Black Women In The Image Of God:

Black Women in the Image of God Dorothy Winbush Riley, 1999 Best selling author Dorothy Winbush Riley has assembled a rich and varied collection of photography fine art and sculpture depicting the past present and future of women of African descent Vibrant full color and black and white images portraying the tenderness and strength of women of the Diaspora are coupled with words from the Bible and quotes from Sojourner Truth Aretha Franklin Maya Angelou and many others The Afro-Descendant Woman in Latin American Diasporic Visual Art Rosita Scerbo, 2024-07-05 By studying multiple cultural expressions of Blackness throughout different regions of the Americas the chapters of this book consider the relationship that social and historical processes such as sovereignty and colonialism have on cultural productions made by and about Black Latin American women Rosita Scerbo analyzes a range of power dynamics as represented in different artistic media of the Afro Latin x American community including photography muralism performance paintings and digital art The book acknowledges that racial and gender equity cannot exist without Intersectionality and that is why the entirety of the chapters focus on cultural and visual productions exclusively created by Afro descendant women The Black Latin American women featured in the various chapters spanning multiple artistic mediums and originating from various Latin American and Caribbean nations including Mexico Colombia the Dominican Republic Puerto Rico Brazil and Cuba collectively pursue the central aim of foregrounding the Afro descendant woman s experience Simultaneously they strive to enhance the visibility and acknowledgment of gendered Afro diasporic culture within the Latin American context The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history gender studies women s studies Latin American studies African diaspora studies and race and ethnic studies Feminist Mysticism and Images of God Jennie S Knight, 2011-02-28 Feminist theologians often claim that women s experience is their starting point However most feminist theology is remarkably void of analysis of particular women s experiences of imaging God In this book Knight provides practical recommendations to help people transform images in the context of religious practices What difference does it make whether we picture God as an elderly white grandfather a nurturing African American mother or a stranger on the bus Jennie Knight says our image of God affects how we see ourselves how we worship how we treat one another how or whether we work for justice and a host of other life practices But after years of knowing intellectually that God transcends a specific human type Knight still struggles to make an emotional connection with God in different forms She suspects that that struggle is why many seminarians who wrote papers about thea theology abandon nontraditional God images once they hit parish ministry perpetuating the practice of seeing God as a European male on a throne and all the accompanying problems that such imagery creates Knight believes that personal and critical reflection in the context of a supportive learning community combined with experiences of diverse images for the divine in worship can lead to profound changes in self image relationship with the divine and agency in the world This book aims to demonstrate why and how this transformation is both possible and necessary The popularity of The Shack The Secret Life of Bees Joan of Arcadia and other works with nontraditional God figures reveals a culture ready to embrace God in many forms Knight examines how the church can do the same Wounded Images Kristine M.

Whaley,2024-03-27 This volume works through deconstructing traditional models of the imago Dei in search of a more inclusive understanding of the doctrine one that allows for literature to bring important questions to bear Brief analyses of Karl Barth and Paul Tillich and then growing dissatisfaction with the two in various liberation theologies brings to light the problems of a perfected image of God An exploration of four novels by Jean Rhys between 1928 and 1939 then follows the footsteps of Katie Cannon and others who include literature in their theological work The Rhys novels follow tragic stories of women who are wounded both by others and by their own inability to see themselves as worthy Through the questions these women ask about themselves and God the reconstruction of the imago Dei is set up This reconstruction centers trauma wounds and a non contrastive transcendence that Kathryn Tanner defines Ultimately it is not in how we are perfect but rather through our risks our wounds and even our grief that we connect to God Gendered Aesthetics of Blackness Rosita

Scerbo,2025-07-01 Explores how Afro Cuban women s visual art challenges dominant narratives of race gender and identity Gendered Aesthetics of Blackness delves deeply into the visual artistry and activism of Afro Cuban women in Cuba and the United States Influential in their communities yet overlooked in the mainstream art world and academic discourse Harmonia Rosales Mar a Magdalena Campos Pons Belkis Ay n and Susana Pilar practice what Rosita Scerbo calls Decolonial AfroARTivism These women use their art to challenge and disrupt dominant narratives reclaim their identities and cultural heritage and advocate for social justice In centering their voices and meticulously analyzing their works Scerbo not only enriches our understanding of Afro Cuban visual culture but also pushes the boundaries of research Groundbreaking in its decolonial approach and form Gendered Aesthetics of Blackness engages a wide swath of sources and includes two interviews with Rosales and with curator and popular educator Diarenis Calderon Tartabull Introducing Feminist

