Mary and the Fathers of the Church Luigi Gambero, 1999 Father Luigi Gambero internationally known expert on early Christianity presents a comprehensive survey of the development of Marian doctrine and devotion during the first eight centuries Focusing on the lives and works of over thirty of the most famous Church Fathers and early Christian writers Fr Gambero has produced a clear and readable summary of the richness of the patristic age s theological and devotional approach to the Mother of God The book contains numerous citations from the works of those men who developed the defining Christological and Mariological positions that have constituted the foundational doctrinal teaching of the Church Each chapter concludes with an extended reading from the works of the patristic authors A number of these texts have never before been published in English The thought of the Fathers and early Christian writers continues to fascinate readers today Their theological acuity and spiritual depth led them faithfully into the mysteries of Sacred Scripture Their vast experience made them reliable and trustworthy witnesses to the faith of the people of God The Virgin Mother Arthur Crawshaw Allston Hall, 1894 The Life of Mary Mother of God and Praying the Rosary , The Mother of Christ O. R. Vassall-philipps, O R Vassall-Philipps Csr, Brother Hermenegild, 2013-03-12 Saints and Doctors of the Church have expressed their inability to write worthily of the great Mother of God It will therefore be readily understood that when the Provincial of the English Province of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer suggested to me that I might publish an English book on our Lady my first feeling was one of shrinking from the task Whoso would celebrate the Holy Virgin and Mother of God wrote Basil of Seleucia will find abundant materials for praise But I knowing mine own weakness to be unequal to the mightiness of the reality have for a long time refrained from very awe For I have not my lips purified with coal from heaven like Isaias who saw the Seraphim nor have I like the divine Moses the feet of my soul bared of their covering Many another great servant of God has expressed himself after a similar fashion before writing about our Lady How dare I then attempt that for which Saints have professed themselves unworthy But other thoughts rushed to my aid I might not lightly shrink from that which came to me thus by way of obedience A wish from such a source should be enough Whatever might be the subject on which one might be asked to write by one s Superiors in Religion to wait for a direct command would be unseemly And when the subject was the Blessed Virgin the temptation would have been great however strong my consciousness of my unworthiness even had the opportunity come to me in any other manner For it is a happiness to acknowledge that by a special mercy of God notwithstanding all my sins and shortcomings I have from boyhood up always loved and trusted His Blessed Mother

The Blessed Virgin Mary Tim Perry, Daniel Kendall, 2013-04-05 This volume provides a concise nontechnical historical introduction to the church s thinking about Mary the mother of Jesus The first part of the book sketches the development of Marian thought from the second century to the twentieth century The second part contains an annotated bibliography of the most important and accessible English language works on Mary Tim Perry an evangelical Anglican priest and Daniel Kendall a Roman Catholic Jesuit priest have joined across the Reformation divide to provide an irenic balanced volume for students and general readers interested in this most remarkable woman and the ways in which she has shaped Christian thought

History of the Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary in North America Xavier Donald MacLeod, 1866 Catholic literature in this country is not yet rich in works of a historical character and though not a few have appeared evincing great research and worthy of a high place there was still wanting a popular element which genius alone could supply by lending its charm to the often dry details of the historian The devotion to the Blessed Virgin in this country from its settlement to the present day was a theme which had been briefly touched upon by one or two writers Still it was a field which the late lamented author of the following pages entered with all the zeal and devotion of his ardent and impassioned character and as a necessary consequence he gave his work the stamp of his particular genius Few more gifted writers have appeared among us than Xavier Donald Macleod and in undertaking his work material was contributed by his numerous friends The writer of this one who had enjoyed that friendship from boyhood rejoicing to see him about to take up a subject so worthy of his talents furnished him an abundant material which he had collected and feels now perhaps too great a pleasure in his privilege in having contributed to so noble a work as that here presented to the Catholic public Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of All Nations, Pray for Us Patricia J.

Vazquez,2014-04-10 This book is about prayers for an end to abortion People of all faiths who believe in God can pray the prayers in this book While praying in a Eucharistic perpetual adoration chapel in a Catholic church Patricia witnessed a miracle there She found the miracle was still there the following day when she returned and took pictures of this miracle She spent time in prayer there and writing in her journal Through inner locutions messages from God while she was writing in the Eucharistic perpetual adoration chapel God told her a new parable of a mustard seed God asked her to write a prayer book of nine days of prayers for an end to abortions God explained to her what the title of the book would be how the cover of the book would appear and how a professional portrait painter was to depict the Blessed Virgin Mary and Jesus to be standing in a field of mustard flowers Patricia received many graces and witnessed many different miracles on her journey to bring this book to fruition Patricia shared her manuscript with six Catholic priests from different Catholic churches and a few of their comments were Follow Jesus Jesus is the Way and the Truth and the Life get this manuscript published I like the new parable of the mustard seed and getting this manuscript published Patricia would be doing a great deed for Almighty God
