John Michael Vlach

Black Folk Art In America 1930 198:

The Temptation Julia S. Ardery, 1998 Why beginning in the late 1960s did expressive objects made by poor people come to be regarded as twentieth century folk art increasingly sought after by the middle class and the wealthy Julia Ardery explores that question through the life story of Sacred and Profane Carol Crown, Charles Russell, 2007 A sustained critical assessment of southern folk art and self taught art and artists The Unforgettables Charles C. Eldredge, 2022-11-01 Eminent art historian Charles C Eldredge brings together top scholars to celebrate forgotten artists and create a more inclusive history of American art Why do some artists become canonical while others equally respected in their time fall into obscurity This question is central to The Unforgettables a vibrant collection of essays by leading experts on American art Each contributor presents a brief for an artist deserving of new or renewed attention including artists from the colonial era to recent years working in a wide variety of mediums Histories of American art have traditionally highlighted the work of a familiar roster of artists largely white and male The achievements of their peers notably women and artists of color have gone uncelebrated The essays in this volume provide a new and richer understanding of American art expanding the canon to include many worthy talents A number of these artists were acclaimed in their day others having missed that acclaim may achieve it now With contributions from major scholars and museum professionals The Unforgettables rescues and revises reputations as it enhances and enriches the history of American art African American Literature in Transition, 1930-1940: Volume 10 Eve Dunbar, Ayesha K. Hardison, 2022-04-07 This book illustrates African American writers cultural production and political engagement despite the economic precarity of the 1930s Gee's Bend John Beardsley, 2002 Since the 19th century the women of Gee s Bend in southern Alabama have created stunning vibrant quilts Beautifully illustrated with 350 color illustrations 30 black and white illustrations and charts Gee s Bend to Rehoboth is being released in conjunction with a national exhibition tour including The Museum of Fine Art Houston and the Whitney Museum of American Art Museum of American Folk Art Encyclopedia of Twentieth-century American Folk Art and Artists Chuck Rosenak, Jan Rosenak, 1990 Comprehensive encyclopedia of twentieth century American folk art and artists Wisdom for the Soul of Black Folk Roderick Terry, 2007 Another book of quotations Indeed there are numerous excellent extant anthologies of quotations but these tend to be very broad with a bias toward classical and well known authors those works which document the contributions of Black authors have tended to focus on African Americans considerable as their output is Undeniable recognition of this prevalence is reflected in the title of the present volume which pays homage to W E B Du Bois classic work and in the preponderance of entries from American sources Nevertheless effort has been made to cast a wider net to capture under represented and unfamiliar voices Khemetic texts preserved in papyri and stelae are the earliest literature to have survived followed by the writings of North African Romans and Ethiopian philosophers and clerics and the lately recovered Timbuktu manuscripts from their repositories in the desert sands of Mali The Transatlantic slave experience gave rise to the slave narratives and abolitionist literature from both sides of the Atlantic which remained predominant right up to the 20th century Post Emancipation under colonial rule and white domination Black poetry and prose emerged adhering to prevailing standards evidenced typically in the work of Phillis Wheatley and the sonnets of Claude McKay With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements would come iconoclastic expressions of protest and identity There is a sizeable body of literature by Black authors from Africa and the diaspora who speak to universal values and eternal verities This anthology of their work focuses on the inner life on personal development and self actualization 3000 quotations have been selected to inspire enlighten and encourage they have been arranged in 200 psycho spiritual categories and in chronological order The resulting timeline of thought in itself is useful and instructive as it demonstrates very clearly the evolution of consciousness evident in the contemporary thinking on particular subjects Like its predecessor Wisdom for the Soul Five Millennia of Prescriptions for Spiritual Healing this volume contains a full biographical index and bibliographical references Much of the material is anthologized here for the first time

Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds Leslie Umberger, 2007-10-04 The need to personalize our surroundings is a defining human characteristic For some this need becomes a compulsion to transform their personal surroundings into works of art The John Michael Kohler Arts Center in Sheboygan Wisconsin has undertaken the mission to preserve these environments which are presented for the first time in Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds This colorful and inspiring book features the work of twenty two vernacular artists whose locales personal histories and reasons for art making vary widely but who all share a powerful connection to the home as art Featured projects range from art environments that remain intact such as Simon Rodia's Watts Towers in California to sites lost over the years such as Emery Blagdon's six hundred elaborate Healing Machines made of copper aluminum tin foil magnets ribbons farm machinery parts painted light bulbs beads coffee can lids and more Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds is the first book to explore these spectacularly offbeat spaces in detail From Original Rhinestone Cowboy Loy Bowlin's wall to wall glitter and foil living room to the concrete bestiary of witch of Fox Point Mary Nohl each artist and project is described in detail through a wealth of visuals and text Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds reminds us that our decorative choices tell the world not just what we like but who we are

Gatecrashers Katherine Jentleson, 2020-04-07 After World War I artists without formal training crashed the gates of major museums in the United States diversifying the art world across lines of race ethnicity class ability and gender At the center of this fundamental reevaluation of who could be an artist in America were John Kane Horace Pippin and Anna Mary Robertson Grandma Moses The stories of these three artists not only intertwine with the major critical debates of their period but also prefigure the call for inclusion in representations of American art today In Gatecrashers Katherine Jentleson offers a valuable corrective to the history of twentieth century art by expanding narratives of interwar American modernism and providing an origin story for contemporary fascination with self taught artists

Between Worlds Leslie Umberger, 2018-10-02 Bill Traylor ca 1853 1949 is regarded today as one of the most important American artists of the twentieth century A black man born into slavery in Alabama he was an eyewitness to history the Civil War Emancipation Reconstruction Jim Crow segregation the Great Migration and the steady rise of African American urban culture in the South Traylor would not live to see the civil rights movement but he was among those who laid its foundation Starting around 1939 Traylor by then in his late eighties and living on the streets of Montgomery took up pencil and paintbrush to attest to his existence and point of view In keeping with this radical step the paintings and drawings he made are visually striking and politically assertive they include simple yet powerful distillations of tales and memories as well as spare vibrantly colored abstractions When Traylor died he left behind more than one thousand works of art In Between Worlds The Art of Bill Traylor Leslie Umberger considers more than two hundred artworks to provide the most comprehensive and in depth study of the artist to date she examines his life art and powerful drive to bear witness through the only means he had pictures The author draws on a wealth of historical documents including federal and state census records birth and death certificates slave schedules and interviews with family members to clarify the record of Traylor s personal history and family life The story of his art opens in the late 1930s when Traylor first received attention for his pencil drawings on found board and concludes with the posthumous success of his oeuvre

African American Literature in Transition, 1920-1930: Volume 9 Miriam Thaggert, Rachel Farebrother, 2022-04-07 This book analyses historical literary and cultural shifts in African American literature from the 1920s 1930s Contemporary American Folk, Naive, and Outsider Art Miami University (Oxford, Ohio). Art Museum, E. W. Metcalf, Gary Joseph Schwindler, 1990

Black Art Richard J. Powell, 2022-01-20 The African diaspora a direct result of the transatlantic slave trade and Western colonialism has generated a wide array of artistic achievements from blues and reggae to the paintings of the pioneering African American artist Henry Ossawa Tanner and video creations of contemporary hip hop artists This book concentrates on how these works often created during times of major social upheaval and transformation use black culture both as a subject and as context From musings on the souls of black folk in late nineteenth century art to questions of racial and cultural identities in performance media and computer assisted arts in the twenty first century this book examines the philosophical and social forces that have shaped a black presence in modern and contemporary visual culture Now updated this new edition helps us understand better how the first two decades of the twenty first century have been a transformative moment in which previous assumptions about race difference and identity have been irrevocably altered with art providing a useful lens through which to think about these compelling issues

