LatinAsian Cartographies Susan Thananopavarn, 2018-03-19 LatinAsian Cartographies examines how Latina/o and Asian American writers provide important counter narratives to the stories of racial encroachment that have come to characterize twenty first century dominant discourses on race Susan Thananopavarn contends that the Asian American and Latina/o presence in the United States although often considered marginal in discourses of American history and nationhood is in fact crucial to understanding how national identity has been constructed historically and continues to be constructed in the present day Thananopavarn creates a new LatinAsian view of the United States that emphasizes previously suppressed aspects of national history including imperialism domestic racism during World War II Cold War operations in Latin America and Asia and the politics of borders in an age of globalization LatinAsian Cartographies ultimately reimagines national narratives in a way that transforms dominant ideas of what it means to be American

Writing Plural Worlds in Contemporary U.S. Poetry J. Keller, 2009-08-03 This book reveals how poets within the U S multi ethnic avant garde give up the goal of narrating one comprehensive rooted view of cultural reality in favour of constructing coherent accounts of relational local selves and worlds

Diasporic Histories Andrea Riemenschnitter, Deborah L. Madsen, 2009-08-01 Chinese migrant communities have reinvented their histories in many contexts but the process of globalization has accelerated and diversified this phenomenon Their fluid identities innovative modernities and generative talents in overcoming prejudice and multiple dislocations offer powerful examples of creative resistance to placebound traditions and nationalist histories As the velocity of exchange in global media and commerce steadily increases emergent and dynamic diasporas are increasingly influential in transnational discourses This volume engages cultural representations of the subjectivities and loyalties of Chinese migrant communities including analyses of aesthetic texts as well as theoretical approaches in cultural studies The book situates diasporic agency as an historical phenomenon with far reaching political and social implications for both home and host societies and as a major site of contemporary cultural developments By assembling a variety of regional temporal and disciplinary perspectives it interrogates current notions of the diasporic subject raising questions about respective ideological roots and cultural

Living Labor Joseph B. Entin, 2023-02-13 For much of the twentieth century the iconic figure of the U S working class was a white male industrial worker But in the contemporary age of capitalist globalization new stories about work and workers are emerging to refashion this image Living Labor examines these narratives and in the process offers an innovative reading of American fiction and film through the lens of precarious work It argues that since the 1980s novelists and filmmakers including Russell Banks Helena V ramontes Karen Tei Yamashita Francisco Goldman David Riker Ramin Bahrani Clint Eastwood Courtney Hunt and Ryan Coogler have chronicled the demise of the industrial proletariat and the tentative and unfinished emergence of a new much more diverse and perilously positioned working class In bringing together stories of work that are also stories of race ethnicity gender and colonialism Living Labor challenges the often assumed division between class and identity politics Through the concept of living labor and its discussion of solidarity the book reframes traditional notions of class helping us understand both the challenges working people face and the possibilities for collective consciousness and action in the global present Cover attribution Allan Sekula Shipwreck and worker Istanbul from TITANIC s wake 1998 2000 Courtesy of the Allan Sekula Studio
