Assassination A Special Kind Of Murder:

Assassination Willard A. Heaps, 1969 Describes some of history's most famous assassinations including those of Jean Paul Marat, Nicholas II, Mahatma Gandhi and Trujillo and discusses the characteristics and philosophy of this special kind of murder. Political Assassinations by Jews Nachman Ben-Yehuda, 2012-02-01 Ben Yehuda presents an in depth inquiry into the nature and patterns of political assassinations and executions by Jews in Palestine and Israel. Extensive empirical evidence is used to analyze the social construction of violent and aggressive human behavior using a sociology of deviance perspective. Political assassinations and executions are placed within their particular cultural matrix to describe how this specific form of killing has been conceptualized as part of an alternative system of justice. The taking of a human life is generally regarded as the ultimate evil. Given this fact it is important to examine and understand how it is explained, justified and cloaked in a vocabulary of motives. Such acts are in the author's words socially constructed and interpreted dependent on the observer's location in a specific symbolic moral universe. Moreover such acts political assassination specifically are manifestations of struggles that represent attempts to legitimate these world views rhetorical devices that serve to define boundary markers between such universes moral crusades that attempt to validate one view vis a vis another. This general approach to political assassinations is original. Its application to assassinations by Israelis is original. The fact that the book is empirical marks it off from many speculations on the subject. A number of the author's findings make a distinct contribution.
