

Put-downs!

- What is put down?
- Give Examples.
- Where do people learn them?
- How do they make people feel?
- Why do we say them?
- If people in the class say these things to one another a lot how might it affect the group?

The Respectful School Stephen Wessler, William Preble, 2003 Explores the emotional and physical damage of bullying in school and offers suggestions for helping students overcome that damage and begin the healing process Joss Whedon as Shakespearean Moralist J. Douglas Rabb, J. Michael Richardson, 2014-11-26 Drawing on the works of Shakespeare and American screenwriter Joss Whedon this study in narrative ethics contends that Whedon is the Shakespeare of our time The Bard wrote before the influence of the modern moral philosophers while Whedon is writing in the postmodern period It is argued that Whedon's work is more in harmony with the early modern values of Shakespeare than with modern ethics which trace their origin to 17th and 18th century moral philosophy This study includes a detailed discussion of representative works of Shakespeare and Whedon showing how they can and should be read as forms of narrative ethics

Insults in Classical Athens Deborah Kamen, 2020-08-25 Scholarly investigations of the rich field of verbal and extraverbal Athenian insults have typically been undertaken piecemeal Deborah Kamen provides an overview of this vast terrain and synthesizes the rules content functions and consequences of insulting fellow Athenians The result is the first volume to map out the full spectrum of insults from obscene banter at festivals to invective in the courtroom to slander and even hubristic assaults on another's honor While the classical city celebrated the democratic equality of autochthonous citizens it counted a large population of noncitizens as inhabitants so that ancient Athenians developed a preoccupation with negotiating affirming and restricting citizenship Kamen raises key questions about what it meant to be a citizen in democratic Athens and demonstrates how insults were deployed to police the boundaries of acceptable behavior In doing so she illuminates surprising differences between antiquity and today and sheds light on the ways a democratic society valuing free speech can nonetheless curb language considered damaging to the community as a whole

Stand-up Put-Downs Rufus Hound, 2011 For a stand up comedian a heckler is either a curse or a blessing On one hand the drunk at the back of the room yelling incoherent nonsense can ruin the evening for everyone but on the other a funny well timed heckle can really ramp up the laughter in the room Either way all stand ups know they must be prepared to deal with hecklers by using the most effective weapon at their disposal their razor sharp wit Whether they are quick enough to think up comebacks on the spot or they have a battery of tried and tested insults to suit every different occasion put downs are an essential part of every comedian's repertoire Here Rufus Hound comp re extraordinaire has compiled 200 of his favourites Read on and laugh along at some of the funniest insults in comedy history

Male Violence John Archer, 2022-11-30 First published in 1994 Male Violence examines male violence as the major source of human suffering from a wide range of perspectives This book contains accessible contributions from a wide range of psychologists who have studied the many faces of male violence in childhood and adulthood on the street and in the home towards men women and children and in its sexual and non sexual forms These varied topics together with an emphasis on naturalistic rather than laboratory based investigations distinguish these researchers from those aiming to make generalizations about human aggression without considering the issues of sex and gender In doing so Male Violence raises fundamental questions about values which are accepted and unchallenged by the majority of people living in the modern world This book will be of interest to students of psychology sociology and gender studies
