Bleeding Twilight:

The Twilight of Cutting Saida Hodzic, 2017 The last three decades have witnessed a proliferation of nongovernmental organizations engaging in new campaigns to end the practice of female genital cutting across Africa These campaigns have in turn spurred new institutions discourses and political projects bringing about unexpected social transformations both intended and unintended Consequently cutting is waning across the continent At the same time these endings are misrecognized and disavowed by public and scholarly discourses across the political spectrum What does it mean to say that while cutting is ending the Western discourse surrounding it is on the rise And what kind of a feminist anthropology is needed in such a moment The Twilight of Cutting examines these and other questions from the vantage point of Ghanaian feminist and reproductive health NGOs that have organized campaigns against cutting for over thirty years The book looks at these NGOs not as solutions but as sites of problematization The purpose of understanding these Ghanaian campaigns their transnational and regional encounters and the forms of governmentality they produce is not to charge them with providing answers to the question how do we end cutting Instead it is to account for their work their historicity the life worlds and subjectivities they engender and the modes of reflection imminent critique and opposition they set in motion Fall of Crown: Chapter One, 2025-06-13 Fall of Crown Chapter One The dream was only the beginning A king lies dying in the heart of Virelion Whispers stir in palace halls Blades wait behind banners And a newborn prince too small to raise a sword rests beneath the weight of a crumbling realm Queen Elayne Quenrick does not weep She plots In the silence of her husband's last breath she pens a secret letter to her brother the war forged King of Drakarhul Across the narrow sea his answer is not peace but vigilance Meanwhile in distant kingdoms shadows stir In the frost bitten north Kaelric Thornevale carves through wolves and duty a second son with the fury of a kingdom in his blood In Duskmaw a boy named Draven dares to defy a father who rules through fear and fire And far from thrones and crowns a silent outcast named Darian flees the grave of his past only to find himself drawn toward a woman he does not know yet cannot forget As ancient secrets awaken and powers shift like sand thirteen kingdoms teeter on the edge of war But crowns don't fall easily They burn Precision Medicine for Antithrombotic Therapy in Patients after Percutaneous Coronary Interventions Mattia Galli, Francesco Costa, Dominick Angiolillo, 2023-03-31 The Interventional Cardiac Catheterization Handbook E-Book Michael J Lim, Paul Sorajja, Morton J.
