The Role of Religions in the European Perception of Insular and Mainland Southeast Asia Monika Arnez, Jürgen Sarnowsky, 2016-08-17 For people nowadays the constant exchange of people goods and ideas and their interaction across wide distances are a part of everyday life However such encounters and interregional links are by no means only a recent phenomenon although the forms they have taken in the course of history have varied It goes without saying that travel to distant regions was spurred by various interests first and foremost economic and imperialist policies which reached an initial climax around 1500 with the European expansion to the Americas and into the Indian Ocean The motivations of European travellers for venturing to the regions of maritime and mainland Southeast Asia which are the focus of the studies presented here were manifold ranging from the pursuit of power commercial exploitation intellectual curiosity and the aspiration to proselytize among indigenous people This book adds to existing knowledge on travel travel experiences and travel writing by Europeans in mainland and insular Southeast Asia from the 16th to the 21st century based on specific case studies Moreover it demonstrates how Europeans perceived religion in the region presently known as Southeast Asia Working on the assumption that many of the European traders seafarers explorers and administrators arriving in Southeast Asia came as Christians convinced of the superiority of their religion the contributors to this volume analyse their encounters with Muslims who had been their long standing enemies in the Mediterranean and with Hindus Buddhists and adherents of local religions They involve themselves closely with the travelogues and the role of religions therein and in doing so reveal the ways in which religion influenced the travellers understanding of societies in maritime and mainland Southeast Asia The volume explores a number of questions including How did European travellers perceive religion in different regions of Southeast Asia in different historical periods How did the administrators the missionaries the natural historians and the explorers position themselves vis vis Islam and Buddhism on Java and in Siam And what do travel accounts tell us about the way Southeast Asian people perceived the Europeans The Book of Duarte Barbosa Duarte Barbosa, Mansel Longworth Dames, 1989 An Account Of The Countries Bordering On The Indian Ocean And Their Inhabitants Written By Duarte Barbosa And

Completed About The Year 1518 A D Vol 1 Including The Coasts Of East Africa Arabia Persia And Western India As Far As The Kingdom Of Vijayanagar Vol Ii Including The Coasts Of Malabar Eastern India Further India China And The Indian Archipelago Martin Waldseemüller's 'Carta marina' of 1516 Chet Van Duzer,2019-10-09 This open access book presents the first detailed study of one of the most important masterpieces of Renaissance cartography Martin Waldseemüller's Carta marina of 1516 By transcribing translating into English and detailing the sources of all of the descriptive texts on the map as well as the sources of many of the images the book makes the map available to scholars in a wholly unprecedented way In addition the book provides revealing insights into how Waldseemüller went about making the map information that can't be found in any other source The Carta marina is the result of Waldseemüller's radical re-evaluation of what a world map should be he essentially started from scratch when he created it rejecting the Ptolemaic model and other sources he had used in creating his 1507 map and added more descriptive texts and a wealth of illustrations Given its content the book offers an essential reference work not only on this map but also for anyone working in sixteenth century European cartography

South Asian Archaeology 1975 J.E. van Lohuizen-de Leeuw,2023-07-31 A History of Mozambique M. D. D. Newitt,1995 This is the first history of Mozambique from the 15th century to the present The Mozambican people have had contact with Muslim and European traders for nearly 1000 years and their history is given a unity by the influence of commerce and seaborne trade Indeed Mozambique itself consists of a series of ancient sea and river ports with their commercial hinterlands Exploring the Economy of Late Antiquity Jairus Banaji,2016 This book contributes to a new economic history of late antiquity with tightly argued stimulating studies of class money and exchange Jain Paintings and Material Culture of Medieval Western India Lipika Maitra,2023-08-31 Through a curated collection of key Jain paintings this volume offers a glimpse into the way people lived in western India during the medieval times What they wore how they ornamented themselves what they amused themselves with what furniture they sat on which modes of transport they used It includes Jain paintings from various collections in India and abroad to underscore the value of pictorial evidence in piecing together the past The book takes the reader on a breath taking visual journey through the varied costumes exquisite textiles handcrafted ornaments curiously shaped vessels and containers musical instruments arms and armour conveyances and many such articles of everyday use These articles of everyday use are corroborated with the descriptions left by foreign travellers passing through western India at that time It explores contemporary lexicons and vernacular literature from this period for possible names in vogue for the articles of Material Culture The work is richly illustrated with line drawings by the author to highlight the objects being referred to What comes across clearly through this book is that art is the mirror of the times and as such paintings reflect the society in which they are created A magnificent read this book will be essential for scholars and researchers of Indian painting art history Indian art arts and aesthetics Jainism visual arts South Asian history Indian history heritage studies and cultural history It will also be a must have for history and visual arts enthusiasts all over the world The Cambridge Global History of Fashion: Volume 1 Christopher Breward, Beverly Lemire, Giorgio Riello, 2023-08-17 Explores how the long history of fashion from antiquity to c 1800 created global networks and animated world communities 'The Heathen in his Blindness...' S.N. Balagangadhara, 2018-08-14 Today most intellectuals agree that a Christianity has profoundly influenced western culture b members from different cultures experience many aspects of the world differently c the empirical and theoretical study of both culture and religion emerged within the West The present study argues that these truisms have implications for the conceptualization of religion and culture More specifically the thesis is that non western cultures and religions differ from the descriptions prevalent in the West and it is also explained why this has been the case The author proposes novel analyses of religion the Roman religio the construction of religions in India and the nature of cultural differences Religion is important to the West because the constitution and the identity of western culture is tied to the dynamic of Christianity as a religion Revisiting Hormuz Dejanirah Couto, Rui Loureiro, 2008 The volume Revisiting Hormuz gathers the proceedings of a Conference organized in March 2007 by the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation through its Centre Culturel Calouste Gulbenkian in Paris The year 2007 exactly five centuries after the Portuguese first landed on the island of Hormuz seemed to the scientific coordinators Rui Manuel Loureiro and Dejanirah Couto a very appropriate moment to bring together a large group of specialists that could establish the current state of the art in field of the history of Portuguese interactions with Hormuz and the Persian Gulf region The chronological borders of the Conference quite naturally were extended to the early decades of the 17th century to include the final departure of the Portuguese from Hormuz in 1622 and subsequent developments Although the focus of the Paris Conference was supposed to be history in any of its political social economic or cultural variants the complex nature of Portuguese interactions with Hormuz and Safavid Persia that spanned for more than a century and also the existence of an important monumental heritage of Portuguese origin in the Gulf area made the presence of art historians architects and archaeologists desirable Narratives, Routes and Intersections in Pre-Modern Asia Radhika Seshan, 2016-11-10 11 Fairs and pilgrimages as points of intersections the case of medieval western Maharashtra 12 Continuing routes changed intersections a study of Fort St George Madras in the seventeenth century The Book of Duarte Barbosa: Including the coasts of Malabar, eastern India, further India, China, and the Indian archipelago Duarte Barbosa, 1921
