Blessed Rage For Order The New Pluralism In Theology:

Blessed Rage for Order David Tracy, 1996-03 In Blessed Rage for Order David Tracy examines the cultural context in which theological pluralism emerged Analyzing orthodox liberal neo orthodox and radical models of theology Tracy formulates a new revisionist model He considers which methods promise the most certain results for a revisionist theology and applies his model to the principal questions in contemporary theology including the meanings of religion theism and of christology The Making of American Liberal Theology Gary J. Dorrien, 2006-01-01 In this first of three volumes Dorrien identifies the indigenous roots of American liberal theology and demonstrates a wider longer running tradition than has been thought The tradition took shape in the nineteenth century motivated by a desire to map a modernist third way between orthodoxy and rationalistic deism atheism It is defined by its openness to modern intellectual inquiry its commitment to the authority of individual reason and experience its conception of Christianity as an ethical way of life and its commitment to make Christianity credible and socially relevant to modern people Dorrien takes a narrative approach and provides a biographical reading of important religious thinkers of the time including William E Channing Ralph Waldo Emerson Horace Bushnell Henry Ward Beecher Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Charles Briggs Dorrien notes that although liberal theology moved into elite academic institutions its conceptual foundations were laid in the pulpit rather than the classroom The Comity and Grace of Method Thomas Ryba, George D. Bond, Herman Tull, 2004-08-10 Essays that reflect the interests and influence of a highly distinguished scholar of religions Global Justice, Christology and Christian Ethics Lisa Sowle Cahill, 2013-01-17 A Christian response to global realities of human inequality poverty violence and ecological destruction in the twenty first century The Gaggling of God D. A. Carson, 2009-09-01 The Gold Medallion Award winning book that presents a persuasive case for Christ as the only way to God in light of contemporary religious pluralism A great majority of social commentators attempting to define modern Western culture land on a common characteristic pluralism This isn't unique to secular culture Many modern approaches to Christian hermeneutics or biblical interpretation have given credence to contemporary pluralism What began as a refreshing restraint and humility in modern theology has fallen more and more into irresoluteness It's no secret that the contemporary challenges to Christianity are complex and serious Yet far from simple fear mongering or cultural warmongering The Gaggling of God takes a hard look at the background and intricacy of pluralism postmodernity and hermeneutics and equips thoughtful Christians to have intelligent culturally sensitive and passionate fidelity to the gospel of Jesus Christ In his contemplative even handed approach Carson provides a structure of Christian thought capable of facing the philosophies of today and piercing their surface It invites Christians to grapple responsibly with urgent questions of biblically grounded theology spirituality and the defining lines of Christianity along with its range of challenges from without and within The Gaggling of God offers an in depth look at the big picture shows how the many ramifications of pluralism are all parts of a whole and provides a systematic Christian response A Postmodern

Theology of Ritual Action Jonathan L. Best, 2019-02-26 A Postmodern Theology of Ritual Action is a unique work that seeks to explore where we find meaning within ritual and actions within the church Bridging hermeneutics philosophy and postmodern thought this work seeks to explore how to do theology with the community through conversation Beginning with the mindset that meaning is already present within ritual action rather than outside it Best engages the practice of foot washing among the Original Free Will Baptist denomination of eastern North Carolina Foot washing suggests a new future for theology a future that models love service and acceptance Incorporating insights gained from conversing with philosophy theology and the Original Free Will Baptists foot washing points toward a future relational practical theology A Postmodern Theology of Ritual Action is a captivating work that draws from both philosophers and theologians to show that we can learn much by listening to the voices of religious practitioners

Under the Oak Tree Ronald J. Allen, John S. McClure, O. Wesley Allen, 2013-11-06 Two trends in the early twenty first century intersect to give this volume immediate relevance 1 The emerging postmodern ethos in North America is calling into question many things we have taken for granted including the purposes of the church and 2 our time is increasingly fractious as groups with distinct worldviews become polarized and often antagonistic Eleven noted contributors join a growing current that sees conversation as an image to refresh our thinking about the nature and purpose of the church and as a process in which individuals and communities with different perspectives come together for real understanding Under the Oak Tree employs the image of Sarah and Abraham greeting three visitors under the Oaks of Mamre as an image for the church as a community of conversation a community that opens itself to the otherness of the Bible voices in history and tradition others in the contemporary social and ecological worlds Furthermore the book shows how conversation can lead the church to action The book takes a practical approach by exploring how conversation can shape key parts of the church's life Topics include preaching worship formation evangelism pastoral care mission and ecumenism social witness and the relationship of Christianity to other religions Foundational chapters consider God as conversational the church as community of conversation and the minister as conversation leader

Equality and the Family Don S. Browning, 2007 In Equality and the Family Don Browning pulls together essays he has published in the past in order to shed light on the path we should take in the future He contends that practical theology can be envisioned as a practical research program and he uses the very concrete example of the family to illustrate how this works Though it may sound unlikely that equality in the family can be based on Christian ideas Browning insists that it can and that it should His desire is to be pro family and pro marriage in ways that create justice and equality within the family Based on this goal he argues for the church's ideal model of the mother father partnership to be balanced with an understanding and acceptance of the pluralism of family forms as a part of modern life including church life A brief introduction of each essay is included to help the reader understand the original context of the piece

