the institutions Richmond takes for granted today In the creation of the Historic Richmond Foundation the Carriage Museum at Maymont the Hand Workshop and the Virginia Chapter of the Nature Conservancy she played the dual roles of visionary and bulldozer While part of a tradition of strong southern women Elisabeth Bocock s tactics were unique as she sought to convince others of both the practical and aesthetic links between preservation and the environment One of the five little Scotts children of the founder of the investment firm Scott in Elisabeth Scott Bocock we recognize the flawed but feisty enduring character of Richmond

Handbook of Research on Contemporary Storytelling Methods Across New Media and Disciplines is a comprehensive reference book that provides the relevant theoretical framework that concerns storytelling in modern society as well as the newest and most varied analyses and case studies in the field. The chapters of this extensive volume follow the construction and interpretation of stories across a plethora of contemporary media and disciplines. By bringing together radical forms of storytelling in traditional disciplines and methods of telling stories across newer media, this book intersects themes that include interactive storytelling and narrative theory across advertisements, social media, and knowledge sharing platforms among others. It is targeted towards professionals, researchers, and students working or studying in the fields of narratology, literature, media studies, marketing, and communication, anthropology, religion, or film studies. Moreover, for interested executives and entrepreneurs or prospective influencers, the chapters dedicated to marketing and social media may also provide insights into both the theoretical and the practical aspects of harnessing the power of storytelling in order to create a cohesive and impactful online image.

Youth Active Citizenship in Europe Shakuntala Banaji, Sam Mejias, 2020-04-25

This volume engages with the contested concept of active citizenship. It analyses the use and understanding of active citizenship in youth civic and political initiatives in the Czech Republic, Estonia, Germany, Italy, Portugal, and the UK. Using ethnographic data and insights from the cross-European project CATCH EyoU, the contributors to this collection illuminate the experiences of young people taking action for social change. It does so at a unique moment when a resurgent populist political right is deploying racial prejudice and neoliberal protectionism in both established media and new digital media to fuel xenophobic nationalism. The book asks a range of questions, including: What is life like for active young citizens with an interest in the civic and political spheres? What practices, relationships, and motivations characterise their participatory movements, organisations, initiatives, and groups? The chapters use case studies to analyse how friendship and emotion, social media, diversity, work, racism, precarity, and burnout feed into motivating and developing or curtailing sustained pro-democratic activism.

Youth Active Citizenship in Europe will be of interest to students and scholars across a range of disciplines, including politics, sociology, education, and cultural studies.
