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart the 1960s emergence of the contemporary neo slave narrative the 1960s and 1970s black consciousness Black Power movement and the cultural agenda gendered politics and centripetal philosophy of the Black Arts movement's nationalist aesthetic African American identity questions of the post civil rights and the multicultural eras and the thematic shifts as well as the African diaspora orientation of African American fiction of the post nationalist aesthetic period A Spirit of Dialogue focuses on the sometimes neglected and understudied works of four canonical African American writers Octavia E Butler's Wild Seed and Mind of My Mind Tananarive Due's The Between John Edgar Wideman's The Cattle Killing and Toni Morrison's Sula and Beloved Okonkwo demonstrates persuasively how the mythic spirit child informs the content and form of these novels offering Butler Due Wideman and Morrison a non occidental code by which to engage collectively with the various issues integral to the history experience of African descended people The paradigm functions then as the nexus of a life affirmative dialogue among the six novels as well as between them and other works of African religious and literary imagination particularly Things Fall Apart and Ben Okri's The Famished Road
