Black Ethnicity:

Black Ethnics Christina M. Greer, 2013-06-27 The steady immigration of black populations from Africa and the Caribbean over the past few decades has fundamentally changed the racial ethnic and political landscape in the United States But how will these new blacks behave politically in America Using an original survey of New York City workers and multiple national data sources Christina M Greer explores the political significance of ethnicity for new immigrant and native born blacks In an age where racial and ethnic identities intersect intertwine and interact in increasingly complex ways Black Ethnics offers a powerful and rigorous analysis of black politics and coalitions in the post Civil Rights era     Ethnicity and Causal Mechanisms Marta Tienda, 2005-08-08 Research clearly indicates that ethnic groups differ significantly on levels of mental and physical health antisocial behavior and educational attainment This book explains these variations among ethnic groups with respect to their psychological and social functioning and tests competing hypotheses about the mechanisms that might cause the functioning to be better worse or different in pattern from other groups Attention is paid to educational attainments antisocial behavior schizophrenia and suicide and to the complex and changing patterns of ethnic identity The book also focuses on evidence on risk and protective factors that is used systematically to ask whether such factors might account for the differences in both migration histories and ethnic mixture It concludes with a discussion of the multiple meanings of ethnicity the major variations among ethnic groups and the policy implications of the findings discussed in the book     Race, Ethnicity, and Place in a Changing America John W. Frazier, Eugene Tetley-Fio, 2006     Ethnicity Nathan Glazer, Daniel Patrick Moynihan, Corinne Saposs Schelling, 1975 Deals with ethnicity in modern Society     Empower the People Theodore Walker, 2001-05 Here is a study in theological social ethics for North American black churches It aims to present a conception of liberty freedom and a liberating social ethic both relentlessly informed by a black churchly understanding of ourselves in relation to God There are two main questions How should we conceive of liberty freedom and What should contemporary black churches do in order to contribute to the continuing struggle for liberty Answers derive from consulting black church history black theology and the philosophy of black power Also the descriptions predictions and public policy prescriptions of liberal and black sociologies are evaluated from a black churchly perspective Rightly conceived liberty freedom includes comprehensive social economic political empowerment and righteous relations to God and others Accordingly we church folk should empower the people through an ethic of breaking bread The religious and social stakes are high Where bread is not broken Jesus is not recognized God is not served and the people are not free     The Language, Ethnicity and Race Reader Roxy Harris, Ben Rampton, 2003 This Reader collects in one volume the key readings on language ethnicity and race Using linguistic and cultural analysis it explores changing ideas of race and the ways in which these ideas shape human communication     The Myth of Black Ethnicity Richard A. Davis, 1997-06-12 In the late 1800s W E B Dubois asked what it really means to be black in America He raised the spectre of divided loyalties and the blurring of individuality that he called Double Consciousness This volume offers an insight into this dilemma of identity by asking the seemingly rhetorical question what does O J Simpson have in common with the participants in the Million Man March the jury that set him free the people who inexplicably cheered his acquittal the prosecuting attorney the black Muslim Louis Farrakhan or with his own children Each case involves cross cutting currents of age sex religion race ethnicity class and ideology But what they share among themselves and with the rest of the nation is the firm conviction that they are black

Black Art in Brazil Kimberly L. Cleveland, 2013-07-09 Kimberly Cleveland highlights the work of five Brazilian artists from all over the country who work in a wide range of media including photography sculpture and installation art She shows how each conveys blackness through his or her unique visual vocabulary and points out the ways this reflects their lived experiences

Caribbean Ethnicity Revisited Stephen D. Glazier, 1985 First Published in 1985 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Race, Ethnicity, and Place in a Changing America, Third Edition John W. Frazier, Eugene L. Tettey-Fio, Norah F. Henry, 2016-12-29 Uses both historical and contemporary case studies to examine how race and ethnicity affect the places we live work and visit This book examines major Hispanic African and Asian diasporas in the continental United States and Puerto Rico from the nineteenth century to the present with particular attention on the diverse ways in which these immigrant groups have shaped and reshaped American places and landscapes Through both historical and contemporary case studies the contributors examine how race and ethnicity affect the places we live work and visit illustrating along the way the behaviors and concepts that comprise the modern ethnic and racial geography of immigrant and minority groups While primarily addressed to students and scholars in the fields of racial and ethnic geography these case studies will be accessible to anyone interested in race place connections race ethnicity boundaries the development of racialization and the complexity of human settlement patterns and landscapes that make up the United States and Puerto Rico Taken together they show how individuals and culture groups through their ideologies social organization and social institutions reflect both local and regional processes of place making and place remaking that occur within and beyond the continental United States