Images of God Mary C. Grey,2001 Introductions in Feminist Theology IFT explores various theological topics that challenge patriarchal theology and suggest liberating alternatives The authors and editors seek to expand theological discourse by providing reliable guides to the history of thinking current issues and debates and possible future developments in feminist theology Colored Women Sittin' on High Melanie R. Hill,2025-04-23 From blue note turmoil to grace note power Black women preachers stand tall In Colored Women Sittin on High Melanie R Hill offers a new perspective on the art of the sermon in African American literature music and theology Drawing on the womanist cadence of Alice Walker in literature and the rhythmical flow of named womanist theologians Hill makes interventions at the intersections of African American literary criticism music and religious studies Pushing against the patriarchal dominance that often exists in religious spaces Hill argues that Black women s religious practice creates a sermonic space that thrives inside and outside the church allowing for a critique of sexism and anti Black racism She examines literature by writers such as Zora Neale Hurston and James Baldwin music by Aretha Franklin and Ms Lauryn Hill and sermons by theologians Ruby Sales and Vashti M McKenzie and she takes readers into a sermonic artwork of artists preachers and freedom movement activists who are as Hill contends the greatest virtuosic alchemists of our time Albert Cleage Jr. and the Black Madonna and Child Jawanza Eric Clark,2016-09-14

In this collection black religious scholars and pastors whose expertise range from theology ethics and the psychology of religion to preaching religious aesthetics and religious education discuss the legacy of Albert B Cleage Jr and the idea of the Black Madonna and child Easter Sunday 2017 will mark the fifty year anniversary of Albert B Cleage Jr s unveiling of a mural of the Black Madonna and child in his church in Detroit Michigan This unveiling symbolized a radical theological departure and disruption The mural helped symbolically launch Black Christian Nationalism and influenced the Black Power movement in the United States But fifty years later what has been the lasting impact of this act of theological innovation What is the legacy of Cleage s emphasis on the literal blackness of Jesus How has the idea of a Black Madonna and child informed notions of black womanhood motherhood LGBTQ communities How has Cleage s theology influenced Christian education Africana pastoral theology and the Black Arts Movement The contributors to this work discuss answers to these and many more questions Black Theology—Essays on Gender Perspectives Dwight N. Hopkins,2017-06-15 What do African American men have to do with gender In this collection of riveting and wide ranging essays Dwight N Hopkins draws on over thirty five years of wrestling with these questions Too often gender is seen as a woman s only discussion But in reality men have a gender too Some say it is biological others claim it has to do with socialization Hopkins s career has focused on defining what a black American man is and how he builds bridges of support and engagement with women Hopkins s research as a theologian and his experiences substantiate that the importance of religious viewpoints principled values and future hope remain key to any successful creation of a new African American male and new healthy male female interactions

Parable of the Brown Girl Khristi Lauren Adams,2020-02-04 The stories of girls of color are often overlooked unseen and ignored rather than valued and heard In Parable of the Brown Girl minister and youth advocate Khristi Lauren Adams introduces readers to the resilience struggle and hope held within these stories Instead of relegating these young women of color to the margins Adams bring their stories front and center where they belong By sharing encounters she s had with girls of color that revealed profound cultural and theological truths Adams magnifies the struggles dreams wisdom and dignity of these voices Thought provoking and inspirational Parable of the Brown Girl is a powerful example of how God uses the narratives we most often ignore to teach us the most important lessons in life It s time to pay attention The Image of God in an Image Driven Age Beth Felker Jones,Jeffrey W. Barbeau,2016-03-08 Humans are created in the image of God yet by choosing to rebel against God we become unfaithful bearers of his image But Jesus who is the image of God restores the divine image in us At the intersection of theology and culture these essays offer a unified vision of what it means to be truly human and created in the divine image in the world today Our Bodies Are Alive Bridget Piggue,2025-04-29 Our bodies are ALIVE is a statement suggesting that we physically and energetically exist as dynamic and active beings Even when unaware our bodies are engaging and mapping all that exists around them and consequently are creating and supporting narratives we would do well to investigate These narratives have the power to lodge within the scripts of our bodies while at the same time continuing to inform our choices and decisions without explicit permission We are so much more than our physical brains because our minds exist throughout the entirety of our bodies they are bodies that can hold knowledge and wisdom from ages past and have the ability to inform themselves Intentional mining of this gold within can significantly inform the impact leaders have on others and the state of their own physical and mental health Any healing and liberative work then begins with self literacy From the disciplines of neuroscience womanist theology psychology and indigenous spirituality conversations with African American clergy women reveal fascinating insights on embodied self relationship pain and healing as well as paths toward more integrated and effective leadership practices It is ultimately an invitation to radical self regard respect of body intelligence and the process of healing FIERCELY

