Black Writers Of Postcards:

The Things of Others: Ethnographies, Histories, and Other Artefacts Olívia Maria Gomes da Cunha, 2020-05-18

The Things of Others Ethnographies Histories and Other Artefacts deals with the things mainly but not only mobilized by anthropologists in order to produce knowledge about the African American the Afro Brazilian and the Afro Cuban during the 1930s However the book's goal is not to dig up evidence of the creation of an epistemology of knowledge and its transnational connections The research on which this book is based suggests that the artefacts created in fieldwork offices libraries laboratories museums and other places and experiences beyond the important fact that these places and situations involved actors other than the anthropologists themselves have been different things during their troubled existence The book seeks to make these differences apparent highlighting rather than concealing the relationships between partial modes of making and being Afro as a subject of science If the artefacts created in a variety of situations have been different things we should ask what sort of things they were and how the actors involved in their creation sought to make them meaningful The book foregrounds these discontinuous and ever changing contours

Black Writers, White Publishers John K. Young, 2010-02-11 Winner of the 2006 Eudora Welty Prize Jean Toomer's Cane was advertised as a book about Negroes by a Negro despite his request not to promote the book along such racial lines Nella Larsen switched the title of her second novel from Nig to Passing because an editor felt the original title might be too inflammatory In order to publish his first novel as a Book of the Month Club main selection Richard Wright deleted a scene in Native Son depicting Bigger Thomas masturbating Toni Morrison changed the last word of Beloved at her editor's request and switched the title of Paradise from War to allay her publisher's marketing concerns Although many editors place demands on their authors these examples invite special scholarly attention given the power imbalance between white editors and publishers and African American authors Black Writers White Publishers Marketplace Politics in Twentieth Century African American Literature examines the complex negotiations behind the production of African American literature In chapters on Larsen's Passing Ishmael Reed's Mumbo Jumbo Gwendolyn Brooks's Children Coming Home Morrison's Oprah's Book Club selections and Ralph Ellison's Juneteenth John K Young presents the first book length application of editorial theory to African American literature Focusing on the manuscripts drafts book covers colophons and advertisements that trace book production Young expands upon the concept of socialized authorship and demonstrates how the study of publishing history and practice and African American literary criticism enrich each other

Beyond the Postcard: Deep Travel Writing Dylan Hill, There's a certain allure to the postcard image of travel sun drenched beaches towering mountains vibrant markets overflowing with exotic goods These picturesque scenes capture a fleeting glimpse of a place a snapshot frozen in time But beyond the postcard lies a world of hidden stories waiting to be discovered It's the whispered tales of ancient civilizations etched into the stones of crumbling temples the rhythm of daily life in bustling street markets the traditions passed down through generations and the stories etched in the faces of the people who call these places home For too long traditional travel writing has relied on surface level descriptions offering superficial glimpses of destinations without delving deeper into their cultural richness historical context or the complexities of human experience This approach while offering a sense of adventure and escapism often fails to capture the true essence of a place leaving readers with a limited understanding of its soul This book challenges the conventional approach to travel writing urging writers to move beyond postcard perfect images and embrace a more meaningful and authentic style of storytelling It s a call to action to delve into the heart of destinations to uncover the hidden stories that shape their identity and to connect with the people who make those stories come alive Deep travel writing is about engaging with the world on a deeper level about exploring the nuances of culture the echoes of history and the shared experiences that bind us all It s about understanding the world through the eyes of the people who inhabit it about listening to their stories and about weaving those stories into narratives that resonate with readers and offer a deeper understanding of our interconnected world This book will serve as your guide on this journey We will explore the principles of deep travel writing from researching destinations beyond the surface to crafting immersive narratives that capture the essence of a place We will learn how to observe listen and connect with the world in a way that transcends superficiality and delves into the heart of human experience Whether you are an aspiring or seasoned travel writer a journalist a blogger or simply someone with a passion for exploring the world this book will provide you with the tools and inspiration you need to embark on your own journey of deep travel writing It s a journey that promises to enrich your experiences deepen your understanding of the world and empower you to tell stories that matter

Washington, D.C. in Vintage Postcards Gayle Floyd, 2005 Created as a Federal City over two centuries ago Washington D C was designed by architect Pierre L Enfant on land purchased by the government from Maryland and Virginia L Enfant s vision of wide tree lined avenues mixed with modifications by the McMillan Commission in the early 1900s and exemplified by many other architects and sculptors has evolved into a unique fast paced and politically focused Capital City of the United States of America