John F. Kennedy, Barack Obama, and the Politics of Ethnic Incorporation and Avoidance Robert C. Smith, 2013-02-19 Political analysts and journalists often draw analogies between John F Kennedy the first Catholic Irish president and Barack Obama the first African American president Their election to the nation s highest office was historic but for reasons not fully appreciated In John F Kennedy Barack Obama and the Politics of Ethnic Incorporation and Avoidance Robert C Smith provides a fascinating comparison of the challenges both men faced in their bid for the presidency while at the same time providing comparative histories of the Catholic Irish and African American struggles to overcome racial and religious subordination in America Kennedy s Catholicism was an explicit issue in the 1960 election and once elected he was extremely careful to avoid appearing either too Irish or too Catholic While Obama s race was not an explicit issue in the 2008 election he was just as careful to avoid appearing too black Paradoxically religion thanks to rumors and lies about whether Obama was a Muslim became a substitute for race allowing Republican strategists to otherize Obama by raising the issue of religion in the context of national security and terrorism The Identity Question: Blacks and Jews in Europe and America Philipson, Robert,2000 Ethnography in Today's World Roger

Sanjek,2013-11-14 In Ethnography in Today's World Roger Sanjek examines the genre and practice of ethnography from a historical perspective from its nineteenth century beginnings and early twentieth century consolidation through political reorientations during the 1960s and the impact of feminism and postmodernism in later decades to its current outlook in an increasingly urban world Drawing on a career of ethnographic research across Brazil Ghana New York City and with the Gray Panthers Sanjek probes politics and rituals in multiethnic New York the dynamics of activist meetings human migration through the ages and shifting conceptions of race in the United States He interrogates well known works from Boas Whyte Fabian Geertz Marcus and Clifford as well as less celebrated researchers addressing methodological concerns from ethnographers reliance on assistants in the formative days of the discipline to contemporary comparative issues and fieldwork and writing strategies Ethnography in Today's World contributes to our understanding of culture and society in an age of globalization These provocative examinations of the value of ethnographic research challenge conventional views as to how ethnographic fieldwork is and can be conceived conducted contextualized and communicated to academic audiences and the twenty first century public Change in Contemporary South Africa Leonard Thompson,Jeffrey Butler,2023-11-15

Change in Contemporary South Africa examines the intricate and often contradictory realities of South Africa during a period of significant political and social tension The book explores the coexistence of apparent governmental stability marked by economic growth a strong coercive apparatus and sustained White political dominance with increasing signs of resistance including labor strikes student unrest and growing international condemnation By presenting a range of interpretations from authoritarian entrenchment to the potential for revolutionary change it delves into the complex dynamics that shape South Africa's trajectory Structured across sections that analyze internal community dynamics instruments of White domination and the country's external relations the book scrutinizes the processes of change within South Africa's unique socio political framework With contributions from scholars spanning diverse disciplines and perspectives it raises critical questions about the future of racial inequality the potential for redistribution of power and wealth and the role of internal and external pressures in shaping outcomes This comprehensive yet nuanced analysis offers a valuable lens for understanding a society on the brink of transformation with implications that resonate far beyond its borders This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1975

Reducing Burglary Andromachi Tseloni,Rebecca Thompson,Nick Tilley,2018-12-11 Domestic burglary has fallen significantly over the past 20 years in many countries but still remains a high volume crime On top of substantial financial loss and property damage burglary also leads to high levels of anxiety and fear of crime The research presented in this book represents the first systematic study of what actually works in security interventions against burglary with cross sectional data on different regions and socio economic population groups This work provides an overview of the scope of the problem and what can be done about it drawing on extensive research evidence from projects funded by the Economic and Social Research Council ESRC Secondary Data Analysis Initiative SDAI and other sources It reports detailed findings about which interventions are most effective for different population groups and how these measures can be implemented It includes burglary prevention advice for homeowners law enforcement and other public agencies and makes recommendations for future research In addition to being relevant to concerned citizens police policy makers and crime prevention practitioners this book will also be of interest to researchers in criminology and criminal justice particularly those working on security and crime prevention as well as urban planning and public policy

Perspectives on the Caribbean Philip W.

