Michael Amaladoss, 2014-04-17 In Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss analyzes the many rich and complex strands of Asian religious thought on the notion and nature of the path toward liberation As he shows Asian liberation theology departs significantly from the Latin American model with which it is commonly compared Rather than put primary emphasis on economic issues Asian cultures give much greater priority to the role of religion in the composition of a healthy society In Part One Amaladoss discusses current liberation movements and thought in Korea the Philippines and India In two other chapters he shows also that the awakening of women is integral to the search for human freedom and development and the growing importance sound ecological policies in any valid approach to liberation in Asia In Part Two Amaladoss discusses non Christian approaches to human liberation and freedom showing how the lives and thought of influential figures of other faiths have given distinctive shape to Asian approaches to liberation Buddhists such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Hindus such as Mahatma Gandhi and E V Ramaswamy show that hostility to religion is remote from the most characteristic Asian liberation movements Gandhi's entire politics was rooted in the notion that to attain Truth or to realize God is the goal of human life But God for Gandhi is realized concretely in the world and particularly in other people Service to others then becomes a way to God and ultimately to human liberation Similarly Confucian traditions embody a deeply indigenous Asian way of constructing reality as a sacred whole In that construct liberation and freedom take on meanings and dimensions functionally religious in the way they anchor individuals and the community to the cosmic whole In Part Three Amaladoss gives his own analysis and prophetic overview on how the plurality of images of liberation enriches the possibility for interreligious cooperation in overcoming the forces of oppression in Asia Asian Theology of Liberation Aloysius Pieris, S.J., 1988-01-09

Struggle to be the Sun Again Hyun Kyung Chung, 1990 Asian Contextual Theology for the Third Millennium

Paul S Chung, Veli Matti Karkkainen, Kim Kyoung-Jae, 2010-03-25 In this volume an attempt is undertaken to highlight the genesis progress and transformation of Asian contextual theology of minjung introducing its historical point of departure its development and its transformation in light of younger Korean and Korean American scholars endeavors In this regard the new Asian contextual theology which is emerging strives to integrate both minjung and the wisdom of World Religions into its own framework and direction assuming the character of a public theology and remaining humble and open before God's mystery while featuring its association with minjung in a holistic way Postcolonial Resistance and Asian Theology Simon Shui-Man Kwan, 2013-11-07 Presenting a fundamental re thinking of Asian theology this book focuses on theological indigenization in Asia in light of the postcolonial theory of resistance advanced by Homi K Bhabha among others Two types of anti colonialist resistance within Asian theologies are identified and interrogated The first is nationalistic in kind operating from a theological language that is binaristic and oppositional The second is illustrated by that which was mounted by the three Chinese Christian thinkers whose indigenous theologies are analysed in this book as case studies This second kind postcolonial in its character is characterized by collaboration rather than antagonistic binarism In spite of much dissimilarity between these two kinds of resistance the book argues that they are similarly anti colonialist and both can be equally valid in resisting colonial forces Given that the binarism and antagonism imbedded in the Asian theological movement are historically contingent and that the sole reliance on this resistance has made the movement self ensnaring the book suggests that the Asian theological movement widen its choice of colonial resistant strategies Drawing attention to the otherwise subtle politics of the Asian theological indigenization discourse this book addresses the relationship between postcolonialism and Asia contextual theology and is of interest to students and scholars of Asian Religion and Philosophy An Asian Theology of Liberation Aloysius Pieris (S.J.), 1988 An Asian Theology of Liberation , 1988 EATWOT in Asia Franklyn J. Balasundaram, 1993 ISG 50: Asian Theology on the Way Peniel Rajkumar, 2013-04-05 This book provides an introduction to theological thought on the Asian continent It is ecumenical in scope with emphasis on the contemporary concerns within Asian theology and some attention to the development of these theologies Regional and subject specialists will capture the ongoing conversation on Asian theology incorporating new emphases thrusts and trends thus making the book a fresh and engaging introduction to Christian theology in Asia Asian Christianity and Theology Edmund Kee-Fook Chia, 2021-08-19 This book provides a comprehensive exploration of Asian Christianity and Theology with emphasis on how it has developed in different parts of the continent and in the different eras especially since the end of colonialism in Asia Asian Theology refers to a unique way of theological reflection characterized by specific methodologies that evolved in postcolonial Asia Premised on the thinking of Asian Church leaders and scholars its focus is on the dialogue with the many cultures inculturation many religions interreligious dialogue and many poor integral liberation of Asia The book looks at each of these ministries in detail foregrounding Asian biblical hermeneutics Christianity's engagement with Hinduism Confucianism and Islam Asian Women's Theology and the rise of Pentecostalism The volume is valuable reading for scholars of religious studies theology world Christianity Asian religions and Asian studies Emerging Theologies from the Global South Mitri

Raheb, Mark A. Lamport, 2023-03-29 In recent decades there has been a seismic shift in world Christianity Whereas formerly Christianity existed as a Caucasian Euro American phenomenon the majority of Christians today reside in the Southern Hemisphere or the Global South And what is true for the demographics of Christianity has followed lockstep for its theological developments The era of German theologians setting the tone for global church are gone Today some of the loudest and most creative voices in theology speak from the emerging contingencies of the Global South for example promoting Latinx Black Caribbean and Asian theologies and their influence often influences the conversation in the United States and Europe In addition just as the center of Christianity has moved geographically from north to south so with theological seminaries in the west which have declined as training centers for clergy These events coincide with new theological centers are opening in Asia Africa Oceania and Latin America The bottom line is contemporary Christianity today looks significantly different than it did a century ago and publications have been slow to acknowledge let alone describe and elaborate upon this major shift to the largest religion in the world These shifts guide our intentions in this book Such a reference book which could also be used as a textbook therefore is very much needed In fact there is nothing like the contents of this single volume book in the publishing market which allows for high quality interdisciplinary and international dialogue

Beyond the Academy David Thang Moe, 2024-10-11 The term public theology was introduced by Martin E Marty in a 1974 article Since then scholarly discussions on public theology have become more popular in academic circles This book however is about the invitation for moving beyond the academy It provides two reasons for doing so First an overtly academic public theology is in crisis today Although public theology may be flourishing in the academy its relevance for real life is limited Second there is the ecclesial flourishing among grassroots Christian communities across Asia who witness to their lived faith in public and hidden life Their voices are largely unheard due to the gaps between the academy and the church This volume argues that we should consider their voices as key sources for developing a relevant lived Asian public theology The author makes the case for reimagining the paradigm shifts in lived Asian public theology of religions and for bridging the unhappy gaps between the academic and grassroots voices
