Aspects Of The Military Documents Of The Ancient Egyptians:

Aspects of the Military Documents of the Ancient Egyptians Anthony John Spalinger, 1982 This is the first comprehensive treatment of the composition and historiographic background of ancient Egyptian military inscriptions c 1550 B C to C 450 B C In his chronological study Anthony Spalinger analyzes numerous texts from a formalistic as well as a literary viewpoint His discovery that aspects of ancient Egyptian military writing were regulated by a preexisting framework and set phraseology will enable historians of ancient Egypt to discriminate between what was hyperbole and what was reality in a given military situation The opening chapters of this work cover the briefer and simpler of the Egyptian military texts A standard subgenre of this writing was the so called iw tw texts meaning One came in which the events of a war were couched in an official report by a messenger to the Pharaoh These short inscriptions became a stock part of Egyptian military writing in the early days of the Empire and were carried down to the end of Pharaonic civilization Spalinger next deals with the stock lexical items employed by the Egyptians when drawing up military compositions He then considers the official war diary of the scribes as well as the more literary war accounts In the final chapter Spalinger describes how the ancient Egyptians themselves classified their military texts Although recognizing that the different Pharaohs had stylistic preferences he relates the method of inscription chosen by the Egyptians to the importance of the military event or to the amount of detail preferred

Between Two Worlds László Török, 2009 The Egyptological literature usually belittles or ignores the political and intellectual initiative and success of the Nubian Twenty Fifth Dynasty in the reunification of Egypt while students of Nubian history frequently ignore or misunderstand the impact of Egyptian ideas on the cultural developments in pre and post Twenty Fifth Dynasty Nubia This book re assesses the textual and archaeological evidence concerning the interaction between Egypt and the polities emerging in Upper Nubia between the Late Neolithic period and 500 AD The investigation is carried out however from the special viewpoint of the political social economic religious and cultural history of the frontier region between Egypt and Nubia and not from the traditional viewpoint of the direct interaction between Egypt and the successive Nubian kingdoms of Kerma Napata and Meroe The result is a new picture of the bipolar acculturation processes occurring in the frontier region of Lower Nubia in particular and in the Upper Nubian centres in general The much debated issue of social and cultural Egyptianization is also re assessed

The Transformation of an Ancient Egyptian Narrative Anthony John Spalinger, 2002 This volume covers the alterations that were performed by Pentawaret the scribe of P Sallier III when he decided to copy the entire text of the Battle of Kadesh Temp Ramesses II The work covers his difficulties with syntax and morphology but also treats the literary aspects of the original composition The intellectual background to Pentawaret and his associates especially their political and literary milieu are covered A specialized chapter treats the palaeography of P Sallier III and additional ones provide the necessary background data concerning the style of the copy and its relationship to the original hieroglyphic version The final chapter provides a detailed analysis of Egyptian military compositions as literature and a new unpublished war account of Ramesses III in hieratic rounds out the work Encyclopedia of the Archaeology of Ancient Egypt Kathryn A. Bard,2005-11-03 This is the first reference work in English ever to present a systematic coverage of the archaeology of this region from the earliest finds of the Palaeolithic period through to the fourth century AD

