Black Experience In The U S A And The Caribbean:

Ethnicity and Causal Mechanisms Marta Tienda, 2005-08-08 Research clearly indicates that ethnic groups differ significantly on levels of mental and physical health antisocial behavior and educational attainment This book explains these variations among ethnic groups with respect to their psychological and social functioning and tests competing hypotheses about the mechanisms that might cause the functioning to be better worse or different in pattern from other groups Attention is paid to educational attainments antisocial behavior schizophrenia and suicide and to the complex and changing patterns of ethnic identity The book also focuses on evidence on risk and protective factors that is used systematically to ask whether such factors might account for the differences in both migration histories and ethnic mixture It concludes with a discussion of the multiple meanings of ethnicity the major variations among ethnic groups and the policy implications of the findings discussed in the book

The African Diaspora and the Black Experience in New World Slavery Okon Edet Uya, 1992

The Rise and Demise of Black Theology Alistair Kee, 2008-04-30 Black Theology emerged in the 1960s as a response to black consciousness In South Africa it is a critique of power in the UK it is a political theology of black culture The dominant form of Black Theology has been in the USA originally influenced by Black Power and the critique of white racism Since then it claims to have broadened its perspective to include oppression on the grounds of race gender and class In this book Alistair Kee contests this claim arguing that Black and Womanist Theologies present inadequate analysis of race and gender and no account at all of class or economic oppression With a few notable exceptions Black Theology in the USA repeats the mantras of the 1970s the discourse of modernity Content with American capitalism it fails to address the source of the impoverishment of black Americans at home Content with a romantic image of Africa this African American movement fails to defend contemporary Africa against predatory American global ambitions Blacks in the West Kee claims here are no longer the victims they are the voters and consumers who should be able to influence western governments the American government in particular into changing policies towards Africa in particular and the third world in general This book does not argue that Black theologians should give up but that they should move on for the sake of the black poor in America the black poor in Africa and the third world The failure of Black theologians to do so is a cause for concern beyond the circle of practitioners of Black theology

Radicalism and Social Change in Jamaica, 1960-1972 Obika Gray, 1991 In August 1962 the island nation of Jamaica achieved independence from Great Britain In this provocative social and political history of the first decade of independence Obika Gray explores the impact of radical social movements on political change in Jamaica during a turbulent formative era Led by a minority elite and a middle class of mixed racial origins two parties each with its associated workers union emerged to dominate the postcolonial political scene Gray argues that party leaders representing the dominant social class felt vulnerable to attack and resorted to dictatorial measures to consolidate their power These measures domestic social crises and the worldwide rise of Black Power and other Third World ideologies provoked persistent challenges to the established parties political and moral authority With students radical intellectuals and the militant urban poor in the vanguard the protest movement took many forms Rastafarian religious symbolism rebel youth s cultural innovations efforts to organize independent labor unions and the intelligentsia s varied attempts to use mass media to reach broader audiences all influenced the course of political events in this period Grounding his tale in relevant theory Gray persuasively contends that despite its narrow social and geographical base of support this urban protest movement succeeded in moving the major parties toward broader and more progressive agendas

Life Under the Baobab Tree

Kenneth N. Ngwa, Aliou Cissé Niang, Arthur Pressley, 2023-09-05 Life Under the Baobab Tree Africana Studies and Religion in a Transitional Age is a compendium of innovating essays meticulously written by early and later diaspora people of African descent Their speech arises from the depth of their experiences under the Baobab tree and offers to the world voices of resilience newness resurrection hope and life Resolutely journeying on the trails of their ancestors they speak about setbacks and forward looking movements of liberation social transformation and community formation The volume is a carefully woven conversation of intellectual substance and structure across time space and spirituality that is quintessentially Africana in its centering of methodological theoretical epistemological and hermeneutical complexity that assumes nonlinear and dialogical approaches to developing liberating epistemologies in the face of imperialism colonialism racism and religious intolerance A critical part of this conversation is a reconceptualization and reconfiguration of the concept of religion in its colonial and imperial forms Life Under the Baobab Tree examines how Africana peoples understand their corporate experiences of the divine not as religion apart from its intimate connections to social realities of communal health economics culture politics environment violence war and dynamic community belonging To that end Afro Pessimistic formulations of life placed in dialogic relation Afro Optimism Both realities constitute life under the Baobab tree and represent the sturdiness and variation that anchors the deep ruptures that have affected Africana life and the creative responses The metaphor and substance of the tree resists reductionist essentialist and assured conclusions about the nature of diasporic lived experiences both within the continent of Africa and in the African Diaspora

