Mexico and Peru to every other major geographic region that became a focus of European imperialism in the early modern period the Caribbean Brazil English America and New France The chapters provide a coherent perspective on the comparative history of European colonialism in the Americas through their united treatment of four central themes the gendered implications of life on colonial frontiers non European women s relationships to Christian institutions the implications of race mixing and social networks established by women of various ethnicities in the colonial context This volume adds a new dimension to current scholarship in Atlantic history through its emphasis on culture gender and race and through its explicit effort to link religion to the broader imperial framework of economic extraction and political domination