Art for the Millions Allison Rudnick, 2023-09-05 American art in the 1930s intertwined with the political social and economic tumult of an era not so unlike our own engaged with the public amid global upheaval This publication examines the search for artistic identity in the United States from the stock market crash of 1929 that began the Great Depression to the closure of the Works Progress Administration in 1943 with a focus on the unprecedented dissemination of art and ideas brought about by new technology and government programs During this time of civil economic and social unrest artists transmitted political ideas and propaganda through a wide range of media including paintings and sculptures but also journals prints textiles postcards and other objects that would have been widely collected experienced or encountered Insightful essays discuss but go beyond the era s best known creators such as Thomas Hart Benton Walker Evans Marsden Hartley and Georgia O Keeffe to highlight artists who have received little scholarly attention including women and artists of color as well as designers and illustrators Emphasizing the contributions of the Black Popular Front and Leftist movements while acknowledging competing visions of the country through the lenses of race gender and class Art for the Millions is a timely look at art in the United States made by and for its people African American Environmental Thought Kimberly K. Smith, 2021-02-02 African American intellectual thought has long provided a touchstone for national politics and civil rights but as Kimberly Smith reveals it also has much to say about our relationship to nature In this first single authored book to link African American and environmental studies Smith uncovers a rich tradition stretching from the abolition movement through the Harlem Renaissance demonstrating that black Americans have been far from indifferent to environmental concerns Beginning with environmental critiques of slave agriculture in the early nineteenth century and evolving through critical engagements with scientific racism artistic primitivism pragmatism and twentieth century urban reform Smith highlights the continuity of twentieth century black politics with earlier efforts by slaves and freedmen to possess the land She examines the works of such canonical figures as Frederick Douglass Booker T Washington W E B Du Bois and Alain Locke all of whom wrote forcefully about how slavery and racial oppression affected black Americans relationship to the environment Smith s analysis focuses on the importance of freedom in humans relationship with nature According to black theorists the denial of freedom can distort one s relationship to the natural world impairing stewardship and alienating one from the land Her pathbreaking study offers the first linkage of the early conservation movement to black history the first detailed description of black agrarianism and the first analysis of scientific racism as an environmental theory It also offers a new way to conceptualize black politics by bringing into view its environmental dimension as well as a normative environmental theory grounded in pragmatism and aimed at identifying the social conditions for environmental virtue Smith s work offers a new approach to established writers and thinkers and shows that they justly deserve a place in the canon of American environmental thought African American Environmental Thought enriches our understanding of black politics and environmental history and of environmental theory in general Because slavery and racism have shaped the meaning of the American landscape this body of thought offers us fresh conceptual resources by which we can make better sense of our world African American Artists and the New Deal Art Programs

Mary Ann Calo, 2023-03-20 This book examines the involvement of African American artists in the New Deal art programs of the 1930s Emphasizing broader issues informed by the uniqueness of Black experience rather than individual artists works Mary Ann Calo makes the case that the revolutionary vision of these federal art projects is best understood in the context of access to opportunity mediated by the reality of racial segregation Focusing primarily on the Federal Art Project FAP of the Works Progress Administration WPA Calo documents African American artists participation in community art centers in Harlem in St Louis and throughout the South She examines the internal workings of the Harlem Artists Guild the Guild s activities during the 1930s and its alliances with other groups such as the Artists Union and the National Negro Congress Calo also explores African American artists representation in the exhibitions sponsored by WPA administrators and the critical reception of their work In doing so she elucidates the evolving meanings of the terms race culture and community in the interwar era The book concludes with an essay by Jacqueline Francis on Black artists in the early 1940s after the end of the FAP program Presenting essential new archival information and important insights into the experiences of Black New Deal artists this study expands the factual record and positions the cumulative evidence within the landscape of critical race studies It will be welcomed by art historians and American studies scholars specializing in early twentieth century race relations