Postcard America Jeffrey L. Meikle, 2016-01-20 From the Great Depression through the early postwar years any postcard sent in America was more than likely a linen card Colorized in vivid often exaggerated hues and printed on card stock embossed with a linen like texture linen postcards celebrated the American scene with views of majestic landscapes modern cityscapes roadside attractions and other notable features These colorful images portrayed the United States as shimmering with promise quite unlike the black and white worlds of documentary photography or Life magazine Linen postcards were enormously popular with close to a billion printed and sold Postcard America offers the first comprehensive study of these cards and their cultural significance Drawing on the production files of Curt Teich Co of Chicago the originator of linen postcards Jeffrey L Meikle reveals how photographic views were transformed into colorized postcard images often by means of manipulation adding and deleting details or collaging bits and pieces from several photos He presents two extensive portfolios of postcards landscapes and cityscapes that comprise a representative iconography of linen postcard views For each image Meikle explains the postcard's subject describes aspects of its production and places it in social and cultural contexts In the concluding chapter he shifts from historical interpretation to a contemporary viewpoint considering nostalgia as a motive for collectors and others who are fascinated today by these striking images Frankie Potts and the Postcard Puzzle (Book 3) Juliet

Jacka,2017-01-30 Book 3 in Juliet Jacka's addictive new Frankie Potts series for readers ages 7-10 Meet Frankie Potts the village of Tring's number one girl detective She has flaming red hair a questioning mind and a very clever dog named Sparkplug And she is REALLY good at solving mysteries Frankie's list of mysteries to solve is getting longer by the day Firstly her mum is acting very strangely she's tired grumpy and feels sick all the time And then there's Grandma M who keeps dropping hints about expanding her troupe of performing greyhounds Tinkerbelle Titania and Tiramisu With her detective side kick Mac Frankie travels to Giggleswick to find out about the mysterious Gideon R Best Animal Trainer Extraordinaire and why he sent a postcard with kisses on it to her mum How can she work out what an overweight donkey a cuddle obsessed pig and a pooing parrot have to do with anything And why has Tinkerbelle started to waddle Kaboom Things are getting explosive in Frankie's family She had better start solving The Deep Web / The Cards Foretell Thirteen

O'Clock Press,2016-11-22 First there were cards tarot playing cards fortunes told and fortunes made and lost Came the deep web and sometimes just sometimes more than fortunes were made and lost The cards told their own stories of death and destruction of found love and lost love the deep web draws in those who would explore the darkest limits of their imagination often resulting in death and destruction Thirteen's authors took on the challenge and produced the startling stories you will discover in this special double feature Read on take a walk on this particular wild side of life 2006/2007 Black Authors