Ancient Egyptian Literature Antonio Loprieno,2023-12-28 This volume deals with the development and the characteristics of the literature of Ancient Egypt over a period of more than two millennia from the monumental origins of autobiography at the end of the Old Kingdom ca 2150 BCE down to the latest literary compositions in Demotic during the Graeco Roman period 300 BCE 200 CE This book the result of an international co operation among more than twenty scholars is divided into sections devoted to the definition of literary discourse in Ancient Egypt the history and genres of these texts their linguistic and stylistic features and the image of Ancient Egypt as displayed in later literary traditions of the Mediterranean world Greek Coptic Arabic With over thirty chapters this volume provides an interdisciplinary account of current research in one of the methodologically most advanced fields of Egyptology The Iconography of Humiliation in New Kingdom Egypt Mark D. Janzen,2024-11-26 This volume analyzes the iconography of bound foreigners on New Kingdom monuments and artifacts to better understand Egyptian perspectives on foreigners and their treatment of prisoners of war Depictions of foreign captives in humiliating or torturous poses are ubiquitous in Egyptian iconography and reflect the celebratory nature of royal ideology in this case by degrading enemies Egyptologists have scrutinized these scenes for details regarding various military matters but existing scholarly literature offers few studies focused on enemy captives and the sheer physical brutality of the depictions of their bindings Janzen examines the bound foreigner motif in New Kingdom sources demonstrating that these prisoners of war played vital roles in Egyptian ideology and religion Their depictions in bizarre or torturous poses served to reinforce ideological underpinnings of pharaoh s right to rule perpetually ritualizing their defeat and or punishment through the presence of this iconography on ceremonial objects used primarily by the king and on temple walls and monuments The subjugation of foreigners also constituted an important economic function as incorporating prisoners of war into the Egyptian workforce was crucial for economic prosperity and growth in New Kingdom Egypt The volume also explores cross cultural and anthropological parallels placing Egyptian treatment of foreign prisoners in its ancient context The book provides a fascinating study of the subject suitable for scholars and students of Egyptology and ancient history particularly that of New Kingdom Egypt as well as those working on power warfare and violence in the ancient world more broadly War in Ancient Egypt Anthony J. Spalinger,2008-04-15 This book is an introduction to the war machine of New Kingdom Egypt from c 1575 bc 1100 bc Focuses on the period in which the Egyptians created a professional army and gained control of Syria creating an Empire of Asia Written by a respected Egyptologist Highlights new technological developments such as the use of chariots and siege technology Considers the socio political aspects of warfare particularly the rise to power of a new group of men Evaluates the military effectiveness of the Egyptian state looking at the logistics of warfare during this period Incorporates maps and photographs a chronological table and a chart of dynasties and pharaohs Reader's Guide to Military History Charles Messenger,2013-10-31 This book contains some 600 entries on a range of topics from ancient Chinese warfare to late 20th century intervention operations Designed for a wide variety of users it encompasses general reviews of aspects of military organization and science as well as specific wars and conflicts The book examines naval and air warfare as well as significant individuals including commanders theorists and war leaders Each entry includes a listing of additional publications on the topic accompanied by an article discussing these publications with reference to their particular emphases strengths and limitations The Oxford Handbook of Egyptian Epigraphy and Palaeography Vanessa Davies,Dimitri Laboury,2020 This Handbook discusses current theories with regard to the cultural setting and material realities in which Egyptian epigraphy was produced familiarize the reader with epigraphic and palaeographic techniques and practices and outline and review traditional and emerging techniques and challenges as a guide for future research The Expression of Emotions in Ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia Shih-Wei Hsu,Jaume Llop Raduà,2020-11-04 The volume The Expression of Emotions in Ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia offers an overview of the study of emotions in ancient texts discusses the concept of emotions in Ancient Egypt and Mesopotamia and shows how emotions are described in the ancient texts In the section dedicated to Ancient Egypt scholars discuss emotions such as fear depression anger feelings of pain envy jealousy and greed with evidence from different text genres as well as emotions from the Late Ramesside Letters and royal inscriptions In the section dedicated to Ancient Mesopotamia scholars present a wide range of perspectives on Sumerian and Akkadian literary and archival texts that treat emotions in different periods The Architecture of Imperialism Ellen Morris,2021-11-29 This volume traces the evolution of New Kingdom foreign policy in Syria Palestine Nubia and Libya through an analysis of the distribution of Egyptian military bases over time and across borders Archaeological and textual evidence pertaining to fortress towns forts border checkpoints and military headquarters is analyzed in order to illuminate the ever shifting strategies employed by the Egyptian government to rule its subject territories Exhaustive in its scope and illustrated throughout with numerous maps and architectural plans this book should interest Egyptologists Near Eastern archaeologists and historians as well as anthropologists engaged in the comparative study of early empires and military tactics Egyptianization and Elite Emulation in Ramesside Palestine Carolyn R. Higginbotham,2000 This study of Ramesside Palestine challenges our understanding of the Egyptian Empire suggesting that the Egyptianization of levantine material culture represents adoption of Egyptian culture by the local ruling class rather than a massive influx of pharaonic officials Routledge Handbook of the Global History of Warfare Kaushik Roy,Michael W. Charney,2024-01-23 This handbook examines key aspects of the development of the global history of warfare and the changing patterns of warfare over time Although scholarship has long eschewed a chronological narrative of the evolution of warfare that privileges the Western experience global histories of warfare have had difficulty avoiding an overemphasis on the West The present volume is a collection of themes rather than a history per se it provides important perspectives on the emergence of warfare as a global historical experience from the ancient past to the present day Drawing together numerous experts it tells a broader more inclusive story of the global human experience with wars and warfare The 35 chapters are organised in eight thematic parts Part I Origins of Warfare Part II Politics and Armed Forces in the Pre Modern Era Part III Steppe Nomads of Eurasia Part IV Naval Warfare and Piracy in the Pre Industrial World Part V The Impact of Gunpowder Part VI Transition from Industrial to Total War Part VII Wars of Decolonisation and Cold War Part VIII Postmodern New Wars These Parts offer an overview of the global experience of warfare to help readers understand how the wars and the militaries we see today have been shaped by historical developments across the globe This handbook will be of great interest to students of military history naval history strategic studies and world history in general
