European and British Barbarity, Savagery, and Brutality in the Transatlantic Chattel Slave Trade Dr. Robinson A. Milwood PhD,2013-06-14 Man makes history in a fashion and history also makes man As with other men the historical experience of the African over the centuries has had a profound effect on his self image as well as on his perception of the external world Perhaps more than other men the African in pre colonial times developed a strong historical tradition and his perception of himself and his world came to depend very much on his view of the past European colonialism brief as it was produced a traumatic effect largely because it tried to impose on the African a gross distortion of his historical tradition

The Forging of Races Colin Kidd,2006-09-07 This book revolutionises our understanding of race Building upon the insight that races are products of culture rather than biology Colin Kidd demonstrates that the Bible the key text in Western culture has left a vivid imprint on modern racial theories and prejudices Fixing his attention on the changing relationship between race and theology in the Protestant Atlantic world between 1600 and 2000 Kidd shows that while the Bible itself is colour blind its interpreters have imported racial significance into the scriptures Kidd s study probes the theological anxieties which lurked behind the confident facade of of white racial supremacy in the age of empire and race slavery as well as the ways in which racist ideas left their mark upon new forms of religiosity This is essential reading for anyone interested in the histories of race or religion

In His Name E. Christopher Reyes,2010-05 Many devout Christians will not like this book as I have discovered that they are neither interested nor concerned with anything which challenges their long taught beliefs I did not make history but merely write on its historical significance in the events of mankind For those truth seekers who are interested in the Why regarding religious beliefs this book offers a genesis of Christian beliefs Religion is a multi million dollar a year business and world wide that figure runs into the billions Is the true nature of faith focused on mankind or merely a financial endeavor Extraordinary care has been taken to present the good and the bad as well as the ugly side of religion
