A COMPANION TO JOHN F KENNEDY Marc J Selverstone has compiled an indispensable volume of essays on John F Kennedy and his presidency written by a stellar cast of scholars What stands out in sharp relief in this wide ranging and authoritative book is how consequential were Kennedy s thousand days for the United States and for the world and how controversial is his legacy Fredrik Logevall Stephen and Madeline Anbinder Professor of History Cornell University Marc J Selverstone has brought together a remarkable group of scholars who illuminate the many important ideas of and events that occurred during this brief administration This book is the best record of the Kennedy years Alan Brinkley Allan Nevins Professor of American History Columbia University This collection of talented scholars and their research and thoughts on John F Kennedy is an invaluable resource a deeply informed conversation for the ages Richard Reeves writer syndicated columnist and senior lecturer at the Annenberg School for Communication at the University of Southern California Human Rights, Race, and Resistance in Africa and the African Diaspora Toyin Falola, Cacee Hoyer, 2016-10-04 Africans and their descendants have long been faced with abuse of their human rights most frequently due to racism or racialized issues Consequently understanding shifting conceptualizations of race and identity is essential to understanding how people of color confronted these encounters This book addresses these issues and their connections to social justice discrimination and equality movements From colonial abuses or their legacies black people around the world have historically encountered discrimination and yet they do not experience injustice opaquely The chapters in this book explore and clarify how Africans and their descendants struggled to achieve agency despite long histories of discrimination Contributors draw upon a range of case studies related to resistance and examine these in conjunction with human rights and the concept of race to provide a thorough exploration of the diasporic experience Human Rights Race and Resistance in Africa and the African Diaspora will appeal to students and scholars of Ethnic and Racial Studies African History and Diaspora Studies Teaching U.S. History Through Sports Brad Austin, Pamela Grundy, 2022-07-12 For teachers at the college and high school levels this volume provides cutting edge research and practical strategies for incorporating sports into the U S history classroom The Economic Civil Rights Movement Michael Ezra, 2013-04-17 Economic inequalities have been perhaps the most enduring problem facing African Americans since the civil rights movement despite the attention they have received from activists Although the civil rights movement dealt successfully with injustices like disenfranchisement and segregated public accommodations economic disparities between blacks and whites remain sharp and the wealth gap between the two groups has widened in the twenty first century The Economic Civil Rights Movement is a collection of thirteen original essays that analyze the significance of economic power to the black freedom struggle by exploring how African Americans fought for increased economic autonomy in an attempt to improve the quality of their lives It covers a wide range of campaigns ranging from the World War II era through the civil rights and black power movements and beyond The unfinished business of the civil rights movement primarily is economic This book turns backward toward history to examine the ways African Americans have engaged this continuing challenge Framing Africa Nigel Eltringham, 2013-06-01 The first decade of the 21st century has seen a proliferation of North American and European films that focus on African politics and society While once the continent was the setting for narratives of heroic ascendancy over self The African Queen 1951 The Snows of Kilimanjaro 1952 military odds Zulu 1964 Khartoum 1966 and nature Mogambo 1953 Hatari 1962 Born Free 1966 The Last Safari 1967 this new wave of films portrays a continent blighted by transnational corruption The Constant Gardener 2005 genocide Hotel Rwanda 2004 Shooting Dogs 2006 failed states Black Hawk Down 2001 illicit transnational commerce Blood Diamond 2006 and the unfulfilled promises of decolonization The Last King of Scotland 2006 Conversely where once Apartheid South Africa was a brutal foil for the romance of East Africa Cry Freedom 1987 A Dry White Season 1989 South Africa now serves as a redeemed contrast to the rest of the continent Red Dust 2004 Invictus 2009 Writing from the perspective of long term engagement with the contexts in which the films are set anthropologists and historians reflect on these films and assess the contemporary place Africa holds in the North American and European cinematic imagination Ideas of 'Race' in the History of the Humanities Amos Morris-Reich, Dirk Rupnow, 2017-04-24 This volume is concerned with the hitherto neglected role of the humanities in the histories of the idea of race Its aim is to begin to fill in this significant lacuna If in the decades following World War II and the Holocaust years that witnessed European decolonization and the African American civil rights movement the concept of race slowly but surely lost its legitimacy as a cultural political and scientific category for much of the nineteenth and the first half of the twentieth century concepts of race enjoyed widespread currency in numerous fields of knowledge such as the history of art history musicology or philosophy Bringing together some of the most distinguished scholars in their respective fields this is the first collective attempt to address the history of notions of race in the humanities as a whole Aethlon , 2005 The journal of sport literature Don't Stick to Sports Derek Charles Catsam, 2023-10-11 A significant examination of how athletes have fought for inclusion and equality on and off the playing field despite calls for them to stick to sports The claim that sports are or ought to be apolitical has itself never been an apolitical position Rather it is a veiled attempt to control which politics are acceptable in the athletic realm a designation intricately linked to issues of race gender ethnicity and more In Don't Stick to Sports The American Athlete's Fight against Injustice Derek Charles Catsam carefully explores this disparity He looks at how throughout recent sports history in the United States minority athletes have had to fight every step of the way for their right to compete and how they continue to fight for equity today From African Americans and women to LGBTQ and religious minorities Catsam shows how these athletes have taken a stand to address the underlying injustices in sports and society despite being told it's not their place to do so While it's impossible for a single book to tell the entire history of exclusion in the sporting world Don't Stick to Sports looks at key moments from the World

War I era to the present to shatter the myth of sports as a meritocracy of sports as equalizer highlighting the reality as something far more complicated of sports as a malleable world where exclusion and inclusion are rarely straight forward