Africana Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 2005 Ninety years after W E B Du Bois first articulated the need for the equivalent of a black Encyclopedia Britannica Kwame Anthony Appiah and Henry Louis Gates Jr realized his vision by publishing Africana The Encyclopedia of the African and African American Experience in 1999 This new greatly expanded edition of the original work broadens the foundation provided by Africana Including more than one million new words Africana has been completely updated and revised New entries on African kingdoms have been added bibliographies now accompany most articles and the encyclopedia's coverage of the African diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean has been expanded transforming the set into the most authoritative research and scholarly reference set on the African experience ever created More than 4 000 articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religion ethnic groups organizations and countries on both sides of the Atlantic African American history and culture in the present day United States receive a strong emphasis but African American history and culture throughout the rest of the Americas and their origins in Africa itself have an equally strong presence The articles that make up Africana cover subjects ranging from affirmative action to zydeco and span over four million years from the earliest known hominids to Sean Diddy Combs With entries ranging from the African ethnic groups to members of the Congressional Black Caucus Africana Second Edition conveys the history and scope of cultural expression of people of African descent with unprecedented depth The Secrets for Motivating, Educating, and Lifting the Spirit of African American Males Ernest H. Johnson, 2011-11-21 Unlike the media would have you believe most black males find great value in education They want to believe that they have a special gift and that they can make a difference in the world The problem is that they have ill feelings about how society has deprived them of the most qualified teachers and the best ways to be engaged in their own education As a consequence of repeatedly being marginalized criticized and put down by society and teachers they do not feel motivated to attend school or to produce outstanding academic work The Secrets for Motivating Educating and Lifting the Spirit of African American Males contains essays that center on how to help educators and parents to equip young black males with the drive necessary to craft fulfilling lives for themselves so they don't slip through the cracks in the educational system Historically we are still dealing with what happens to the image of Black people in the minds of white people A book like this helps to make certain that the information teachers provide to all students regardless of their race will help them understand that the history of this country has made generation after generation of black students see themselves as academically and socially inferior to white people Most importantly it's the teachers not just black teachers but all teachers who have to understand the power they have to change the mindset of society Changing how society thinks about Black people particularly Black males is a task teachers can truly accomplish because they have the power to create lesson plans that challenge how students think about each other For such lessons are important for changing the attitudes and beliefs of the entire community in which we live REVEREND C T VIVIAN A Pioneer of the Civil Rights Movement Author Educator and a Close Friend of Reverend Dr Martin Luther King Jr This book provides a fresh perspective for understanding the problems associated with the education of Black males As a minister I have not encountered a project that gathers the collective wisdom of a group of over 20 Black male educators who are dedicated to helping the world save young Black males When all their ideas come together they are bound to create a storm of new thinking about how all of us can work together As a spiritual leader my role is to help young Black males understand that the same God that was in Dr King is the same God that is in them This is a difficult lesson for some Black males who have been brainwashed to see themselves as having no say about the outcome of their lives This book will help us including those in the ministry to reevaluate the thinking patterns of our boys so that we can better prepare them for the critical thinking that is required for life in the 21st century REVEREND ROBERT KILGORE Assistant Pastor at Hillside International Truth Center Atlanta GA

Modern Black Writers Manitou Wordworks,2000 This 2nd edition covers approximately 170 of the most important black novelists poets and dramatists of the 20th century Entries include primary bibliographies for each author and excerpted criticism providing a comprehensive overview to the critical reception of each author Users will find updated critical analysis of most authors included in the first edition plus entries on twenty significant new authors

Black Writers ,1996 The author of numerous books of photo essays most notably two award winning series for children and young adults Jill Krementz has long had a special affinity for writers Dating back to 1961 and comprising sessions with more than 1 200 writers her collection is not just a visual feast for modern book lovers it will also undoubtedly serve as an invaluable resource for future scholars not unlike Carl Van Vechten s photographic collection of Harlem Renaissance writers of the 1920s and 1930s This book of postcards presents thirty of Krementz s photographs of contemporary black writers Back cover

Midnight Rambles David J. Goodwin,2023-11-07 A micro biography of horror fiction s most influential author and his love hate relationship with New York City By the end of his life and near financial ruin pulp horror writer Howard Phillips Lovecraft resigned himself to the likelihood that his writing would be forgotten Today Lovecraft stands alongside J R R Tolkien as the most influential genre writer of the twentieth century His reputation as an unreformed racist and bigot however leaves readers to grapple with his legacy Midnight Rambles explores Lovecraft s time in New York City a crucial yet often overlooked chapter in his life that shaped his literary career and the inextricable racism in his work Initially New York stood as a place of liberation for Lovecraft During the brief period between 1924 and 1926 when he lived there Lovecraft joined a creative community and experimented with bohemian living in the publishing and cultural capital of the United States He also married fellow writer Sonia H Greene a Ukrainian Jewish migr in the fashion industry However cascading personal setbacks and his own professional ineptitude soured him on New York As Lovecraft became more frustrated his xenophobia and racism became more pronounced New York s large immigrant population and minority communities disgusted him and this mindset soon became evident in his writing Many of his stories from this era are infused with racial and ethnic stereotypes and nativist themes most notably his overtly racist short story The Horror at Red Hook set in Red Hook Brooklyn His personal letters reveal an even darker bigotry Author

David J Goodwin presents a chronological micro biography of Lovecraft's New York years emphasizing Lovecraft's exploration of the city environment the greater metropolitan region and other locales and how they molded him as a writer and as an individual Drawing from primary sources letters memoirs and published personal reflections and secondary sources biographies and scholarship Midnight Rambles develops a portrait of a talented and troubled author and offers insights into his unsettling beliefs on race ethnicity and immigration Chums ,1892
