Rumanian Folk Music Bela Bartok, 2012-12-06 N January 30 1944 Bela Bartok writing from Asheville North O Carolina where he had gone to regain his strength after a long period of ill health in 1943 commented Here I have started on a very interesting and as usual lengthy work the kind I have never done before Properly speaking it is not a musical work I am arranging and writing out fair copies of Rumanian folksong texts Although the date has not as yet been established the first draft of the Rumanian folk texts as texts per se was written if an apparent age of the MS can be considered a clue sometime before Bartok had emigrated to the United States in 1940 This draft see description below had been forwarded for etymological data according to the non Bartokian autography appearing thereon The identity of the informant or informants involved and the circumstances surrounding this matter remain unknown at the present writing After Bartok had made offset prints of the music examples of the 2 first two volumes of Rumanian Folk Music in 1940 the printed but incomplete draft of Vol II Vocal Melodies comprising 304 of the ultimate total of 659 pages was sent to Nicholas Vamescu then director of The Romanian Radio Hour Station W L B Detroit 3 Michigan for correction of the texts in April 1941 1 Letter to Joseph Szigeti in Bartok Bela levelei ed Janos Demeny Budapest Műveltség Könyvtárája 1951 p 184 The First Fleet Piano: Volume One Geoffrey Lancaster, 2015-11-03 During the late eighteenth century a musical cultural phenomenon swept the globe The English square piano invented in the early 1760s by an entrepreneurial German guitar maker in London not only became an indispensable part of social life but also inspired the creation of an expressive and scintillating repertoire Square pianos reinforced music as life's counterpoint and were played by royalty by musicians of the highest calibre and by aspiring amateurs alike On Sunday 13 May 1787 a square piano departed from Portsmouth on board the Sirius the flagship of the First Fleet bound for Botany Bay Who made the First Fleet piano and when was it made Who owned it Who played it and who listened What music did the instrument sound out and within what contexts was its voice heard What became of the First Fleet piano after its arrival on antipodean soil and who played a part in the instrument's subsequent history Two extant instruments contend for the title First Fleet piano which of these made the epic journey to Botany Bay in 1787-88 The First Fleet Piano A Musician's View answers these questions and provides tantalising glimpses of social and cultural life both in Georgian England and in the early colony at Sydney Cove The First Fleet piano is placed within the musical and social contexts for which it was created and narratives of the individuals whose lives have been touched by the instrument are woven together into an account of the First Fleet piano's conjunction with the forces of history View The First Fleet Piano Volume Two Appendices Note Volume 1 and 2 are sold as a set 180 for both and cannot be purchased separately Black Lamb and Grey Falcon Rebecca West, 2010-12-21 Hailed as among the most important books of the twentieth century Rebecca West's magnum opus is a history a travelogue and a sociological study of Yugoslavia that examines how the past shapes the present In a breathtakingly wide ranging journalistic work West richly chronicles her travels throughout

Yugoslavia in the 1930s introducing vivid characters and illuminating details More than a travelogue Black Lamb and Grey Falcon connects the people and places West encounters to the long history of conflict that has formed national identities in the Balkans across a millennium of shifting alliances West writes I had come to Yugoslavia because I knew that the past has made the present and I wanted to see how the process works As profound sad and funny as when it was first published in 1941 Black Lamb and Grey Falcon interrogates the forces that continue to shape our modern world Modernist Travel Writing David G. Farley, 2010-11-30 As the study of travel writing has grown in recent years scholars have largely ignored the literature of modernist writers Modernist Travel Writing Intellectuals Abroad by David Farley addresses this gap by examining the ways in which a number of writers employed the techniques and stylistic innovations of modernism in their travel narratives to variously engage the political social and cultural milieu of the years between the world wars Modernist Travel Writing argues that the travel book is a crucial genre for understanding the development of modernism in the years between the wars despite the established view that travel writing during the interwar period was largely an escapist genre one in which writers hearkened back to the realism of nineteenth century literature in order to avoid interwar anxiety Farley analyzes works that exist on the margins of modernism generically and geographically works that have yet to receive the critical attention they deserve partly due to their classification