

Giving Back

this is what i have taken from you many years ago
and you do not remember

i am now returning it back to you with an open heart my hands stretching out to reach you again

you still wonder what was it what is this all about what i am giving back to you i am giving you back this empty heart these empty hands this empty mind this openness my gaping mouth

my hollow body

you still do not remember
many years ago
you have taken them all from me and i was wearing that smile of the willing victim it is about time that you remember the sadness that clings like a wilting vine on our fences

Of Giving Back A Poem:

Nuclear Futures in the Post-Fukushima Age Hester Baer, Michele M. Mason, 2024-08-24 This groundbreaking volume explores new artistic forms that emerged in German speaking Europe and Japan in the wake of the 2011 Fukushima nuclear power plant disaster Considering the cultural specificity of post 3 11 literature poetry theater and film while also attending to moments of crossing hybridity and transference Nuclear Futures in the Post Fukushima Age offers a critical model for examining the intertwining of transnational connection and ecological contamination in a global present marked by renewed nuclear threat Bringing together incisive readings by eminent scholars of Germany and Japan as well as a newly translated work by Y ko Tawada the volume offers a comparative humanities approach that is essential for reframing debates about environmental crisis and nuclear risk

Fukushima and the Arts Barbara Geilhorn, Kristina Iwata-Weickgenannt, 2016-08-05 The natural and man made cataclysmic events of the 11 March 2011 disaster or 3 11 have dramatically altered the status quo of contemporary Japanese society While much has been written about the social political economic and technical aspects of the disaster this volume represents one of the first in depth explorations of the cultural responses to the devastating tsunami and in particular the ongoing nuclear disaster of Fukushima This book explores a wide range of cultural responses to the Fukushima nuclear calamity by analyzing examples from literature poetry manga theatre art photography documentary and fiction film and popular music Individual chapters examine the changing positionality of post 3 11 northeastern Japan and the fear driven conflation of time and space in near but far urban centers explore the political subversion and nostalgia surrounding the Fukushima disaster expose the ambiguous effects of highly gendered representations of fear of nuclear threat analyze the musical and poetic responses to disaster and explore the political potentialities of theatrical performances By scrutinizing various media narratives and taking into account national and local perspectives the book sheds light on cultural texts of power politics and space Providing an insight into the post disaster Zeitgeist as expressed through a variety of media genres this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Japanese Studies Japanese Culture Popular Culture and Literature Studies

Art and Activism in the Nuclear Age Roman Rosenbaum, Yasuko Claremont, 2023-05-12 This book explores the contemporary legacy of Hiroshima and Nagasaki following the passage of three quarters of a century and the role of art and activism in maintaining a critical perspective on the dangers of the nuclear age It closely interrogates the political and cultural shifts that have accompanied the transition to a nuclearised world Beginning with the contemporary socio political and cultural interpretations of the impact and legacy of the destruction of Hiroshima and Nagasaki the chapters examine the challenges posed by committed opponents in the cultural and activist fields to the ongoing development of nuclear weapons and the expanding industrial uses of nuclear power It explores how the aphorism that all art is political is borne out in the close relation between art and activism This multi disciplinary approach to the socio political and cultural exploration of nuclear energy in relation to Hiroshima Nagasaki via the arts will be of interest to students and poetry Some of this work was of thought given religious poems that had good themes The time and place I don't know what it means There a thought given is usually written Reasoning for life is usually explained thought for actions is then remained As one to another time is a fence actions portrayed some of defense The mind was one that was given the thought within is retained from living A purpose has reason for a maker to see sometimes your action is reason to be Other times a purpose is that not in sight making the choice not being right Then again age is a factor for how you choose more in sight to win or to lose Reasoning is many times unexplained but a good thought was unrestrained A thought in practice becomes a choice made a mistake made is one to invade Life is like a gamble then you die Don't rock any cradle don't make em cry Live trying to give back to life don't let it show Love the beast don't let it know Have peace for life killing is banned See the other side I hear it's grand Death is the last step we take I hope you make it for both of our sakes All of his instructions were given your part is in the living Amen Earth is our onetime school to learn God's love obey his rule All for our gain to love and learn graduate in death prepared for our turn Exclaimed with the happiness to see and rejoice spirit lives have a voice Heard for eternity his promise fulfilled that with action thought prewilled You lived for a reason instead of gain in pleasing yourself The End of Book 1 Seeing The Real Nation Book 2 is further in depth More of a mind being prepped For the soul to be swept Up for God knows you cared
