Upfield,2020-06-01 Deep in Australia s outback a woman has been murdered her daughter vanished Ole Fren Yorky a crazy wanderer is known to have been in the area and his footprints have been identified near the body When he too disappears even the Aboriginal trackers are baffled Bony s approach changes everything It becomes one of Bony s great adventures He pictures the merits of Aboriginal society And he uses weather in this case the threatening rising of the lake to picture man s heroic stature The setting the events the pace of telling the story the style of telling it all combine to make this a tight effective crime novel From The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne Death of a Lake Arthur W. Upfield,2020-06-01 The Answerth family s mansion seems to deserve its nickname of Venom House perhaps because of its forbidding setting an island in the centre of a man made lake its treacherous waters studded by the skeletons of long dead trees Perhaps it s because of the unquiet ghosts of the Aborigines slaughtered by the Answerth ancestors Whatever the reason most people are content to give Venom House and its occupants a wide berth until a couple of corpses turn up in the lake The strength of Upfield s accomplishment in this book is so overwhelming it makes the reader cower The characters are well developed the conversation vernacular for the Australian outback and the development compelling The story is the nearest Upfield comes to a story that would have made Edgar Allen Poe envious Upfield maintains a kind of corpse like humour which is very amusing The whole book is first class Upfield and first class crime fiction from The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne The Devil's Steps Arthur W.