as travel narratives and partly because of their complex modernist styles The book begins by examining the ways that travel and the emergent travel regulations in the wake of the First World War helped shape Ezra Pound's Cantos From there it goes on to examine E E Cummings's frustrated attempts to navigate the unworld of Soviet Russia in his book Eimi Wyndham Lewis's satiric journey through colonial Morocco in Filibusters in Barbary and Rebecca West's urgent efforts to make sense of the fractious Balkan states in Black Lamb and Grey Falcon These modernist writers traveled to countries that experienced most directly the tumult of revolution the effects of empire and the upheaval of war during the years between World War I and World War II Farley's study focuses on the question of what constitutes evidence for Pound Lewis Cummings and West as they establish their authority as eyewitnesses translate what they see for an audience back home and attempt to make sense of a transformed and transforming modern world Modernist Travel Writing makes an original contribution to the study of literary modernism while taking a distinctive look at a unique subset within the growing field of travel writing studies David Farley's work will be of interest to students and teachers in both of these fields as well as to early twentieth century literary historians and general enthusiasts of modernist studies Refiguring Modernism, Volume 1 Bonnie Kime Scott, 1996-01-22 an invaluable aid to the reconfiguration of literary modernism and of the history of the fiction of the first three decades of the twentieth century Novel her readings of texts are quite smart and eminently readable Tulsa Studies in Women's Literature a challenging and discerning study of the modernist period James Joyce Broadsheet note review of volume 1 only highly important and beautifully written constructing a contextually rich cultural history of Anglo American modernism It wears its meticulous erudition lightly synthesizing an enormous amount of research much of it original archival work Signs Through her thoughtful exploration of the lives and work of these three female modernists Scott shapes a new feminist literary history that successfully reconfigures modernism Woolf Studies Annual In this revisionary study of modernism Bonnie Kime Scott focuses on the literary and cultural contexts that shaped Virginia Woolf Rebecca West and Djuna Barnes Her reading is based upon fresh archival explorations combining postmodern with feminist theory Men and Women Writers of the 1930s Janet Montefiore,2003-09-02 Men and Women Writers of the 1930s is a searching critique of the issues of memory and gender during this dynamic decade Montefiore asks two principle questions what part does memory play in the political literature of and about 1930s Britain And what were the roles of women both as writers and as signifying objects in constructing that literature Montefiore s topical analysis of 1930s mass unemployment fascist uprising and appeasement is shockingly relevant in society today Issues of class anti fascist historical novels post war memoirs of Auden generation writers and neglected women poets are discussed at length Writers include George Orwell Virginia Woolf W H Auden Storm Jameson Jean Rhys Rebecca West Dubrovnik Piers Letcher,Robin McKelvie,Jenny McKelvie,2007 The Croatian city of Dubrovnik is a perfect extended stop off for travellers exploring Mediterranean Europe by land or sea Byron s Pearl of the Adriatic has everything for the cultural enthusiast including Italian architecture palaces and churches Bathe in the clear waters of the Adriatic Sea or take in one of the best views of the city atop the impressive town walls This guide covers more than just the city for those seeking a retreat from the bustle of the city discover scenic walks on the islands just off Dubrovnik s peaceful coastline or venture further with a day trip to a neighbouring country Val-Kill Emily Wright,Katherine Menz,1987 Women in Europe between the Wars Angela Kimyongür,2017-11-30 The central aim of this interdisciplinary book is to make visible the intentionality behind the forgetting of European women s contributions during the period between the two world wars in the context of politics culture and society It also seeks to record and analyse women s agency in the construction and reconstruction of Europe and its nation states after the First World War and thus to articulate ways in which the writing of women s history necessarily entails the rewriting of everyone s history By showing that the erasure of women s texts from literary and cultural history was not accidental but was ideologically motivated the essays explicitly and implicitly contribute to debates surrounding canon formation Other important topics are women s political activism during the period antifascism the contributions made by female journalists the politics of literary production genre women s relationship with and contributions to the avant garde women s professional lives and women s involvement in voluntary associations In bringing