Aspects Of Australian Figurative Paintings 1942-1962:

A Companion to Australian Art Christopher Allen, 2021-04-27 A Companion to Australian Art is a thorough introduction to the art produced in Australia from the arrival of the First Fleet in 1788 to the early 21st century Beginning with the colonial art made by Australia's first European settlers this volume presents a collection of clear and accessible essays by established art historians and emerging scholars alike Engaging clearly written chapters provide fresh insights into the principal Australian art movements considered from a variety of chronological regional and thematic perspectives The text seeks to provide a balanced account of historical events to help readers discover the art of Australia on their own terms and draw their own conclusions The book begins by surveying the historiography of Australian art and exploring the history of art museums in Australia The following chapters discuss art forms such as photography sculpture portraiture and landscape painting examining the practice of art in the separate colonies before Federation and in the Commonwealth from the early 20th century to the present day This authoritative volume covers the last 250 years of art in Australia including the Early Colonial High Colonial and Federation periods as well as the successive Modernist styles of the 20th century and considers how traditional Aboriginal art has adapted and changed over the last fifty years The Companion to Australian Art is a valuable resource for both undergraduate and graduate students of the history of Australian artforms from colonization to postmodernism and for general readers with an interest in the nation's colonial art history The Bibliography of Australasian Judaica 1788-2008 Serge Liberman, 2018-11-01 This bibliography includes all traceable self contained books monographs pamphlets and chapters from books which in some way pertain to Jews in Australia and New Zealand between 1788 and 2008 Born in Russia in 1942 Serge Liberman came to Australia in 1951 where he now works as a medical practitioner As author of several short story collections including On Firmer Shores A Universe of Clowns The Life That I Have Led and The Battered and the Redeemed he has three times received the Alan Marshall Award and has also been a recipient of the NSW Premier's Literary Award In addition he is compiler of two previous editions of A Bibliography of Australian Judaica Several of his titles have been set as study texts in Australian and British high schools and universities His literary work has been widely published he has been Editor and Literary Editor of several respected journals and has contributed to many other publications EcCentric Visions Gaile McGregor, 2006-01-01 What this book represents is quite literally a slice of white Australian life By noting the patterns and parallels that emerge in a random sampling of social phenomena of widely varying types from soap operas to political behaviour Gaile McGregor has constructed a model that in its challenge to uniformitarianism is a test case in ethnographic theory Using methods ranging from the hermeneutic through the structuralist to the psychoanalytic McGregor deploys the self evidence of communal life and language to establish not only that all cultural phenomena are patterned but that this patterning is unique to and consistent across the entire system Further it not only influences but constrains the way the Australian conceptualizes codifies and expresses his her existential position Hence the Australian predilection for icons of intermediacy the verandah in architecture the bush in literature the beach in folk culture the middle ground in landscape painting the pub in everyday life This identification with buffer zones between inside and outside not only mimics the Australian s real bracketing between desert and ocean but embodies his her sense of disablement vis vis both culture and nature art and techne super ego and id all of which are coded as feminine

Yosl Bergner Frank Klepner,2004 The painter Yosl Bergner was born in Vienna in 1920 arrived in Australia in 1937 and migrated to Israel in 1950 Melbourne scholar Frank Klepner provides a richly detailed history of Bergner s Australian years and provides well researched and previously unpublished insights into the artist s principal themes Bergner first exhibited with Arthur Boyd and Noel Counihan in Melbourne in 1939 and from then he developed an increasingly social realist approach to painting Today he is one of Israel s leading painters but he continues to visit and exhibit works in Australia

Jacqueline Hick Gloria Strzelecki,2013 Jackie was born wise and born unperturbed said Jeffrey Smart of his friend Jacqueline Hick Jacqueline Hick 1919 2004 was one of Australia s most successful figurative painters In a long and fruitful career she also explored print making and enamelling Her subjects included the Australian landscape musical and theatrical performances and city life Above all Hick was drawn to the human figure Whether observing the foibles of modern living or the displacement of Aboriginal people s traditional lifestyles her figurative works sought to expose human insensitivity Jacqueline Hick Born wise showcases many of Hick s finest works and traces a life that like her art was imbued with wit wisdom and empathy