Scher,2009-09-15 perspectives on The Caribbean perspectives on The Caribbean Genuflecting to no tired metaphors this is a refreshing collection of cross disciplinary voices that compel new ways of seeing and thinking about the still undiscovered Caribbean Patricia Mohammed University of the west Indies St Augustine Presenting a broad understanding of the complex region of the Caribbean Perspectives on the Caribbean A Reader in Culture History and Representation provides a variety of viewpoints on the rich spectrum of Caribbean culture Essays carefully chosen from a vast body of existing literature expose readers to a variety of approaches voices and topics that have emerged in Caribbean studies Readings are interdisciplinary in nature and integrate themes from history folklore sociology anthropology and political economy Both contemporary viewpoints and classic readings reveal how the Caribbean has led scholars to new ways of exploring cultural hybridity in contemporary society Each section includes brief introductions to put the readings in context with the connections between modern Caribbean culture and its historical roots and also includes suggested readings for more in depth study Perspectives on the Caribbean offers revealing insights into one of the most diverse and complex regions in the Americas

Koreans in the Hood Kwang Chung Kim,1999-07-06 Conflict between Korean Americans and African Americans attracted national attention in the aftermath of the 1992 Rodney King trial in Los Angeles The news media seized upon the violent riots and depicted Korean shop owners as gun wielding exploiters of the African American poor Absent from the barrage of media coverage was the Korean American point of view and experience of the inner city economy and racial relations This new volume of essays written largely by Korean American scholars adds substantially to our understanding of interracial multiethnic conflict by examining relations between the Korean American and African American communities in three major American cities Los Angeles Chicago and New York Edited by sociologist Kwang Chung Kim the book brings together similar yet contrasting studies of Korean American and African American conflict Korean Americans find themselves economically powerful but weak politically African Americans however wield considerable political clout even though they may have little economic power Koreans in the Hood offers the Korean American perspective on coexisting with African Americans in some of the poorest areas of American cities Each chapter focuses on a particular city and experience offering a unique opportunity for inter city comparison as the contributors explore three overt forms of Korean American and African American confrontation interpersonal dispute boycott and mass violence The first part of the book examines Korean American experience of the conflict in Los Angeles It then details the social political and economic tensions arising from the African American boycott of Korean fruit and vegetable merchants in New York The final chapters concern the Korean American experience of conflict in Chicago Throughout the authors rely on empirical data and seek to trace the roots of conflict the consequences and future directions of relations between the two groups What emerges is an unique account of Korean Americans caught between the poor African American population and the larger more affluent white population The Gay '90s Thomas C. Foster, Carol Siegel, Ellen E. Berry, 1997-07 This book examines the process of disciplinary formation as it affects lesbian and gay studies in the academy contrasting older academic disciplines with newer identity based areas of study It also demonstrates the extent to which contemporary queer studies involves practices of interdisciplinary reading and analysis Philosophy and Pluralism David Archard, 1996-04-26 Introduction DAVID ARCHARD Globalisation and the Third World Ray Kiely, Phil Marfleet, 2004-08-02 This book examines the changing position of the Developing World within the world system It focuses on particular issues which cut across communities nations regions and in consequence the world These include migration health and disease the media transnational corporations religion and political and economic institutions The contributors draw on a wealth of illustrations and global examples to examine topics such as HIV AIDS transmission the mediatized Gulf War consumption patterns the Third World in the First Orientalism and Islam environmental and urban movements liberation theology in Latin America and the impact of the media This book provides a critical introduction to the Third World around the unifying theme of globalisation
