Black Feminist Criticism Perspectives On Black Women Writers:

Black Feminist Criticism Barbara Christian, 1985 A collection of critical essays on African American women writers

Critical Responses To Feminism Binod Mishra, 2006 New Black Feminist Criticism, 1985-2000 Barbara Christian, 2010-10-01 A passionate and celebrated pioneer in her own words New Black Feminist Criticism 1985 2000 collects a selection of essays and reviews from Barbara Christian one of the founding voices in black feminist literary criticism Published between the release of her second landmark book Black Feminist Criticism and her death these writings include eloquent reviews evaluations of black feminist criticism as a discipline reflections on black feminism in the academy and essays on Toni Morrison Alice Walker Paule Marshall and others The Cambridge Companion to Feminist Literary Theory Ellen Rooney, 2006-07-06 Feminism has dramatically influenced the way literary texts are read taught and evaluated Feminist literary theory has deliberately transgressed traditional boundaries between literature philosophy and the social sciences in order to understand how gender has been constructed and represented through language This lively and thought provoking Companion presents a range of approaches to the field Some of the essays demonstrate feminist critical principles at work in analysing texts while others take a step back to trace the development of a particular feminist literary method The essays draw on a range of primary material from the medieval period to postmodernism and from several countries disciplines and genres Each essay suggests further reading to explore this field further This is the most accessible guide available both for students of literature new to this developing field and for students of gender studies and readers interested in the interactions of feminism literary criticism and literature Women/Writing/Teaching Jan Zlotnik

Schmidt, 1998-01-15 This book presents autobiographical visions of women writing teachers their complex lives as writers as instructors as feminists as professionals in the academy The authors explore their complex identities as teachers the particular configurations of their pasts gender class ethnic backgrounds personalities and cultures that have shaped their personae as instructors of writing The contributors explore the intersections of their past and present experiences that influence and guide their development as writers and as instructors of writing The book discusses how women can emerge from silence gain authority and power as professionals and balance the private and public aspects of their lives In addition it addresses how women constitute themselves as literacy teachers and what models of feminist pedagogy emerge Women Writing Teaching is notable for the range depth and richness of the chapters the dynamic interplay of voices approaches issues and concerns the multiethnic focus and the high quality of the writings It will prompt readers to explore their own life stories and to comprehend more fully women's complex lives as teaching professionals Beyond Feminist Aesthetics

Rita Felski, 1989 Beyond Feminist Aesthetics has a dual focus First Rita Felski gives a critical account of current American and European feminist literary theory and second she offers an analysis of contemporary fiction by women drawing in particular on the genres of the autobiographical confession and the novel of self discovery in order to show that this literature raises questions for feminism that cannot be answered in terms of a purely gender based analysis Felski argues that the idea of a feminist aesthetic is a nonissue that feminists have needlessly pursued she suggests in contrast that it is impossible to speak of masculine and feminine subversive and reactionary literary forms in isolation from the social conditions of their production and reception The political value of such works of literature from the standpoint of feminism can be determined only by an investigation of their social functions and effects in relation to the interests of women in a particular historical context This leads her to argue for an interdisciplinary approach to the analysis of literature which can integrate literary and social theory and to develop such an approach by drawing upon the model of a feminist counter public sphere Rita Felski has produced a closely reasoned stimulating book that creates a new framework for discussing the relationship between literature and feminist politics It will interest students and teachers of women s studies comparative literature cultural studies and fiction

Aesthetics in Feminist Perspective Hilde Hein, Carolyn C. Korsmeyer, 1993-09-22 A first rate introduction to the field accessible to scholars working from a variety of disciplinary and theoretical perspectives Highly recommended Choice offers both broad theoretical considerations and applications to specific art forms diverse methodological perspectives and healthy debate among the contributors an outstanding volume Philosophy and Literature this volume represents an eloquent and enlightened attempt to reconceptualize the field of aesthetic theory by encouraging its tendencies toward openness self reflexivity and plurality Discourse Society All of the authors challenge the traditional notion of a pure and disinterested observer that does not allow for questions of race ethnicity class sexual preference or gender Signs These essays examine the intellectual traditions of the philosophy of art and aesthetics Containing essays by scholars and by the writer Marilyn French the collection ranges from the history of aesthetic theory to a philosophical reflection on fashion The contributions are unified by a sustained scrutiny of the nature of feminist feminine or female art creativity and interpretation

