Annual Review Of United Nations Aff Volume 3:

The Law, Policy and Politics of the UN Human Rights Council Bertrand G. Ramcharan, 2015-05-19 The UN Human Rights Council is the leading human rights organ of the United Nations and ten years after it was established it has attracted commendation as well as severe criticism Its universal periodic review is widely recognized as a valuable process of international cooperation to advance the universal implementation of human rights However it has been criticized for not acting effectively and fairly in dealing with situations of shocking violations of human rights in many parts of the world It is an international organ with the highest responsibilities to uphold universal values but at the same time it is a political organ of United Nations Member States and it shows the characteristics of both a values based body and a theatre of political drama It is the merit of this book to present the Human Rights Council in terms of its mandates roles and organization while seeking to remind the membership and the international community at large that the Council must be anchored in the modern human rights law of the Charter of which the author gives a superb presentation The book then proceeds to make the case that human rights are part of international constitutional law and this is exceedingly important at a time when universal values have come under stress from various quarters including from terrorist formations The argument of the book is essentially that the modern human rights law of the Charter and the human rights provisions of international constitutional law must take precedence for everyone everywhere

Innovative Approach for the Development of Sustainable Settlements in East Africa Oscar Eugenio Bellini, Andrea Campioli, Claudio Del Pero, Cinzia M.L. Talamo, Davide Chiaroni, Stefano Guidarini, Camillo Magni, 2022-11-19 This book deals with sustainable affordable housing in developing countries providing the main results of the BECOMe research project of the Politecnico di Milano Sustainable affordable housing in developing countries is increasingly important for African and international stakeholders with massive urbanization processes involving many countries consuming large territories and natural resources minus any strategy of sustainability and social equality and without consideration of the long term effects on the environment and

subsequent generations While the issue of affordable housing requires approaches adapted to the many specific African contexts the case of Somalia seems representative of a fragile context characterized by the uncertainty of the social political and economic situations and the lack of common shared legislative references and strategies The book aims to provide knowledge and propose a methodological framework developed from this particular situation that can serve as a template On the basis of this main objective the book deals with approaches and problems related to the creation of sustainable housing ecosystems activating and boosting local enterprises and stimulating foreign investors to revamp the national AEC sector and related manufacturing industries models for modular settlements and business models and assessment methodologies useful for evaluating a set of appropriate technological solutions Chapters 03 and 07 are available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link springer.com Handbook of Federal Indian Law Felix S. agenda of researchers and policymakers alike Meanwhile peace considerations have expanded in recent decades to include the varied types and sources of conflict from inter state to intra state conflicts due to various social political economic and environmental factors Through providing theoretical and empirical insights this book demonstrates that sustainability and peace as intrinsically interrelated The book elaborates on the multi dimensional and constantly evolving concepts of sustainability and peace In addition the book contributes to a better understanding of the complex and dynamic interlinkages between peace and sustainability by presenting examples of pathways where sustainability and peace interact considering the different factors and contexts that are constantly shaping and reshaping the conditions for sustainable and peaceful societies

The Crisis of Multilateral Legal Order Lukasz Gruszczynski, Marcin Menkes, Veronika Bilkova, Paolo Farah, 2022-09-15 Multilateralism has served as a foundation for international cooperation over the past several decades Championed after the Second World War by the United States and Western Europe it expanded into a broader global system of governance with the end of the Cold War Lately an increasing number of States appear to be disappointed with the existing multilateral arrangements both at the level of norms and that of institutions The great powers see unilateral and bilateral strategies which maximize their political leverage rather than diluting it in multilateral fora as more effective ways for controlling the course of international affairs The signs of the crisis have been visible for some time but recent crises indicate an acceleration of the on going disintegration of the multilateral system such as Brexit growing resistance on the part of States to international monitoring of compliance and the radical change in the US foreign policy during the presidency of Donald Trump which saw the US withdraw from several multilateral agreements e g the Iran Nuclear Deal and the Paris Agreement leave some international organizations or bodies e g the United Nations Human Rights Council or the World Health Organization or paralyze some others e g the World Trade Organization WTO Tackling the debate surrounding the crisis of multilateralism and the related transformation of the underlying international legal order The Crisis of Multilateral Legal Order analyzes selected aspects of the current crisis from the perspective of public international law to identify the nature of the crisis its dynamics and implications
