Boitano, 2002 Critical and Exegetical Handbook to the Acts of the Apostles Heinrich August Wilhelm Meyer, 1884 PFSC, 1993 Pascal's Wager Jeff Jordan, 2006-10-26 What if there is no strong evidence that God exists Is belief in God when faced with a lack of evidence illegitimate and improper Evidentialism answers yes According to Evidentialism it is impermissible to believe any proposition lacking adequate evidence And if any thesis enjoys the status of a dogma among philosophers it is Evidentialism Presenting a direct challenge to Evidentialism are pragmatic arguments for theism which are designed to support belief in the absence of adequate evidence Pascal's Wager is the most prominent theistic pragmatic argument and issues in epistemology the ethics of belief and decision theory as well as philosophical theology all intersect at the Wager Other prominent theistic pragmatic arguments include William James's celebrated essay The Will to Believe a posthumously published and largely ignored pragmatic argument authored by J S Mill supporting the propriety of hoping that quasi theism is true the eighteenth century Scottish essayist James Beattie's argument that the consoling benefit of theistic belief is so great that theistic belief is permissible even when one thinks that the existence of God is less likely than not and an argument championed by the nineteenth century French philosopher Jules Lachelier which based its case for theistic belief on the empirical benefits of believing as a theist even if theism was very probably false In Pascal's Wager Pragmatic Arguments and Belief in God Jeff Jordan explores various theistic pragmatic arguments and the objections employed against them Jordan presents a new version of the Wager what he calls the Jamesian Wager and argues that the Jamesian Wager survives the objections hurled against theistic pragmatic arguments and provides strong support for theistic belief In addition to arguing for a sound version of the Wager Jordan also argues that there is aversion of Evidentialism compatible with a principled use of pragmatic arguments and that the Argument from Divine Silence fails Objections found in Voltaire Hume and Nietzsche against the Wager are scrutinized as are objections issued by Richard Swinburne Richard Gale and other contemporary philosophers The ethics of belief the many gods objection the problem of infinite utilities and the propriety of a hope based acceptance are also examined Critical and Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament William Purdie Dickson, Frederick Crombie, 1884 On Belonging and Not Belonging Mary Jacobus, 2024-11-26 A look at how ideas of translation migration and displacement are embedded in the works of prominent artists from Ovid to Tacita Dean On Belonging and Not Belonging provides a sophisticated exploration of how themes of translation migration and displacement shape an astonishing range of artistic works From the possibilities and limitations of translation addressed by Jhumpa Lahiri and David Malouf to the effects of shifting borders in the writings of Eugenio Montale W G Sebald Colm T ib n and many others esteemed literary critic Mary Jacobus looks at the ways novelists poets photographers and filmmakers revise narratives of language identity and exile Jacobus s attentive readings of texts and images seek to answer the question What does it mean to identify as or with an outsider Walls and border crossings nomadic wanderings and Alpine walking the urge to travel and the yearning for home Jacobus braids together such threads in disparate times and geographies She plumbs the experiences of Ovid in exile Frankenstein s outcast Being Elizabeth Bishop in Nova Scotia and Brazil Walter Benjamin s Berlin childhood and Sophocles s Antigone in the wilderness Throughout Jacobus trains her eye on issues of transformation and translocation the traumas of partings journeys and returns and confrontations with memory and the past Focusing on human conditions both modern and timeless On Belonging and Not Belonging offers a unique consideration of inclusion and exclusion in our world The Battles of Wisdom and Humility Martin Luther, John Stuart Mill, David Hume, James Allen, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Andrew Murray, Thomas Paine, Ludwig Feuerbach, G.
