Stillman Charlene Tung Kathleen Uno Linda Trinh V Judy Tzu Chun Wu Ji Yeon Yuh and Judy Yung Asian American Women Lora Jo Foo, 2002 Asian American Women Issues Concerns and Responsive Human and Civil Rights Advocacy reveals the struggles of Asian American women at the bottom of the socio economic ladder where hunger illness homelessness sweatshop labor exposure to hazardous chemicals and even involuntary servitude are everyday realities Asian American women of all socio economic classes suffer from domestic violence whose root causes stem from the particular forms of patriarchy that exist in Asian cultures Their health and lives are endangered due to prevalent but wrong stereotypes about Asian women The model minority myth hides the appalling level of human and civil rights violations against Asian American women The lack of research or the lumping together of the over 24 subgroups of Asian Americans into a homogeneous whole misleads the public as to the extent of injustices inflicted on Asian American women The book captures their suffering and also the fighting spirit of Asian American women who have waged social and economic justice campaigns and founded organizations to right the wrongs against them The book is a call to action to Asian Americans policy makers civil rights organizations and the philanthropic community to support Asian American women in their struggles to advance their social justice agenda Dragon Ladies Sonia Shah, 1997 Explores the emergence of a distinct Asian American feminist movement through the perspectives of well known Asian American activists writers and artists Ms Magazine Women in Asia under the Japanese Empire Tatsuya Kageki, Jiajia Yang, 2023-01-12 Contributors to this book provide an Asian women s history from the perspective of gender analysis assessing Japanese imperial policy and propaganda in its colonies and occupied territories and particularly its impact on women Tackling topics including media travel migration literature and the perceptions of the empire by the colonized the authors present an eclectic history unified by the perspective of gender studies and the spatial and political lens of the Japanese Empire They look at the lives of women in Taiwan Korea Manchuria Mainland China Micronesia and Okinawa among others These women were wives mothers writers migrants intellectuals and activists and thus had a very broad range of views and experiences of Imperial Japan Where women have tended in the past to be studied as objects of the imperial system the contributors to this book study them as the subject of history while also providing an outside in perspective on the Japanese Empire by other Asians A vital new perspective for scholars of twentieth century history of East Asian countries and regions Undivided Rights Jael Silliman, Marlene Gerber Fried, Loretta Ross, Elena Gutiérrez, 2016-04-18 Undivided Rights captures the evolving and largely unknown activist history of women of color organizing for reproductive justice on their own behalf Undivided Rights presents a textured understanding of the reproductive rights movement by placing the experiences priorities and activism of women of color in the foreground Using historical research original organizational case studies and personal interviews the authors illuminate how women of color have led the fight to control their own bodies and reproductive destinies Undivided Rights shows how women of color starting within their own Latina African American Native American and Asian American communities have resisted coercion

of their reproductive abilities Projected against the backdrop of the mainstream pro choice movement and radical right agendas these dynamic case studies feature the groundbreaking work being done by health and reproductive rights organizations led by women of color The book details how and why these women have defined and implemented expansive reproductive health agendas that reject legalistic remedies and seek instead to address the wider needs of their communities It stresses the urgency for innovative strategies that push beyond the traditional base and goals of the mainstream pro choice movement strategies that are broadly inclusive while being specific strategies that speak to all women by speaking to each woman While the authors raise tough questions about inclusion identity politics and the future of women s organizing they also offer a way out of the limiting focus on choice Undivided Rights articulates a holistic vision for reproductive freedom It refuses to allow our human rights to be divvied up and parceled out into isolated boxes that people are then forced to pick and choose among

Defining the Modern Museum Lianne McTavish,2013-02-27 Defining the Modern Museum is a fascinating exploration of the museum as a cultural institution Emphasizing museums relationship to schools libraries and government agencies this interdisciplinary study challenges long standing assumptions about museums revealing their messy uncertain origins and belying the standard narrative of their educational purpose having been corrupted by corporate goals Using theoretical models and extensive archival research Lianne McTavish examines the case of Canada s oldest continuing public museum the New Brunswick Museum in Saint John Focusing on the period between 1842 and the 1950s McTavish addresses topics such as the transnational exchange of objects between museums efforts by women to claim space within the organization the creation of Carnegie libraries and the rising status of curators Shedding light on many topics of current interest especially the commodification and globalization of museums this study makes a lively contribution to museum studies and cultural studies

New Futures Mary Hughes,Mary Kennedy,2017-06-26 Originally published in 1985 This book explores issues around education for women and uses the British experience as an example of what adult education in its variety can offer to women in breaking traditional moulds The text raises questions about where women are where they might be and how education as a whole can be used by women for women The critique of adult education is both theoretical and useful for practice including many case studies from areas as diverse as the education of minority women setting up of women s education centres working with childminders and courses at the Open University
