Roberts,David P. Cole,1999-01-01 On 3 September 1996 Bill C 41 was proclaimed in force initiating one significant step in the reform of sentencing and parole in Canada This is the first book that in addition to providing an overview of the law effectively presents a sociological analysis of the legal reforms and their ramifications in this controversial area The commissioned essays in this collection cover such crucial issues as options and alternatives in sentencing patterns revealed by recent statistics sentencing of minority groups Bill C 41 and its effects conditional sentencing and the structure and relationship between parole and sentencing are clearly presented. An introduction, editorial comments beginning each chapter and a concluding chapter draw the essays together, resulting in a timely, comprehensive and extremely readable work on this critical topic. Broad in scope and perspective, this major new socio-legal study of the law of sentencing will be illuminating to students, members of the legal profession and the general reader.

Law Times, 1851. Power and Resistance Wayne Antony, Jessica Antony, Les Samuelson, 2020-05-06T00:00:00Z. How do we make sense of the social problems that continue to plague Canadian society? Our understanding of issues such as poverty, racism, violence, homophobia, crime and pollution stems from our view of how society is structured. From the dominant neoliberal perspective, social problems arise from individuals making poor choices. From a critical perspective, however, these social troubles are caused by structural social inequalities. Disparities in economic, social and political power that are relations of power based on class, race, gender and sexual orientation are the central structural element of capitalist, patriarchal, colonialist societies. The contributors to Power and Resistance use this critical perspective to explore Canadian social issues such as poverty, colonialism, homophobia, violence against women, climate change and so on. This sixth edition adds chapters on the corporatization of higher education, the lethal impacts of colonialism, democracy, the social determinants of health, drug policy and sexual violence on campus.