Black Women and Breast Cancer

Elizabeth A. Williams, 2018-11-16 Christian theology at its core is a story about someone being in trouble In response to this trouble the triune God intervenes God identifies with those in trouble walking with them through the experience Yet the God of Christian theology goes a step further God prevails over trouble God is an overcomer Black women with breast cancer identify with this God They also see themselves in this theological narrative They see themselves in the midst of troubles troubles like racism poverty and environmental exposures that create the disease affecting their bodies They see the troubles of breast cancer their biological disposition towards more aggressive cancers later stage diagnoses poorer prognoses diminished quality of care and worse outcomes Black women also palpably feel the troubles breast cancer brings like fear physical disfigurement social isolation being stereotyped for treatment decisions abandonment and even death Black women feel the myriad troubles breast cancer brings But Black women also know God in their troubles They know an active God who identifies with and prioritizes their needs They know this God through scripture and experience as God who puts them front and center And because they know God as an overcomer and creative force they know themselves as overcomers For with God their troubles do not last always Black women with breast cancer construct a cultural theology of breast cancer out of knowing God Borne out of experiences of the Black Church womanist theology and their intersectional identities of race class and gender this theological investigation informed by anthropology examines how Black women construct an ontology of who God is and how God operates and gain a God consciousness that shapes their response to the disease Using pain faith and testimony as tools to struggle against breast cancer Black survivors theology transforms them from victims of breast cancer to change agents Out of their lives as survivors comes a theology of complex hope one cognizant of Black women's breast cancer disparities yet oriented towards Black women's achievement of health in the present and the future a sufficient hope to sustain Black women through it all

Religion and Popular Culture in America Bruce David Forbes, Jeffrey H.

Mahan,2005-11-17 PRAISE FOR THE FIRST EDITION A solid introduction to the dialogue between the disciplines of cultural studies and religion A substantive foundation for subsequent exploration Religious Studies Review A splendid collection of lively essays by fourteen scholars dealing with religion and popular culture on the contemporary American scene Choice

Power, Agency, and Women in the Mission of God Susan L. Maros,Vince L. Bantu,Kirsteen Kim,2024-05-10 This volume fulfills the need for an accessible academic book that addresses the gender issues that women face as Christian disciples whether in formal leadership roles or engaging leadership in informal means and considers these issues in the context of world Christianity In an era in which mission is from everywhere to everywhere when local churches strive to be missional and when Christians are engaged in intercultural ministry this book invites a scholar practitioner conversation engaging multiple disciplines and perspectives to explore the role of women in the mission of God An interdisciplinary and intercultural conversation about women will enrich the church s ongoing effort to be faithful to God s call to women and men to participate in God s work in the world Hating Girls ,2022-02-22 Hating Girls is a collection of cutting edge essays addressing the pervasive problem of misogyny from an intersectional framework particularly focused on identities of gender race class sexuality and religion Scholars activist reformers and social justice practitioners offer multiple perspectives of the misogyny that dominates our culture providing both macro views as well as case studies in the United States This interdisciplinary analysis exposes the destructive oppressive beliefs and practices inherent in our society and offers a progressive equitable way forward Contributors are Portia Allie Turco Mary Sue Barnett Melissa Brennan Angela Cowser Diane Dougherty Dorislee Gilbert Kristi Gray Tammy Hatfield Sarah E Johansson Sandy Phillips Kirkham Francoise Knox Kazimierczuk Debra Meyers Donna Pollard Meredith Shockley Smith Tara M Tuttle Johanna W H van Wijk Bos and Stephanie A Welsh Racism and the Image of God K. Teel,2010-11-22 From her perspective as a white feminist theologian Karen Teel dialogues with five womanist thinkers to develop a Christian theology of the body that can compel Christians especially U S Christians of European descent to actively resist the sin of racism Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference Margaret D. Kamitsuka,2007-07-20 Drawing from poststructuralist postcolonial and queer theory this text explores the challenges of cultivating attentiveness to difference in women s experiences and reflects on the impact of race and sexuality on feminist theology Black Natural Law Vincent W. Lloyd,2016 Black Natural Law offers a new way of understanding the African American political tradition Iconoclastically attacking left including James Baldwin and Audre Lorde right including Clarence Thomas and Ben Carson and center Barack Obama Vincent William Lloyd charges that many Black leaders today embrace secular white modes of political engagement abandoning the deep connections between religious philosophical and political ideas that once animated Black politics By telling the stories of Frederick Douglass Anna Julia Cooper W E B Du Bois and Martin Luther King Jr Lloyd shows how appeals to a higher law or God s law have long fueled Black political engagement Such appeals do not seek to implement divine directives on earth rather they pose a challenge to the wisdom of the world and they mobilize communities for collective action Black natural law is deeply democratic while charismatic leaders may provide the occasion for reflection and mobilization all are capable of discerning the higher law using our human capacities for reason and emotion At a time when continuing racial injustice poses a deep moral challenge the most powerful intellectual resources in the struggle for justice have been abandoned Black Natural Law recovers a rich tradition and it examines just how this tradition was forgotten A Black intellectual class emerged that was disconnected from social movement organizing and beholden to white interests Appeals to higher law became politically impotent overly rational or overly sentimental Recovering the Black natural law tradition provides a powerful resource for confronting police violence mass incarceration and today's gross racial inequities Black Natural Law will change the way we understand natural law a topic central to the Western ethical and political tradition While drawing particularly on African American resources Black Natural Law speaks to all who seek politics animated by justice