Transformations in Australian Art: The twentieth century - Modernism and aboriginality Terence Edwin Smith,2002 Examines the crucial role played by vision and colonisation of Australia and in the formation of a national consciousness Artists transformed their depictions of land and its uses into landscape paintings which communicated the cultivation of the country as an unfolding of nature s own process John Perceval Traudi Allen,John

Perceval,1992-01-01 Attractively illustrated book which explores the life and career of this renowned Australian artist from the 1920s to the present Contains a catalogue raisonn list of principal exhibitions summary of biographical details and an extensive bibliography are included The hardback is a limited edition Stories of Australian Art ,1988 Clio's Lives

Doug Munro,John G. Reid,2017-10-09 Including contributions from leading scholars in the field from both Australia and North America this collection explores diverse approaches to writing the lives of historians and ways of assessing the importance of doing so Beginning with the writing of autobiographies by historians the volume then turns to biographical studies both of historians whose writings were in some sense nation defining and those who may be regarded as having had a major influence on defining the discipline of history The final section explores elements of collective biography linking these to the formation of historical networks A concluding essay by Barbara Caine offers a critical appraisal of the study of historians biographies and autobiographies to date and maps out likely new directions for future work Clio s Lives is a very good scholarly collection that advances the study of autobiography and biography within the writing of history itself taking theoretical questions in significant new directions The contributors are well known and highly respected in the history profession and write with an insight and intellectual energy that will ensure the book has considerable impact They examine cutting edge issues about the writing of history at the personal level through autobiography and biography in diverse and innovative ways Together the writers have provided reflective chapters that will be widely read for their impressive theoretical advances as well as being inspirational for new entrants to the disciplinary area Patricia Grimshaw University of Melbourne Clio's Lives brings together a most interesting and varied cast of contributors Its chapters contain sophisticated and well penned ruminations on the uses of biography and autobiography among historians These are clearly connected with the general themes of the volume This delightfully mixed bag makes very good reading and as well will serve as a substantial contribution to the study of the biography and autobiography Eric Richards Flinders University Dialogue Ian Burn,2000-11-01 Ian Burn has been one of Australia's most important artists since the mid 1960s He was involved in the development of the Conceptual Art movement and in the activities of the Art Language group working first in London and then New York between 1965 and 1977 His work is found in art museums and collections in the United States Europe and Australia Writing has always been central to his practice as an artist From the early 1970s much of his writing has evolved as a trenchant commentary on the institutions of art including art history His studies in Australian art present interpretations which both compete with orthodox accounts and critically engage the problems of art historical practise Often Burn's arguments are focused through analysis of particular works of art with the social and cultural dimensions of picture making revealed in an accessible and incisive way His writing on avant garde practices draws directly on his own experience and allows the reader to glimpse the conceptual dialogue between art and language Dialogue brings together essays written between 1968 and 1990 some of them previously unavailable in Australia These can be read as a partial but coherent account of the past 100 years of Australian art However reading in the order of their original production gives insight into the emerging politicisation of art during the 1970s a way of thinking which continues to be influential in Australian art and culture Illustrated and with an introduction by Geoffrey Batchen Dialogue offers readers a critical view of the history of Australian art and the concerns of recent art Black Words, White Page Adam Shoemaker,2004-03-01 This award winning study the first comprehensive treatment of the nature and significance of Indigenous Australian literature was based upon the author's doctoral research at the ANU The Fifth Biennale of Sydney Art Gallery of New South Wales,1984 Allen Davida Armando Art Atkinson Terry Beban Breda Beuys Joseph Bevan Tony Bezor Annette Boisrond Francois Booth Peter Ciecierski Tomasz Cragg Tony Davila Juan Dias Antonio Diaz Gonzalo Dittborn Eugenio Droese Felix Dumas Marlene Dwurnik Edward Germana Mimmo Gilbert etc Constructing the History of Australian Art Terry E.