Invisibility Blues Michele Wallace, 2016-11-08 First published in 1990 Michele Wallace s Invisibility Blues is widely regarded as a landmark in the history of black feminism Wallace s considerations of the black experience in America include recollections of her early life in Harlem a look at the continued underrepresentation of black voices in politics media and culture and the legacy of such figures as Zora Neale Hurston Toni Cade Bambara Toni Morrison and Alice Walker Wallace addresses the tensions between race gender and society bringing them into the open with a singular mix of literary virtuosity and scholarly rigor Invisibility Blues challenges and informs with the plain spoken truth that has made it an acknowledged classic

Black Women, Cultural Images and Social Policy Julia S. Jordan-Zachery, 2009-01-13 Black Women Cultural Images and Social Policy offers a critical analysis of the policy making process Jordan Zachery demonstrates how social meanings surrounding the discourses on crime welfare and family policies produce and reproduce discursive practices that maintain gender and racial hierarchies Using critical discourse analysis CDA she analyzes the values and ideologies ensconced in the various images of black womanhood and their impact on policy formation This book provides exceptional insight into the racing gendering process of policy making to show how relations of power and forms of inequality are discursively constructed and impact the lives of African American women African Women Writers and the Politics of Gender Sadia Zulfiqar, 2016-09-23 This work examines the work of a group of African women writers who have emerged over the last forty years While figures such as Chinua Achebe Ben Okri and Wole Soyinka are likely to be the chief focus of discussions of African writing female authors have been at the forefront of fictional interrogations of identity formation and history In the work of authors such as Mariama B Senegal Buchi Emecheta Nigeria Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Nigeria Tsitsi Dangarembga Zimbabwe and Leila Aboulela Sudan there is a clear attempt to subvert the tradition of male writing where the female characters are often relegated to the margins of the culture and confined to the domestic private sphere This body of work has already generated a significant number of critical responses including readings that draw on gender politics and colonialism but it is still very much a minor literature and most mainstream western feminism has not sufficiently processed it The purpose of this book is three fold First it draws together some of the most important and influential African women writers of the post war period and looks at their work separately and together in terms of a series of themes and issues including marriage family polygamy religion childhood and education Second it demonstrates how African literature produced by women writers is explicitly and polemically engaged with urgent political issues that have both local and global resonance the veil Islamophobia and a distinctively African brand of feminist critique Third it revisits Fredric Jameson s claim that all third world texts are national allegories and considers these novels by African women in relation to Jameson s claim arguing that their work has complicated Jameson s assumptions Toni Morrison Donald J. Gibson, 1995-06 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Identity Politics in the Women's Movement Barbara Ryan, 2001-08 An essential collection that constructs the arguments of similarity and difference dividing and uniting women In recent years identity has come to be seen as a process rather than a fact or deterministic force Yet recognizable identity traits continue to draw people together and provide them with a sense of empowering commonality Although the plasticity afforded identity has freed up rigid definitions and guidelines for affiliation some believe that nebulous demarcations of identity may deprive women of a solid position from which to effectively contest centers of power Bringing together articles by well known authors and theorists such as Audre Lourde June Jordan Daphne Patai Barbara Smith Marilyn Frye Shane Phelan Leila J Rupp Hazel Carby and Adrienne Rich with lesser known writers and scholars this broad based anthology ranges widely from personal narratives to empirical research The book unpacks issues of race class gender ethnicity sexuality disability and age contributing a m lange of sharp lively perspectives to current debate In a postmodern era of feminism how do women come to identify organize and mobilize themselves within a complex global network of relationships Identity Politics in the Women s Movement offers critical examination of the inescapable role of identity in academic and activist feminism and the opportunities challenges and conflicts identity politics pose Theorizing

