Black Words, White Page Adam Shoemaker, 2004-03-01 This award winning study the first comprehensive treatment of the nature and significance of Indigenous Australian literature was based upon the author's doctoral research at the ANU

Figures in Black : Words, Signs, and the "Racial" Self Henry Louis Gates Jr. Chairman of the Department of Afro-American Studies and W.E.B. DuBois Professor of the Humanities Harvard University, 1987-07-16 The originality brilliance and scope of the work is remarkable Gates will instruct delight and stimulate a broad range of readers both those who are already well versed in Afro American literature and those who after reading this book will eagerly begin to be Barbara E Johnson Harvard University A critical enterprise of the first importance Gates promises to lead and to show the way in boldness of conception in vigor of execution and in vitality and pertinence of expression James Olney Louisiana State University Recently awarded Honorable Mention from the John Hope Franklin Publication Prize Committee of the American Studies Association Figures in Black takes a provocative new look at how we analyze and define black literature Henry Louis Gates Jr attacks the notion that the dominant mode of Afro American literature is or should be a kind of social realism evaluated primarily as a reflection of the Black Experience Instead Gates insists that critics turn to the language of the text and bring to their work the close methodical analysis of language made possible by modern literary theory But his goal in this volume is not merely to apply contemporary theory to black texts Indeed as he ranges from 18th century poet Phillis Wheatley to modern writers Ishmael Reed and Alice Walker he attempts to redefine literary criticism itself moving it away from a Eurocentric notion of a hierarchical canon mostly white Western and male to foster a truly comparative and pluralistic notion of literature In doing so he provides critics with a powerful tool for the analysis of black art and more important reveals for all readers the brilliance and depth of the Afro American tradition

What is African American Literature? Margo N. Crawford, 2021-01-27 After Kenneth W Warren's What Was African American Literature Margo N Crawford delivers What is African American Literature The idea of African American literature may be much more than literature written by authors who identify as Black What is African American Literature focuses on feeling as form in order to show that African American literature is an archive of feelings a tradition of the tension between uncontainable black affect and rigid historical structure Margo N Crawford argues that textual production of affect such as blush vibration shiver twitch and wink reveals that African American literature keeps reimagining a black collective nervous system Crawford foregrounds the idea of African American literature and uncovers the black feeling world co created by writers and readers Rejecting the notion that there are no formal lines separating

African American literature and a broader American literary tradition Crawford contends that the distinguishing feature of African American literature is a moodscape that is as stable as electricity Presenting a fresh perspective on the affective atmosphere of African American literature this compelling text frames central questions around the idea of African American literature shows the limits of historicism in explaining the mood of African American literature and addresses textual production in the creation of the African American literary tradition Part of the acclaimed Wiley Blackwell Manifestos series What is African American Literature is a significant addition to scholarship in the field Professors and students of American literature African American literature and Black Studies will find this book an invaluable source of fresh perspectives and new insights on America's black literary tradition
