Of Witness Spells And Gris Gris:

A Book of Witness Jerome Rothenberg, 2003 A landmark collection by one of America's leading avant gardists A Book of Witness Spells Gris Gris is Jerome Rothenberg's passage from one century one millennium to another Of the one hundred poems that comprise the book the first half were written in 1999 the second in the two years that followed But far more than a marker of era shifting it is a collection that reestablishes the primacy of the poetic I not in the sense of a confessional personal voice but of the grammatical first person as both a singular witness and conduit for others a kind of prophecy Often incantatory the poems in A Book of Witness are a reaffirmation of self in the face of history's darknesses a shout for life against an indifferent universe of a fearless woman it combines history adventure and romance I loved it Lady Antonia Fraser Lady Dorothy Dolly Mills was a trailblazer whose larger than life personality led her to extraordinary adventures Born in 1889 into the Walpole family who were eminent in political and literary spheres Dolly defied the constraints of her upper class upbringing by marrying a poor army captain prompting her disinheritance From becoming the first English woman in Timbuktu she forged a reputation as one of the most renowned explorers in West Africa and beyond travelling deep into Venezuela and the Middle East territories often considered the preserve of men breaking the mould and challenging her background and the expectations of her gender Dolly wrote acclaimed travel books documenting remote places and peoples capturing history in the making By the 1930s she was the best known female explorer appearing on platforms and in books alongside prominent men She was elected as an early female Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society and was a strong advocate for women in the field leaving a bequest for women explorers on her death in 1959 A feminist with unorthodox views which ultimately cost her her marriage Dolly also wrote bold novels and incisive features for women Despite life changing obstacles she never lost her love of donning a glamorous frock and downing a cocktail No Country For a Woman is the first book about the life of the best known female explorer set against the backdrop of the decadent Jazz Age and will captivate not only those who are fans of other famous explorers but also curious readers interested in the lives of fearless women Poetry Project ,2002 The Magic of Marie Laveau Denise Alvarado,2020-02-01 The life and work of the legendary Pope of Voodoo Marie Laveau a free woman of color who practically ruled New Orleans in the mid 1800s Marie Laveau may be the most influential American practitioner of the magical arts certainly she is among the most famous She is the subject of songs films and legends and the star of New Orleans ghost tours Her grave in New Orleans ranks among the most popular spiritual pilgrimages in the US Devotees venerate votive images of Laveau who proclaimed herself the Pope of Voodoo She is the subject of respected historical biographies and the inspiration for novels by Francine Prose and Jewell Parker Rhodes She even appears in Marvel Comics and on the television show American Horror Story Coven where she was portrayed by Angela Bassett Author Denise Alvarado explores Marie Laveau s life and work the fascinating history and mystery This book gives an overview of New Orleans Voodoo its origins history and practices It contains spells prayers rituals recipes and instructions for constructing New Orleans voodoo style altars and crafting a voodoo amulet known as a gris gris Matter, Magic, and Spirit David Murray,2013-04-23 The spiritual and religious beliefs and practices of Native Americans and African Americans have long been sources of fascination and curiosity owing to their marked difference from the religious traditions of white writers and researchers Matter Magic and Spirit explores the ways religious and magical beliefs of Native Americans and African Americans have been represented in a range of discourses including anthropology comparative religion and literature Though these beliefs were widely dismissed as primitive superstition and inferior to higher religions like Christianity distinctions were still made between the supposed spiritual capacities of the different groups David Murray s analysis is unique in bringing together Indian and African beliefs and their representations First tracing the development of European ideas about both African fetishism and Native American primitive belief he goes on to explore the ways in which the hierarchies of race created by white Europeans coincided with hierarchies of religion as expressed in the developing study of comparative religion and folklore through the nineteenth century Crucially this comparative approach to practices that were dismissed as conjure or black magic or Indian medicine points as well to the importance of their cultural and political roles in their own communities at times of destructive change Murray also explores the ways in which Indian and African writers later reformulated the models developed by white observers as demonstrated through the work of Charles Chesnutt and Simon Pokagon and then in the later conjunctions of modernism and ethnography in the 1920s and 1930s through the work of Zora Neale Hurston Zitkala Sa and others Later sections demonstrate how contemporary writers including Ishmael Reed and Leslie Silko deal with the revaluation of traditional beliefs as spiritual resources against a background of New Age spirituality and postmodern conceptions of racial and ethnic identity

Spirit in the Dark Josef Sorett, 2016 While many of the most significant black intellectual movements of the second half of the twentieth century have been perceived as secular Josef Sorett demonstrates in this book that religion was actually a fertile fluid and formidable force within these movements Spirit in the Dark examines how African American literary visions were animated and organized by religion and spirituality from the New Negro Renaissance of the 1920s to the Black Arts movement of the 1960s
