Uneasy Alliance, 2004-01-01 Uneasy Alliance illuminates the recent search in literary studies for a new interface between textual and contextual readings Written in tribute to G A M Janssens the twenty one essays in the volume exemplify a renewed awareness of the paradoxical nature of literary texts both as works of literary art and as documents embedded in and functioning within a writer's life and culture Together they offer fresh and often interdisciplinary perspectives on twentieth century American writers of more or less established status Henry James Edna St Vincent Millay E E Cummings Vladimir Nabokov Flannery O'Connor Saul Bellow

Michael Ondaatje Toni Morrison and Sandra Cisneros as well as on those who for reasons of fashion politics ideology or gender have been unduly neglected Booth Tarkington Julia Peterkin Robert Coates Martha Gellhorn Isabella Gardner Karl Shapiro the young Jewish American writers Julia Alvarez and writers of popular crime and detective fiction Exploring the fruitful interactions and uneasy alliance between literature and ethics film biography gender studies popular culture avant garde art urban studies anthropology and multicultural studies together these essays testify to the ongoing pertinence of an approach to literature that is undogmatic sensitive and sophisticated and that seeks to do justice to the complex interweavings of literature culture and biography in twentieth century American writing Sleuths in Skirts Frances A. DellaCava, Madeline H. Engel, 2002 This volume is a comprehensive collection of critical essays on The Taming of the Shrew and includes extensive discussions of the play's various printed versions and its theatrical productions Aspinall has included only those essays that offer the most influential and controversial arguments surrounding the play The issues discussed include gender authority female autonomy and unruliness courtship and marriage language and speech and performance and theatricality Liquor Stewardry Andrew Willett, 2019-06-07 The Elemental Mixology Liquor Stewardry book is a both a guide and a tasting book used in the Liquor Stewardry Course Librarians in Fiction Grant Burns, 1998-03-01 The depictions of librarians in over 374 novels short stories and plays in English are the focus of this fully annotated reference work Librarians no less than other professionals want to know how they are depicted in fiction The stereotypical or fictional librarian the one with the bun comfortable shoes and dour demeanor may be fading but fiction teaches a lesson about public perception Actually story librarians are often described as adaptable knowledgeable shrewd tactful tender and intelligent traits that the authors and by extension the readers look for in their librarians All entries include complete bibliographic data followed by a lengthy annotation that discusses how the librarian fits into the story and gives insight to how he or she is depicted Title and author indexes are provided for further utility Spirit of the English Magazines, 1822 How to Write Killer Historical Mysteries Emerson Kathy Lynn, 2019-06-11 The core of the book is Emerson's personal take on writing and selling historical mysteries but it also includes contributions from over forty other historical mystery writers practical advice anecdotes and suggestions for research and input from assorted editors booksellers and reviewers For both historical mystery writers and readers This book embodies its subtitle The Art Adventure of Sleuthing Through the Past Veteran author Emerson published her first mystery twenty three years ago and this is her thirty sixth published book It draws on her experience in researching writing selling and sustaining both her Lady Appleton series Elizabethan England and her Diana Spaulding series 1880s U S This unique reference book also includes the contributions of more than forty other historical mystery writers Their books backgrounds and settings are as diverse as Ancient Egypt and Rome antebellum New Orleans early Constantinople Jazz Age England and Australia Depression era California turn of the century New York Victorian England and eighteenth century Venice The Armchair Detective, 1997 Mystery Women, Volume Three

(Revised) Colleen Barnett,2010-12-31 Like other fictional characters female sleuths may live in the past or the future They may represent current times with some level of reality or shape their settings to suit an agenda There are audiences for both realism and escapism in the mystery novel It is interesting however to compare the fictional world of the mystery sleuth with the world in which readers live Of course mystery readers do not share one simplistic world They live in urban suburban and rural areas as do the female heroines in the books they read They may choose a book because it has a familiar background or because it takes them to places they long to visit Readers may be rich or poor young or old conservative or liberal So are the heroines What incredible choices there are today in mystery series This three volume encyclopedia of women characters in the mystery novel is like a gigantic menu Like a menu the descriptions of the items that are provided are subjective Volume 3 of Mystery Women as currently updated adds an additional 42 sleuths to the 500 plus who were covered in the initial Volume 3 These are more recently discovered sleuths who were introduced during the period from January 1 1990 to December 31 1999 This more than doubles the number of sleuths introduced in the 1980s 298 of whom were covered in Volume 2 and easily exceeded the 347 series and some outstanding individuals described in Volume 1 which covered a 130 year period from 1860 1979 It also includes updates on those individuals covered in the first edition changes in status short reviews of books published since the first edition through December 31 2008 Forgotten Maryland Cocktails Gregory

Priebe,Nicole Priebe,2019-07-29 The Southside Diamondback and the Preakness Marylanders imbibe history in their native cocktails from local favorites to little known classics Early residents favored fruit brandies and potent punches until the Civil War when rye whiskey laid claim to local palates During the golden age of the cocktail grand hotels like Baltimore s Belvedere created smooth concoctions such as the Frozen Rye but the dry days of Prohibition interrupted the good times Using historic recipes with modern twists from renowned mixologists Greg and Nicole Priebe mix up one part practical guide and three parts Maryland history and top it off with a tour of the current craft cocktail and distilling scenes The Spirit of

Commemorating Ireland Eberhard Bort, 2004 This is not so much a book of commemoration as it is on or about commemoration The title of this book is ambiguous and intentionally so On the one hand there are echoes of Writing Ireland or Imagining Ireland or Re Inventing Ireland an active process shaping our perception of what Ireland is and how it has become what it is On the other hand there is an element of glancing back Only what is gone what is in the past can be commemorated Ireland having undergone rapid and profound changes in the past decades often kindles feelings of nostalgia of an older Ireland having been lost in the filthy modern tide This is an examination in an international comparative context of the role commemorations play in contemporary politics and society This is a multi disciplinary study by an array of distinguished authors Peter Collins Mary Daly Tony Canavan Owen Dudley Edwards Paul Arthur Christopher Harvie Malcolm Anderson Neal Ascherson Gerald Dawe Christopher Murray and Aidan Howard      The Commercial Directory for 1818-19-20 ...
