Black Eye Escaping A Marriage Writing:

On Retirement Robin Chapman, Judith Strasser, 2007-04 In the decade ahead more than 80 million Americans will reach the age of retirement and face what Robin Chapman and Judith Strasser call the unnerving question What next Indeed according to the Social Security Administration the number of Americans sixty five or older will nearly double between 2000 and 2030 As more people approach retirement they too will wonder what lies ahead This superb collection includes poems by men and women ranging in age from their fifties to their eighties and hailing from different cities regions and countries The entire range of emotions and literary perspectives is represented here whether the specter of death in Doug Anderson s Sixty One or a sly grin in Roger Pfingston s Retired Each poet whether retired or just contemplating retirement greets the prospect of this new chapter of life differently George Bilgere purchases the complete works of Verdi and extravagant silk shirts while Denise Levertov contemplates life alone Alicia Ostriker implores readers to keep on fighting keep up the good work and Alberto Ros recalls a lost love However we contemplate retirement this volume will illuminate the careful thoughts of those who have faced these questions before us Contributors Include Werner Aspenstrom Chana Bloch Philip Booth Hayden Carruth Lucille Clifton Ruth Daigon Susan Elbe Sam Hamill Mark Irwin klipschutz Ted Kooser Maxine Kumin Richard Moore Naomi Shihab Nye Grace Paley Robert Pinsky Carol Potter Ishmael Reed Claudette Mork Sigg Ronald Wallace Black Eye Judith Strasser, 2004-04-01 Seventeen years after she married Judith Strasser escaped her emotionally and physically abusive husband and sought a better way to live In the process Strasser rediscovered what she had suppressed through that long span of time exceptional strength and a passion for writing Black Eye includes excerpts from a journal Strasser kept from 1985 to 1986 the year she made the decision to leave her marriage and present day commentary on the journal passages and her family history Strasser works like a detective investigating her own life drawing clarity and power from journal passages dreams and memories that originally emerged from confusion and despair With language that is both insightful and poetic she reveals the psychological and social circumstances that led a strong woman an intelligent and politically active feminist to become an emotionally dependent abused wife Not coincidentally the same year that Strasser finally found the courage to leave her husband she also reclaimed her creative voice Newly empowered and energized by this enormous life change Strasser began writing again after twenty five silent years dominated by her mother s illness and death her own cancer and her painful fearful marriage Black Eye is one of the fruits of this creative reawakening Strasser s writing is refreshingly honest and instantly engrossing Not shy of wretchedness or beauty Strasser s story is bitterly personal ultimately triumphant and inspiring to all who deal with the adversity that is part of human life Encore Elisabeth R. Owens, 2006 Women: Images & Realities, A Multicultural Anthology Amy Kesselman, Lily D McNair, Nancy Schniedewind, 2008 This best selling anthology is a unique introduction to feminism and women s studies It presents a multidisciplinary collection of academic essays and analyses personal narratives and fiction and poetry about women s lives The selections illustrate the variety of women's experiences primarily in the United States considering both commonalities and differences among women and appreciating women's diverse approaches to living and fostering change

Red, White, and Blues Virgil Suárez, Ryan G. Van Cleave, 2004 Red White and Blues a new anthology from the award winning editors of Like Thunder Poets Respond to Violence in America and Vespers Contemporary American Poems of Religion and Spirituality offers a chorus of contemporary American poets on the idea of liberty democracy patriotism and the American Dream a twenty first century Song of Myself for the entire country The poems in Red White and Blues reflect our collective memory from icons of pop culture to national disasters and times of unrest Yet they are not simply reflections of the headline news or political diatribes of the day instead they provide roadmaps of American history roadmaps of where we've been who we are and where we're going as a nation Poets as diverse as Martin Espada and Paisley Rekdal J P Dancing Bear and Vivian Shipley seek to answer questions that resonate within the heart of our national identity what does it mean to be an American What is the American Dream How does one define patriotism Regardless of ethnicity gender or class each poet's answer to such questions proves that our experiences unite us more than they divide us Red White and Blues is an ambitious collection

Walking through Fire Nawal El Saadawi, 2013-04-04 In A Daughter of Isis Nawal El Saadawi painted a beautifully textured portrait of the childhood that moulded her into a novelist and fearless campaigner for freedom and the rights of women Walking through Fire takes up the story of her extraordinary life Famous for her novels short stories and writings on women Saadawi is known as the first Arab woman to have written about sex and its relation to economics and politics Imprisoned under Sadat for her opinions she has continued to fight against all forms of discrimination based on class gender nationality race or religion This autobiography shows the passion for justice that has shaped her life and her writing We read about her as a rural doctor trying to help a young girl escape from a terrible fate imposed on her by a brutal male tyranny We follow her attempts to set up women's organizations and to publish magazines later banned by the authorities or endangered by fundamentalist threats We travel with her into exile after the publication of her name on a death list We witness her first marriage to a freedom fighter hounded into drug addiction by a system that has no mercy We share her struggle against her false self and a second husband who offers her financial security and comfort provided she stops writing We live the beautiful moments of her third marriage with a man released after fourteen years of imprisonment and hard labour their love companionship and shared struggle Nawal El Saadawi has carved a place for herself in the universal struggle against oppression Words should not seek to please to hide the wounds in our bodies or the shameful moments in our lives she says They may hurt give us pain but they can also provoke us to question what we have accepted for thousands of years
