Erickson, 2017-06-30 Bo Giertz wrote this book drawing upon the exegetical insights that he received from his mentor Anton Fridrichsen before and during and after his trip to Palestine in the early 1930s. The book is a third person retelling of the gospels that brings into account various Old Testament references and the contemporary interpretations of those passages by the Jews of Jesus' day as well as contemporary events throughout the Roman Empire but most especially those directly affecting the Jewish people of Israel at the time so that the gospel stories take on new life and meaning for the reader. It is both a harmonization of the gospels and a commentary on them but much richer. The perspectives change depending on the episode. Sometimes the perspective is from that of a disciple, sometimes from that of a person being healed or a bystander observing. The Christmas story is told from the perspective of Shepherds, the crucifixion scene dwells on the perspective of Simon of Cyrene.

Education Beyond Education John Baldacchino, 2009. Developing a theme in dialogue with Maxine Greene's philosophy, this book introduces the reader to what animates Greene's passionate work: the self and the imaginary. It illuminates how Greene empowers us all as learners of the possible by identifying learning with the power of the imagination. Greene's work promises hope beyond the impasse that often occurs when learning is reified by educational systems. Education Beyond Education illustrates how Greene redefines the notion of the imaginary and with it that of the imagination as that which expands the possibilities of learning beyond the boundaries by which education is often narrowly defined and practiced. Tracing Greene's key arguments, Education Beyond Education offers a strikingly original and empowering way to see and reposition education beyond its customary limits.

Documenting the Documentary Barry Keith Grant, Jeannette Sloniowski, 1998. Documenting the Documentary features essays by 27 film scholars from a wide range of critical and theoretical perspectives. Each essay focuses on one or two important documentaries engaging in questions surrounding ethics, ideology, politics, power, race, gender, and representation but always in terms of how they arise out of or are involved in the reading of specific documentaries as particular textual constructions. By closely reading documentaries as rich visual works, this anthology fills a void in the critical writing on documentaries which tends to privilege production over aesthetic pleasure. As we increasingly perceive and comprehend the world through visual media, understanding the textual strategies by which individual documentaries are organized has become critically important. Documenting the Documentary offers clear, serious, and insightful analyses of documentary films and is a welcome balance between theory and criticism, abstract conceptualization and concrete analysis.

Thinking with Kierkegaard Arne Grøn, 2022-12-31. Arne Grøn's reading of Søren Kierkegaard's authorship revolves around existential challenges of human identity. The 35 essays that constitute this book are written over three decades and are characterized by combining careful attention to the augmentative detail of Kierkegaard's text with a constant focus on issues in contemporary philosophy. Contrary to many approaches to Kierkegaard's authorship, Grøn does not read Kierkegaard in opposition to Hegel. The work of the Danish thinker is read as a critical development of Hegelian phenomenology with particular attention to existential aspects of human experience. Anxiety and despair are the primary existential phenomena that Kierkegaard examines throughout his authorship and Gr n uses these negative phenomena to argue for the basically ethical aim of Kierkegaard s work In Gr n s reading Kierkegaard conceives human selfhood not merely as relational but also a process of becoming the self that one is through the otherness of self experience that is the body the world other people and God This book should be of interest to philosophers theologians literary studies scholars and anyone with an interest not only in Kierkegaard but also in human identity

The Passive Eye Branka Arsi?, 2003 The Passive Eye is a revolutionary and historically rich account of Berkeley s theory of vision In this formidable work the author considers the theory of the embodied subject and its passions in light of a highly dynamic conception of infinity Arsic shows the profound affinities between Berkeley and Spinoza and offers a highly textual reading of Berkeley on the concept of an exhausted subjectivity The author begins by following the Renaissance universe of vision particularly the paradoxical elusive nature of mirrors then shows how this conception of vision was translated into the optical devices and in what way the various ways of deception could be conceived Reading Berkeley against the backdrop of competing theories in relation to Leibniz Spinoza Newton Malebranche Hume Locke Molyneux and others this book gives a meticulous historic reconstruction of Berkeley s theory This excellent scholarly work presents Berkeley s theory in a new and radical light The book presented in three parts begins by presenting the conceptions of vision prior to Berkeley s intervention In the second part the author moves through a careful study of Descartes theory of vision to arrive at Berkeley The third part addresses the author s version of Berkeley in which the eye and the image become inseparable due to the collapse of the universe of representation The problem of vision becomes not that of representation but of presentation Through an erudite historic reading of Berkeley s theory and astute comparative assessments the author uncovers Berkeley s place as a contemporary theoretician corresponding with such thinkers as Deleuze Lacan Foucault and Derrida Disturbing Revelation: Leo Strauss, Eric Voegelin, and the Bible John J. Ranieri, 2008 Ranieri shows how Leo Strauss and Eric Voegelin drew on biblical texts in their philosophies to explore the relationship between religion politics and violence while maintaining a deep ambivalence about the Bible s vision of life and its influence on politics and finally compares their thought with that of Ren Girard Provided by publisher Now I Have Seen You Kathi L. Norris et al., 2021-05-06 Hebrews 11 the Catalog of Faithful Witnesses retells the testimonies of God s faithful followers who found God in the midst of pain suffering and hardship Their testimonies are an upward call to God s people today Reading this book is like reading Hebrews 11 Testimonies are truth Testimonies are lived truth In this book faithful disciples of Jesus give their testimonies of how God fortified them during their darkest days their days of lament grief and loss These stories aren t easy to hear They are stories that are full of hurt and pain But as we listen to the stories we learn lessons about how to find God in the dark moments of life These are the moments that St John of the Cross calls the dark night of the soul Is God present when life is shrouded with misery and grief This book doesn t tell the reader how to find God during the dark night instead the book shows the reader how God reaches out and finds his faithful followers during their dark night That s the value of this book Dr G Steve Leigh Kinnard Teacher Women s Ministry Leader At New York City Church of Christ Radiology in Forensic Medicine Giuseppe Lo Re, Antonina Argo, Massimo Midiri, Cristina Cattaneo, 2019-07-04 This book offers a comprehensive overview of the forensic and radiological aspects of pathological findings focusing on the most relevant medico legal issues such as virtual autopsy virtopsy anthropometric identification post mortem decomposition features and the latest radiological applications used in forensic investigations Forensic medicine and radiology are becoming increasingly relevant in the international medical and legal field as they offer essential techniques for determining cause of death and for anthropometric identification This is
