Stahl, 2015-01-09 In recent years there has been growing concern over the pervasive disparities in academic achievement that are highly influenced by ethnicity class and gender Specifically within the neoliberal policy rhetoric there has been concern over underachievement of working class young males specifically white working class boys The historic persistence of this pattern and the ominous implication of these trends on the long term life chances of white working class boys has led to a growing chorus that something must be done to intervene This book provides an in depth sociological study exploring the subjectivities within the neoliberal ideology of the school environment in order to expand our understanding of white working class disengagement with education The chapters discuss how white working class boys in three educational sites enact social and learner identities focusing on the practices of meaning making and identity work that the boys experienced and the disjunctures and commonalities between them The book presents an analysis of the varying tensions influencing the identity of each boy and the consequences of these pressures on their engagement with education Drawing on Bourdieu's theoretical tools and a model of egalitarian habitus Identity Neoliberalism and Aspiration Educating white working class boys will be of interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the field of sociology of education and those from related disciplines studying class and gender Worker Alienation, 1972 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare. Subcommittee on Employment, Manpower, and Poverty, 1972 Research in the Schizophrenic Disorders R. Cancro, S.R. Dean, 2012-12-06 In the autumn of 1957 Stanley R Dean proposed the creation of a foundation on schizophrenia to a group of friends The purpose was to bring the illness of schizophrenia before the public's attention and out of the shameful anonymity in which it was buried Stanley Dean recognized the major public health importance of this illness and was determined to have an impact on it during his lifetime By December of that year the decision was made to create an organization called Research in Schizophrenia Endowment RISE Within less than two months articles of incorporation for RISE were issued by the State of Connecticut By the latter part of March 1958 Dean was successful in getting Congress to provide 1 300 000 for research into schizophrenia This was the first time that Congress had targeted funds specifically for research on this disorder Within a year by April 1959 Dr Dean was instrumental in getting Congress to increase its appropriation to the NIMH by more than 8 000 000 with the specific instruction that approximately one half of the total research funds of the NIMH be used for projects relating to schizophrenia In the spring of 1960 RISE relinquished its corporate charter and became an integral part of the Research Foundation of the National Association for Mental Health This merger occurred before RISE had implemented its planned annual award program for outstanding research in schizophrenia Several members of the Board of Directors of RISE under the leadership of Dr James G Psychological Foundations of Educational Technology William Clark Trow,Eugene E. Michalos,2006-01-28 Social Indicators Research An International and Interdisciplinary Journal for Quality of Life Measurement was founded by Alex C Michalos and published its first issue in March 1974 It has been the leading journal for scholarly research in its field for over thirty years This volume is published in celebration of that record of accomplishment The 19 articles assembled here are a selection drawn from the 34 2 4% most frequently cited articles in the journal s history An introductory essay written by Michalos explains the historical and scientific importance of each article in the development of social indicators or quality of life research It provides a rare overview of the perceived scientific problems that researchers around the world addressed in the first three decades of exploration as well as a view of some of the problems to be addressed in the future A short essay describing the origins of the journal by its founder is also included Anyone interested in having a single volume that contains some of the best research produced in this field will find this volume irresistible The International Journal of Indian Psychology, Volume 3, Issue 4, No. 66 IJIP.In,2016-09-21 Mental Health and The Built Environment David Halpern,2014-06-03 This text explores the relationship between the planned or built environment and the occurrence of mental ill health It begins by providing a broad overview of what is known about the causes of psychopathic behaviour It then goes on to discuss the issues that arise when attempting to identify the impact of the environment as a source of stress the effects that the environment can have on the quality of relationships between people and the relationship between symbolic aspects of the environment the planning process and mental health The book uses analysis and case studies drawn from the UK and US and contains example illustrations of the built environment Cancer, AIDS, and Quality of Life Jay A. Levy,Claude Jasmin,Gabriel Bez,2013-06-29 This volume contains selected contributions from individuals who attended the Second International Conference of the International Council for Global Health Progress ICGHP held at UNESCO in Paris France on January 15-17, 1996. This conference brought together experts in many disciplines that deal with the devastating diseases of cancer and AIDS with a focus on the concerns for quality of life. The ICGHP fosters multicultural and multidisciplinary approaches to global health problems to help influence governments and other international health organizations to emphasize prevention and care of diseases and to understand their scientific, social, and cultural features. The Council encourages the interchange of information on health problems and policy and supports educational funding for the public at large. Its objective is to effect disease-free lives in the world community. Participants of the conference included scientists, sociologists, government leaders, physicians, health care providers, epidemiologists, religious leaders, company officials, ethicists, and philosophers. They examined and discussed the many variables involved in quality of life for people affected with cancer and with AIDS. The volume's text begins with introductory comments by officials attending the ICGHP conference. Subsequently, a chapter is dedicated to one aspect of quality of life: be it definition, scientific research, evolution, cultural changes, ethics, measurements, or other issues dealing with health care and treatment survival. The second part of the volume includes commentaries dealing with five aspects of quality of life which merit consideration.
