Rediscovered Classics of Japanese Animation Maria Chiara Oltolini, 2024-01-25 Rediscovered Classics of Japanese Animation is the first academic work to examine World Masterpiece Theater Sekai Meisaku Gekij 1969 2009 which popularized the practice of adapting foreign children's books into long running animated series and laid the groundwork for powerhouses like Studio Ghibli World Masterpiece Theater Sekai Meisaku Gekij 1969 2009 is a TV staple created by the Japanese studio Nippon Animation which popularized the practice of adapting foreign children's books into long running animated series Once generally dismissed by critics the series is now frequently investigated as a key early work of legendary animators Isao Takahata and Hayao Miyazaki In the first book length examination of the series Maria Chiara Oltolini analyzes cultural significance of World Masterpiece Theater and the ways in which the series pioneered the importance of children's fiction for Japanese animation studios and laid the groundwork for powerhouses like Studio Ghibli Adapting a novel for animation also means decoding and re coding socio cultural patterns embedded in a narrative World Masterpiece Theater stands as a unique example of this linguistic medial and cultural hybridisation Popular children's classics such as Little Women Peter Pan and Anne of Green Gables became the starting point of a full fledged negotiation process in which Japanese animators retold a whole range of narratives that have one basic formula in common archetypal stories with an educational purpose In particular the series played a role in shaping the pop culture image of a young girl sh jo Examining the series through the lens of animation studies as well as adaptation studies Oltolini sheds new light on this long neglected staple of Japanese animation history Bowker's Directory of Videocassettes for Children 1999 R R Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-03 Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 2000 Facets Video Encyclopedia Catherine Foley, Milos Stehlik, 1999 Calling it a virtual cinemath que on video the Telluride Film Festival gave its coveted Silver Medallion award to Facets Video Encyclopedia The Encyclopedia lists more than 35 000 rare films on video laser disc and DVD Included are foreign independent classic American silent documentary experimental cult and children's films Each is carefully described and lists director country of origin year and running time credits and is categorized and cross referenced by director and country All films are available for sale or rent from Facets Multimedia Anime and the Art of Adaptation Dani Cavallaro, 2014-01-10 Exploring a selection of anime adaptations of famous works of both Eastern and Western provenance this book is concerned with appreciating their significance and appeal as independent texts The author evaluates three aspects of anime adaptation how anime adaptations develop their original sources in stylistic aesthetic and psychological terms how specific features of the anime medium impact alchemically on the original sources to bring into being imaginative works of an autonomous nature and which qualities render an adaptation in anime form a distinctly unique artistic creation The Making and Remaking of China's "Red Classics" Rosemary Roberts, Li Li, 2017-10-19 The Making and Remaking of China's Red Classics is the first full length work to bring together research on the red classics across the entire Maoist period through to the reform era. It covers a representative range of genres including novels, short stories, films, TV series, picture books, animation, and traditional style paintings. Collectively, the chapters offer a panoramic view of the production and reception of the original red classics and the adaptations and remakes of such works after the Cultural Revolution. The contributors present fascinating stories of how a work came to be regarded as or failed to become a red classic. There has never been a single answer to the question of what counts as a red classic; artists had to negotiate the changing political circumstances and adopt the correct artistic technique to bring out the authentic image of the people while appealing to the taste of the mass audience at the same time. A critical examination of these works reveals their sociopolitical and ideological import, aesthetic significance, and function as a mass cultural phenomenon at particular historical moments. This volume marks a step forward in the growing field of the study of Maoist cultural products.

The Making and Remaking of China's Red Classics analyzes the creation of literature in the Maoist era as well as the way in which the revolutionary canon was rediscovered and imagined during the reform period. This book is a timely and fascinating set of studies critically illuminating a foundational time during PRC history and its aftermath. Wendy Larson, professor emerita, University of Oregon. Creative works produced in the Mao era (1942–1976) are often dismissed as mere propaganda. Despite the fact that they are artistic reflections of that remarkable period, scholars have generally ignored these red classics. This book throws much needed light on them. It is a must read for anyone wanting to understand the cultural scene in China. Kam Louie, honorary professor, University of Hong Kong and UNSW Australia.

Carpenter,Tim T. Zhang,2025-03-01 In East Asian cultures the arts of poetry calligraphy and painting are traditionally referred to as the Three Perfections This exhibition presents over 160 rare and precious works all created in Japan over the course of nearly a millennium that showcase the power and complexity of the three forms of art Examples include folding screens with poems brushed on sumptuous decorated papers dynamic calligraphy by Zen monks of medieval Kyoto hanging scrolls with paintings and inscriptions alluding to Chinese and Japanese literary classics ceramics used for tea gatherings and much more The majority of the works are among the more than 250 examples of Japanese painting and calligraphy donated or promised to The Met by Mary and Cheney Cowles whose collection is one of the finest and most comprehensive assemblages of Japanese art outside Japan Animation Behind the Iron Curtain Eleanor Cowen,2020-09-22 Animation Behind the Iron Curtain is a journey of discovery into the world of Soviet era animation from Eastern Bloc countries From Jerzy Kucia s brutally exquisite Reflections in Poland to the sci fi adventure of Ott in Space by Estonian puppet master Elbert Tuganov to the endearing Gopo s little man by Ion Popescu Gopo in Romania this excursion into Soviet era animation brings to light magnificent art ruminations on the human condition and celebrations of innocence and joy As art reveals the spirit of the times animation art of Eastern Europe during the Cold War funded by the Soviet states allowed artists to create works illuminating to their experiences hopes and fears The political ideology of the time ironically supported these artists while simultaneously suppressing more direct critiques of Soviet life Politics shaped the world of these artists who then fashioned their realities into amazing works of animation Their art is integral to the circumstances in which they lived which is why this book combines the unlikely combination of world politics and animated cartoons The phenomenal animated films shared in this book offer a glimpse into the culture and hearts of Soviet citizens who grew up with characters as familiar and beloved to them as Mickey Mouse and Bugs Bunny are to Americans This book lays out the basic political dynamics of the Cold War and how those political tensions affected the animation industry in both the US and in the Eastern Bloc And for animation novices and enthusiasts alike Animation Behind the Iron Curtain also offers breakout sections to explain many of the techniques and aesthetic considerations that go into this fascinating art form This book is a must read for anyone interested in the Cold War era and really cool animated films