Paul Tillich and the Possibility of Revelation Through Film Jonathan Brant, 2012-01-26 This study explores the possibility that even films lacking religious subject matter might have a religious impact upon their viewers It begins with a reading of Paul Tillich's theology of revelation through culture and continues with a qualitative research project assessing the experiences of filmgoers in Latin America Public Theology in the Post-Secular Age Dominic Budhi-Thornton, 2025-07-31 As religion's status and place within society is contested in the post secular age Manchester Cathedral is a fascinating case study of the potential role that cathedrals and other religious institutions may be able to play in various public settings While the church's membership declines in the UK Manchester Cathedral operates as a spiritual hub in the area of Greater Manchester Using primary data gathered on the ground this work explores Manchester Cathedral's public theologies of inclusion which lie at the heart of its various activities and practices Focusing most explicitly on the cathedral's interfaith work anti racism work and its theology of LGBTQIA inclusion the author explores the potential strengths and weaknesses of religious engagement in the contemporary post secular age In this book Budhi Thornton seeks to contribute to questions about the relationship between the religious and the secular tradition and innovation inclusion and distinctiveness Drawing on a wide range of theological and philosophical traditions Budhi Thornton puts forward a case for the development of a public theological hospitality that remains open to the work of the Spirit in the life of the Other Nathan Scott's Literary Criticism and Fundamental Theology William D. Buhrman, 2006 Nathan Scott's Literary Criticism and Fundamental Theology reexamines the pioneering contribution of Nathan A Scott Jr to the field of theology and literature It both recalls Scott's achievement and suggests its continuing value by focusing on the question of Scott's method Rather than following the traditional interpretation of Scott as a literary critic employing Paul Tillich's theology of culture this book proposes that Scott's work is best understood as a form of fundamental theology In doing so it suggests that Scott's work models ways in which literary texts may be appropriately incorporated into theological discourse Publisher's website How Do Stories Save Us? Scott Holland, 2006 The postmodern turn in theology reminds us that religion is imaginative before it becomes prosaic or propositional Theologians are now joining literary critics novelists and poets in asking the question How Do Stories Save Us Claiming that the truth of religion like the truth of its nearest analogue art is primordially a truth of manifestation this book explores the question in constructive conversation with the hermeneutics of David Tracy With Tracy's analogical imagination as a guide Scott Holland takes the reader on an intellectual adventure through narrative theology literary criticism poetics ritual studies and aesthetics in the composition of a theology of culture Catholic Thought Since the Enlightenment Aidan Nichols, 1998 The Turnings of Darkness and Light Kenneth Surin, 1989-02-02 This collection of essays written between 1975 and 1987 covers the doctrine of analogy the Trinity theological realism the problems of evil and suffering the doctrine of God tragedy and Christian life the doctrine of the atonement christology the theology of religions ecclesiology discipleship and the so called theistic proofs Ecclesiology and Postmodernity Gerard Mannion, 2017-01-13 What in the world is postmodernity Is it the dominant reality today If it is what does it mean to be a church in a postmodern world It seems that the church had a difficult time coming to terms with a modern world an era ruled by the claims of scientific certainty Having done so more or less it is now confronted by the claims of postmodernity which seem to reverse the whole equation to say that certainty and objectivity are chimeras What is truth Pilate asked and postmodernity at least as caricatured by its opponents responds There s no such thing Gerard Mannion in Ecclesiology and Postmodernity addresses the situation of the church in a postmodern world The fundamental changes in human society and culture wrought by the twentieth century require the church to consider its response in the twenty first century What is the church s moral Vision how does its practice look what is the nature of its aspiration toward holiness in our times Mannion believes that since Vatican II the Catholic Church has been in a kind of limbo awaiting a Vision of its own life for the future Rather than focusing on specific controversies Mannion offers concrete suggestions about how the church can create a better harmony between its own self understanding its ecclesiological Vision and its day to day life its ecclesial practice Gerard Mannion PhD educated at King s College Cambridge University and New College Oxford University is Associate Professor of Ecclesiology and Ethics in the Department of Theology and Religious Studies at Liverpool Hope University UK He is also the director of Church In Our Times Centre for the Study of Contemporary Ecclesiology co director of the Applied Ethics Initiative at Liverpool Hope co chair of the AAR American Academy of Religion Ecclesiological Investigations Program Unit and co ordinator of the Ecclesiological Investigations International Research Network Mannion is the author of Schopenhauer Religion and Morality and co editor of Readings in Church Authority Gifts and Challenges for Contemporary Catholicism both published by Ashgate in 2003 and co editor of the forthcoming volumes The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church and Catholic Social Justice Theological and Practical Explorations
