Vasseur, 2007 Edna Boies Hopkins 1872-1937 is best known for her floral woodblock prints that range from delicate Japanese inspired stylizations to boldly colored and progressively modernist works. In her brief twenty year career Hopkins produced seventy four known woodblock prints including figurative work and landscapes as well as floral compositions. This catalogue raisonné is the first in depth study of this once well known American artist. It illustrates all of Hopkins's known prints, related drawings and studies. Born in Hudson, Michigan, Hopkins attended the Art Academy of Cincinnati from 1895 to 1898. In 1899 she took classes with the influential artist Arthur Wesley Dow, an advocate of Japanese art. Following her marriage in 1904, Hopkins and her husband settled in Paris where they remained until the outbreak of World War I. After returning to America, Hopkins became part of a small group of artists in Provincetown whose innovations in woodblock printmaking have come to be known as the Provincetown print or the white line woodcut. In 1917 a visit to the Cumberland Falls region of Kentucky provided the inspiration for some of Hopkins's most important prints which predate the work of American regionalist painters and printmakers by a decade or more. In addition to the catalogue raisonné, Edna Boies Hopkins includes much new biographical research along with a census of her prints and a comprehensive list of her exhibitions.

This catalogue presents an overview of American printmaking in the first half of the twentieth century beginning in 1905 with John Sloan's etchings of everyday urban experience, dubbed the Ashcan School, and concluding with Jackson Pollock and abstract expressionist prints. About 140 powerful prints by approximately 75 artists will be featured. A substantial introduction sets the prints in context showing how this dynamic tradition arose and how it relates to other media such as magazine illustration, photography, cinema, and poster design. Biographies of all the artists are included.

Early Art and Artists in West Virginia
John A. Cuthbert, 2000

Early Art and Artists in West Virginia is copiously illustrated with 136 plates accompanying the essays on portraiture and landscape painting which form the first half of the book. A similar number of smaller illustrations in full color bring life to a biographical directory in the second part of the book which contains nearly one thousand known painters who worked in West Virginia. Many West Virginians will find their family names in this directory and some will doubtless locate the information here that they have long sought in order to learn more about a painting in their family's possession. The book is supported by an extensive bibliography on the state's artistic heritage and a full index to both the directory and the essays.
