Bonfire Of The Vanities Part One:

Overcoming Law Richard A. Posner, 1995 Legal theory must become more factual and empirical and less conceptual and polemical Richard Posner argues in this wide ranging new book The topics covered include the structure and behavior of the legal profession constitutional theory gender sex and race theories interdisciplinary approaches to law the nature of legal reasoning and legal pragmatism Posner analyzes in witty and passionate prose schools of thought as different as social constructionism and institutional economics and scholars and judges as different as Bruce Ackerman Robert Bork Ronald Dworkin Catharine MacKinnon Richard Rorty and Patricia Williams He also engages challenging issues in legal theory that range from the motivations and behavior of judges and the role of rhetoric and analogy in law to the rationale for privacy and blackmail law and the regulation of employment contracts Although written by a sitting judge the book does not avoid controversy it contains frank appraisals of radical feminist and race theories the behavior of the German and British judiciaries in wartime and the excesses of social constructionist theories of sexual behavior Throughout the book is unified by Posner's distinctive stance which is pragmatist in philosophy economic in methodology and liberal in the sense of John Stuart Mill's liberalism in politics Brilliantly written eschewing jargon and technicalities it will make a major contribution to the debate about the role of law in our society New York Magazine, 1991-01-07

New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea New York Magazine, 1991-01-07
