Olivier Messiaens lifelong quest centered on the colors and rhythms of a music that would serve as a vehicle for his thoughts about time his love of God and his enthusiasm for birdsong An additional topic about which he felt deeply is that of passionate fated human love and its relationship to death on the one hand the love of God on the other During the years 1936 1948 he composed five cycles of vocal music to his own texts as well as the Turangala Symphony the monumental centerpiece of his Tristan Trilogy The focus of this study is the in depth analysis and interpretation of these six works on love with particular regard for their unusual wealth of poetic sonic and visual colors and imagery The wonder of rainbows the magic of exotic sounds the fantastic attractiveness of surrealist representations and the majestic inexorability of fate in myths of various times and cultures define Messiaens lyrics as much as his idiosyncratic highly symbolic musical language which never fails to build bridges between this and another world L'Intime épistolaire \(1850-1900\) Jelena
