Marybeth Gasman, Roger L. Geiger, 2012-08-14 This volume examines the evolution of higher education opportunities for African Americans in the early and mid twentieth century It contributes to understanding how African Americans overcame great odds to obtain advanced education in their own institutions how they asserted themselves to gain control over those institutions and how they persisted despite discrimination and intimidation in both northern and southern universities Following an introduction by the editors are contributions by Richard M Breaux Louis Ray Lauren Kientz Anderson Timothy Reese Cain Linda M Perkins and Michael Fultz Contributors consider the expansion and elevation of African American higher education Such progress was made against heavy odds the separate but equal policies of the segregated South less overt but pervasive racist attitudes in the North and legal obstacles to obtaining equal rights Laying Claim Patricia G.

Davis, 2016-08-15 Laying Claim African American Cultural Memory and Southern Identity explores the practices and cultural institutions that define and sustain African American southernness demonstrating that southern identity is more expansive than traditional narratives that center on white culture Seeking El Dorado Lawrence B. de Graaf, Kevin Mulroy, Quintard Taylor, 2014-07-01 From the 18th century African Americans like many others have migrated to California to seek fortunes or often the more modest goals of being able to find work own a home and raise a family relatively free of discrimination Not only their search but also its outcome is covered in Seeking El Dorado Whether they settled in major cities or smaller towns African Americans created institutions and organizations churches social clubs literary societies fraternal orders civil rights organizations that embodied the legacy of their past and the values they shared Blacks came in search of the same jobs as other Americans but the search often proved frustrating Throughout the 19th and 20th centuries African American leadership in the state consistently focused on achieving racial justice The essays in this book speak of triumph and hardship success discrimination and disappointment Seeking El Dorado is a major contribution to black history and the history of the American West and will be of interest to both scholars and general readers Integrations Lawrence Blum, Zoë

Burkholder, 2021-05-12 Education plays a central part in the history of racial inequality in America with people of color long advocating for equal educational rights and opportunities Though school desegregation initially was a boon for educational equality schools began to resegregate in the 1980s and schools are now more segregated than ever In Integrations historian Zo Burkholder and philosopher Lawrence Blum set out to shed needed light on the enduring problem of segregation in American schools From a historical perspective the authors analyze how ideas about race influenced the creation and development of American public schools Importantly the authors focus on multiple marginalized groups in American schooling African Americans Native Americans Latinxs and Asian Americans In the second half of the book the authors explore what equal education should and could look like They argue for a conception of educational goods including the development of moral and civic capacities that should and can be provided to every child through schooling including integration itself Ultimately the authors show that in order to grapple with integration in a meaningful way we must think of integration in the plural both in its multiple histories and the many possible meanings of and courses of action for integration

Civil Rights Unionism
Robert R. Korstad, 2003-11-20 Drawing on scores of interviews with black and white tobacco workers in Winston Salem North Carolina Robert Korstad brings to life the forgotten heroes of Local 22 of the Food Tobacco Agricultural and Allied Workers of America CIO These workers confronted a system of racial capitalism that consigned African Americans to the basest jobs in the industry perpetuated low wages for all southerners and shored up white supremacy Galvanized by the emergence of the CIO African Americans took the lead in a campaign that saw a strong labor movement and the reenfranchisement of the southern poor as keys to reforming the South and a reformed South as central to the survival and expansion of the New Deal In the window of opportunity opened by World War II they blurred the boundaries between home and work as they linked civil rights and labor rights in a bid for justice at work and in the public sphere But civil rights unionism foundered in the maelstrom of the Cold War Its defeat undermined later efforts by civil rights activists to raise issues of economic equality to the moral high ground occupied by the fight against legalized segregation and Korstad contends constrains the prospects for justice and democracy today

The African Diaspora Toyin Falola, 2013 The African diaspora is arguably the most important event in modern African history From the fifteenth century to the present millions of Africans have been dispersed many of them forcibly others driven by economic need or political persecution to other continents creating large communities with African origins living outside their native lands The majority of these communities are in North America This historic displacement has meant that Africans are irrevocably connected to economic and political developments in the West and globally Among the known legacies of the diaspora are slavery colonialism racism poverty and underdevelopment yet the ways in which these same factors worked to spur the scattering of Africans are not fully understood by those who were part of this migration or by scholars historians and policymakers In this definitive study of the diaspora in North America Toyin

Falola offers a causal history of the western dispersion of Africans and its effects on the modern world Reengaging old and familiar debates and framing new ones that enrich the discourse surrounding Africa Falola isolates the thread running nearly six centuries that connects the history of slavery the transatlantic slave trade and current migrations A boon to scholars and policymakers and accessible to the general reader the book explores diverse narratives of migration and shows that the cultures that migrated from Africa to the Americas have the capacity to unite and create a new pan Africanist movement within the globalized world Toyin Falola is the Jacob and Frances Sanger Mossiker Chair in the Humanities and University Distinguished Teaching Professor at the University of Texas at Austin He is the 2011 recipient of the Distinguished Africanist Award from the African Studies Association and serves as the vice president of the International Scientific Committee of the UNESCO Slave Route Project His previous books published by the University of Rochester Press include The Power of African Cultures and Nationalism and African Intellectuals Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present Paul Finkelman,2009 Alphabetically arranged entries from A to C that explores significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century