together the work of scholars whose fields of expertise are diverse but whose interests converge on the inter war period the volume invites readers to make connections and comparisons across the whole spectrum of women s political social and cultural activities throughout Europe The Thirty Years' War and German Memory in the Nineteenth Century Kevin Cramer,2007-12-01 The nineteenth century witnessed the birth of German nationalism and the unification of Germany as a powerful nation state In this era the reading public's obsession with the most destructive and divisive war in its history the Thirty Years War resurrected old animosities and sparked a violent century long debate over the origins and aftermath of the war The core of this bitter argument was a clash between Protestant and Catholic historians over the cultural criteria determining authentic German identity and the territorial and political form of the future German nation This groundbreaking study of modern Germany's morbid fascination with the war explores the ideological uses of history writing commemoration and collective remembrance to show how the passionate argument over the meaning of the Thirty Years War shaped Germans conception of their nation The first book in the extensive literature on German history writing to examine how modern German historians reinterpreted a specific event to define national identity and legitimate political and ideological agendas The Thirty Years War and German Memory in the Nineteenth Century is a bold intellectual history of the confluence of history writing religion culture and politics in nineteenth century Germany The Art of Fact Kevin Kerrane, Ben Yagoda, 1998-08-03 A comprehensive and illuminating survey of literary journalism with both historical and international scope this anthology is the only one of its kind In a series of sparkling readings Kevin Kerrane and Ben Yagoda trace the evolution of the so called new journalism back to the 18th century Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict, revised edition Michael E. Brown, Owen R. Cote, Jr., Sean M. Lynn-Jones, Steven E. Miller, 2001-09-14 Understanding the roots and causes of ethnic animosity analyses of recent events in Bosnia Kosovo Rwanda Somalia and the former Soviet Union Most recent wars have been complex and bloody internal conflicts driven to a significant degree by nationalism and ethnic animosity Since the end of the Cold War dozens of wars in Bosnia Kosovo Rwanda Somalia the former Soviet Union and elsewhere have killed or displaced millions of people Understanding and controlling these wars has become one of the most important and frustrating tasks for scholars and political leaders This revised and expanded edition of Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict contains essays from some of the world's leading analysts of nationalism ethnic conflict and internal war The essays from the first edition have been updated and supplemented by analyses of recent conflicts and new research on the resolution of ethnic and civil wars The first part of the book addresses the roots of nationalistic and ethnic wars focusing in particular on the former Yugoslavia The second part assesses options for international action including the use of force and the deployment of peacekeeping troops The third part examines political challenges that often complicate attempts to prevent or end internal conflicts including refugee flows and the special difficulties of resolving civil wars Saturday Review of Literature , 1944-06 Configurations of Migration Jennifer Leetsch, Frederike Middelhoff, Miriam Wallraven, 2023-10-24 In a global context in which phenomena of migration play an ever more important role the ways individual and collective experiences of migration are covered in the media represented in culture and interpreted are coming under increasing scrutiny This book explores the complex relationship between creative engagements with migration on the one hand and forms of knowledge about migration on the other inquiring into the ways aesthetic practices are intertwined with knowledge structures The book responds to three pressing research questions First it analyses how fictional texts plays images films and autobiographical accounts mediate forms of knowledge about migration Second it identifies the ways in which specific media approaches and aesthetic practices influence people s ideas about and awareness of migratory experiences in a globalized world Finally it delineates how historical perspectives help us compare epistemological approaches to migration in the nineteenth twentieth and early twenty first centuries and how these approaches affect the way critics and the public responded to and thought about different forms of forced migration Bringing together renowned scholars working across disciplines it investigates the possibilities and limitations that different media present when it comes to reflecting on communicating and imagining experiences of migration and how these representations in turn create ways of knowing and understanding migration
