Assignment In The Philippines:

Philippines Business ,1996 An encyclopedic view of doing business with the Philippines Contains the how to where to and who with information needed to operate internationally Aircraft Repossession and Enforcement Berend J. H. Crans,Ravi Nath,2010-01-01 Designed as a detailed practical guide to the management of aircraft during default periods and their repossession this very useful book is also of great value as a preventive guide in the drafting of aircraft lease and financing contracts Local aviation law experts from 32 jurisdictions worldwide provide in depth responses country by country to an extremely detailed questionnaire that includes eighty real life questions Fees time periods costs of all kinds remedies immunities required documentation recognition of foreign judgments interim measures all these and many other crucial considerations are fully explained for each jurisdiction Book Jacket In the Shadows of the Christian See Kalman Dubov,2021-12-21 During my 28 years of service as a military chaplain in the United States Armed Forces I wore the uniforms of the US Navy US Marine Corps and US Air Force I had tours of duty in the United States and overseas The senior chaplains with whom I worked and to whom I was responsible for each day s work were of senior rank and men I briefly served under a woman while deployed in the Middle East who were all Christian mostly of the Protestant faith I describe my time with them and the atmosphere they created both for the chapel and chapel staff community as for the entire base Uniformly I found them intolerant of other religions refusing to accede to my place at the table of authority and decision One individual was an anti Semite a man who took every opportunity to undermine my place at the base we were at Naval Station Subic Bay Philippines The hours following the weekly staff meeting were when he expressed his outrage at the existence of the State of Israel while promoting the rights of the Palestinians He belittled every aspect of my work at this base His vilifying statements expressed in shouting outbursts at the highest pitch of screech and rage were done without any interest in any form of civility or decency Once unleashed he poured forth his fecal filth resulting in his expressing his determination For me not being able to stay in the Navy and to never be promoted to a higher rank But this anti Semite s intentions and actions were thwarted by an extraordinary event that countered the immediacy of negativity The long term effects of that man s actions resulted in a festering poison that was never eradicated throughout the time I was in the military I also describe other seniors with their foibles and careerism their overall limitations and crass behaviors In two instances I joined a group of African Americans at two Air Force bases who were intent on gathering sufficient racist information for a legal challenge with the ACLU I was honored to sit with them considering ways to oust the racists who sat in the leadership position I retired as a Major and did so honorably I regret working with these miserable miscreants who expressed virtue and grace but whose hearts were filled with limitation dishonor and evil In the final analysis I regret having served alongside these people They did not deserve my presence and they certainly did not earn my esteem or respect I am often thanked for my years of military service immediately seeing a nod of respect at the sacrifices made during these nearly three decades of time These two volumes detailing names places and settings describe the details and how I coped with persons who represented an unwelcome face one of barest tolerance at the necessity of my presence and by extension the presence of the small Jewish community at that military base I encountered harsh Christian fundamentalism promoted by these Christian chaplains and extended by them to their counterparts in the military base community Facing such negative attitudes in each base I realized the severe limitations of my presence And by the time of my retirement I was literally counting the days when I would never again meet with these people These are unpleasant vignettes but they are true insofar as my recollection of them And one of the purposes of these volumes is to remove the veneer of na vet about this world and its people In the end I am ambiguous about that commitment partly proud I persevered but also ashamed at the cost such commitment demanded I leave it to the reader to determine if the sacrifice was worthwhile Link ,1983 Title List of Documents Made

Partnership Edward Farley Aldrich,2022-04-15 On September 1 1939 the day World War II broke out in Europe Gen George Marshall was sworn in as chief of staff of the U S Army Ten months later Roosevelt appointed Henry Stimson secretary of war For the next five years from adjoining offices in the Pentagon Marshall and Stimson headed the army machine that ground down the Axis Theirs was one of the most consequential collaborations of the twentieth century A dual biography of these two remarkable Americans The Partnership tells the story of how they worked together to win World War II and reshape not only the United States but the world The general and the secretary traveled very different paths to power Educated at Yale where he was Skull and Bones and at Harvard Law Henry Stimson joined the Wall Street law firm of Elihu Root future secretary of war and state himself and married the descendant of a Founding Father He went on to serve as secretary of war under Taft governor general of the Philippines and secretary of state under Hoover An internationalist Republican with a track record Stimson ticked the boxes for FDR who was in the middle of a reelection campaign at the time Thirteen years younger George Marshall graduated in the middle of his class from the Virginia Military Institute not West Point then began the standard and very slow climb up the army ranks During World War I he performed brilliant staff work for General Pershing After a string of postings Marshall ended up in Washington in the 1930s and impressed FDR with his honesty securing his appointment as chief of staff Marshall and Stimson were two very different men who combined with a dazzling synergy to lead the American military effort in World War II in roles that blended politics diplomacy and bureaucracy in addition to warfighting They transformed an outdated poorly equipped army into a modern fighting force of millions of men capable of fighting around the globe They and Marshall in particular identified the soldiers from Patton and Eisenhower to Bradley and McNair best suited for high command They helped develop worldwide strategy and logistics for battles like D Day and the Bulge They collaborated with Allies like Winston Churchill They worked well with their cagey commander in chief They planned for the postwar world They made decisions from the atomic bombs to the division of Europe that would echo for decades There were mistakes and disagreements but the partnership of Marshall and Stimson was all in all a bravura performance a master class in leadership and teamwork In the tradition of group biographies like the