Black Feminisms Abena P. A. Busia, Stanlie M. Black Women's Intellectual Traditions Kristin Waters, Carol B. Conaway, 2022-11-21 A new edition of a landmark work on Black women's intellectual traditions An astonishing wealth of literary and intellectual work by nineteenth century Black women is being rediscovered and restored to print In Kristin B Waters's and Carol B Conaway's landmark edited collection Black Women's Intellectual Traditions sophisticated commentary on this rich body of work chronicles a powerful and interwoven legacy of activism based on social and political theories that helped shape the history of North America Black Women's Intellectual Traditions meticulously reclaims this American legacy providing a collection of critical analyses of the primary sources and their vital traditions Written by leading scholars this book is particularly powerful in its exploration of the pioneering thought and action of the nineteenth century Black woman lecturer and essayist Maria W Stewart abolitionist Sojourner Truth novelist and poet Frances Ellen Watkins Harper educator Anna Julia Cooper newspaper editor Mary Ann Shadd Cary and activist Ida B Wells The volume will interest scholars and readers of African American and women's studies history rhetoric literature poetry sociology political science and philosophy This updated edition features a new preface by the editors in light of current scholarship

Feminism and "race" Kum-Kum Bhavnani, 2001 The past two decades have seen the incursion of feminist thought into many academic areas Within the academy feminist approaches have gained some legitimacy and yet simultaneous with these disciplinary advances there have been charges of racism directed at feminist scholarship and practice These charges have resulted in feminist work continuously reshaping itself This volume represents the strength as well as diversity of writings which discuss race and feminism showing how these two areas usually considered to be distinct and therefore discrete from each other have developed Feminism and Race includes articles spanning a number of disciplinary areas such as history literary analysis sociology and psychology and provides a history of how second wave feminisms have negotiated race as well as suggesting what future directions these debates may take

Conversant Essays James McCorkle, 1990 Composition Theory for the Postmodern Classroom Gary A. Olson, Sidney I. Dobrin, 1994-05-24 Composition Theory for the Postmodern Classroom is a collection of the most outstanding articles published in the Journal of Advanced Composition over the last decade Together these essays represent the breadth and strength of composition scholarship that has fruitfully engaged with critical theory in its many manifestations In drawing on the critical discourses of philosophers feminists literary theorists African Americanists cultural theorists and others these compositionists have enriched the discourse in the field broadened intellectual conceptions of the multiple roles and functions of discourse and opened up an infinite number of questions and new possibilities for composition theory and pedagogy

Free at Last? Juan Battle, Michael Bennett, Anthony J. Lemelle, 2017-07-05 As this volume indicates the issues facing black America are diverse and the tools needed to understand these phenomena cross disciplinary boundaries In this anthology the authors address a wide range of topics including race gender class sexual orientation globalism migration health politics culture and urban issues from a diversity of disciplinary perspectives

After the Pain Fiona Mills, Keith B. Mitchell, 2006 As a poet playwright novelist short story writer and critic Gayl Jones has always resisted labels in her quest to find a liberating voice for black women and herself With a poet s lyricism and a musician s ear for rhythm she continually seeks new ways to confront the barriers traumas insecurities and prejudices oppressing black women and by extension all women After the Pain Critical Essays on Gayl Jones is the first comprehensive collection of essays dedicated solely to the exploration of Jones s work Ranging from analyses of her use of language and music to reevaluations of her representation of sexuality and gender roles to examinations of the oft overlooked connections between Latin America and African Americans each of these essays investigates Jones s desire to continually complicate the process of identity formation

Fanon and the Counterinsurgency of Education , 2010-01-01 Fanon and the Counterinsurgency of Education takes up the challenge of an anti colonial reading of Fanon to broach questions of identity difference and belonging and the implications for schooling and education The authors deliberately offer a careful and selective capturing of Fanon s works pointing to the relevance for oppressed communities as they resist re organized colonial relations in schooling and education While colonialism and neo colonialism have functioned and continue to function differently in diverse environments and social contexts contributions in the book enthuse that we must raise new questions in a bold attempt to re theorize colonial relations social difference and the representational politics of education Educators must ask new questions in order to contribute to knowledge of how to resist the entrapments of colonialism racism exploitation and alienation Frantz Fanon s oeuvre is informative to the pursuit of critical education especially when we examine the colonial encounter and the colonized experience The book offers concrete lessons in the struggle to revise education to meet the needs of diverse communities