Zumoff, 2023-07-04 Transnational Communism across the Americas offers an innovative approach to the study of Latin American communism It convincingly illustrates that communist parties were both deeply rooted in their own local realities and maintained significant relationships with other communists across the region and around the world The essays in this collection use a transnational lens to examine the relationships of the region s communist parties with each other their international counterparts and non communist groups dedicated to anti imperialism women s rights and other causes Topics include the shifting relationship between Mexican communists and the Comintern Black migrant workers in the Caribbean race relations in Cuba Latin American communists in the USSR Lu s Carlos Prestes in Brazil the U S and Puerto Rican communist and Nationalist parties peace activist networks in Latin America communist women in Guatemala transnational student groups and guerrillas in El Salvador Contributors Marc Becker Jacob Blanc Tanya

Harmer Patricia Harms Lazar Jeifets Victor Jeifets Adriana Petra Margaret M Power Frances Peace Sullivan Tony Wood Kevin A Young and Jacob Zumoff Liberation, Imagination and the Black Panther Party Kathleen Cleaver, George Katsiaficas, 2014-04-08 This fascinating book gathers reflections by scholars and activists who consider the impact of the Black Panther Party the BBP the most significant revolutionary organization in the later 20th century Diversity in Human Interactions John D. Robinson, Larry C. James, 2003-08-14 When people who interact do not share the same abilities orientations or beliefs the results are often disastrous leaving everyone involved feeling misunderstood underappreciated and resentful Why does this happen How can we find and focus on the strengths in our differences rather than the weaknesses How can we accept that our differences bring with them different ways of looking at a problem and that these different ways of looking at things lead to unique and sometimes conflicting solutions to problems In this volume editors John D Robinson and Larry C James have assembled renowned leaders scholars and educators in order to show how these differences can facilitate not hinder our progress They provide thought provoking and insightful essays about how having different physical abilities sexual orientations races and religions affects how people interact Each chapter is written by a member of a different group and presents real life stories about interactions within that group The universality of these stories allows the reader to empathize with diverse points of view generating material for group discussion and debate The book s aim is to enrich interactions among different types of people by exploring how our differences can shape our perceptions of events in particular and life in general by focusing on the strengths in our diversity rather than the conflicts brought about by it

Palmer, 2006 Contains primary source material African American Settlements in West Africa A. Beyan, 2005-09-16 John Brown Russwurm and African American Settlement in West Africa examines Russwurm s intellectual accomplishments and significant contributions to the black civil rights movement in America from 1826 1829 and more significantly explores the essential characteristics that distinguished his thoughts and endeavours from other black leaders in America Liberia and Maryland in Liberia Not surprisingly the most controversial of Russwurm s ideas was his unwavering support of the American Colonization Society ACS and the Maryland State Colonization Society MSCS two organizations that most civil rights activists found racist and pro slavery Beyan probes the social and intellectual sources underlying motives and the legacies of Russwurm s thoughts and endeavours all in an attempt to dissect why Russwurm acted and made the choices that he did Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900-2003 Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, 2004-02-12 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature 1900 2003 draws together entries on all aspects of literature including authors critics major works magazines genres schools and movements in these regions from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day With more than 200 entries written by a team of international contributors this Encyclopedia successfully covers the popular to the esoteric The Encyclopedia is an invaluable reference resource for those studying Latin American and or Caribbean literature as well as being of huge interest to those folowing Spanish or Portuguese language courses Black Political Activism and the Cuban Republic Melina Pappademos, 2011-09-19 While it was not until 1871 that slavery in Cuba was finally abolished African descended people had high hopes for legal social and economic advancement as the republican period started In Black Political Activism and the Cuban Republic Melina Pappademos analyzes the racial politics and culture of black civic and political activists during the Cuban Republic The path to equality Pappademos reveals was often stymied by successive political and economic crises patronage politics and profound racial tensions In the face of these issues black political leaders and members of black social clubs developed strategies for expanding their political authority and for winning respectability and socioeconomic resources Rather than appeal to a monolithic black Cuban identity based on the assumption of shared experience these black activists politicians and public intellectuals consistently recognized the class cultural and ideological differences that existed within the black community thus challenging conventional wisdom about black community formation and anachronistic ideas of racial solidarity Pappademos illuminates the central yet often silenced intellectual and cultural role of black Cubans in the formation of the nation s political structures in doing so she shows that black activism was only partially motivated by race
