Ebony ,1981-10 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine My Thoughts #BlackLove Jah Smalls,2017-06-19 A poetic journey through my life Learning that love flows beyond marital relationships should become the instrument of measure when it comes to understanding what love truly means Ebony ,1996-02 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Black Women, Agency, and the New Black Feminism Maria del Guadalupe Davidson,2017-02-17 The powerful Beyonc formidable Rihanna and the incalculable Nikki Minaj Their images lead one to wonder are they a new incarnation of black feminism and black women s agency or are they only pure fantasy in which instead of having agency they are in fact the products of the forces of patriarchy and commercialism More broadly one can ask whether black women in general are only being led to believe that they have power but are really being drawn back into more complicated systems of exploitation and oppression Or are black women subverting patriarchy by challenging notions of their subordinate and exploitable sexuality In other words who is playing who Black Women Agency and the New Black Feminism identifies a generational divide between traditional black feminists and younger black women While traditional black feminists may see for example sexualized images of black women negatively and as an impediment to progress younger black women tend to embrace these new images and see them in a positive light After carefully setting up this divide this enlightening book will suggest that a more complex understanding of black feminist agency needs to be developed one that is adapted to the complexities faced by the younger generation in today s world Arguing the concept of agency as an important theme for black feminism this innovative title will appeal to scholars teachers and students interested in black feminist and feminist philosophy identity construction subjectivity and agency race gender and class Ebony ,1991-02 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Reimagining Social Justice Scholarship Tamara Shefer,Carmine Rustin,Floretta Boonzaier,2025-09-25 Showcasing creative decolonial feminist and critical social justice scholarship located in a South African context this book works across modalities and disciplines and within art and activism to challenge hegemonic and oppressive forms of gender and sexuality In the wake of decolonial activism in higher education and civil society since 2015 and the larger struggle for equality and justice Shefer Rustin Boonzaier and their contributors draw primarily from the work of local research and pedagogical projects directed at alternative imaginaries of gender and sexual justice with global import Increasingly scholars are engaging in collaborative dialogical and creative work that foregrounds performance art music crafts literature as well as embodied affective and relational engagements in the making of knowledge This book shares some of these diverse counter hegemonic pedagogies and research approaches that bring an intersectional and decolonial feminist lens to contemporary efforts to decolonise higher education and larger civil society Producing lines of thought and sharing praxis that destabilises disrupts and opens up new possibilities for justice scholarship the book provides a space for going beyond critical reflexivity in research and practice related to gender and sexual inequalities It seeks to make a scholarly intervention founded on rethinking its own grounds through collaborations with knowledges often deployed by those outside the authoritative expert domains of academia aligning it with feminist and decolonial aims This book is a valuable resource for students and scholars of gender sexuality and intersectionality particularly those with a focus on the global South

NUMA Larry Numa, 2025-03-25 Growing up Black in New Orleans Larry Numa had a rougher life than the white kids in neighboring communities and this discrimination and racism would follow him throughout his life Yet his family always encouraged him to overcome any obstacles with thinking and good judgment his parents giving their children as much light and love in their home as they could As he grew older and entered the Navy Larry Numa saw just how deep racism lies in the chain of command within the military Yet through the life lessons of his elders he rose through the ranks and got to see many parts of the world others have only dreamed of His inspirational tale is one of wading through the muck and ugliness of the world and to come out on top About the author Larry Numa seventy nine now retired enjoys educating veterans on the many benefits available to them through the VA He is a proud father and his daughter Monique is trying to pay back the goodness he has enriched in her life As the saying goes The apple does not fall far from the tree

Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka, 2010-03-08 When Frantz Fanon's critiques of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism are brought into the ever widening orbit of Africana critical theory something unprecedented in the annals of Africana intellectual history happens five distinct forms of Fanonism emerge Forms of Fanonism Frantz Fanon's Critical Theory and the Dialectics of Decolonization is discursively distinguished from other engagements of Fanon's thought and texts insofar as it is the first study to consciously examine his contributions to Africana Studies and critical theory or rather the Africana tradition of critical theory Forms of Fanonism identifies and intensely analyzes Fanon's contributions to the deconstruction and reconstruction of Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory In highlighting his unique solutions to the problems of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism five distinct forms of Fanonism materialize These five forms of Fanonism allow contemporary critical theorists to innovatively explore the ways in which his thought and texts can be dialectically put to use in relieving the wretched experience of this generation's wretched of the earth Critics can also apply these forms to deconstruct and reconstruct Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory using their anti imperialist interests Throughout Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka critically dialogues with Fanon incessantly asking his corpus critical questions and seeking from it crucial answers This book in short solemnly keeps with Fanon's own predilection for connecting critical theory to revolutionary praxis by utilizing his thought and texts as paradigms and points of departure to deepen and develop the Africana tradition of critical theory Ode to an Ebony Rose Dino Dhamphyr, 2023-02-01 Ode to an Ebony Rose is a powerful and evocative collection of poems that explores the complexities and beauty of African American identity From self love and appreciation to the harsh realities of social injustice this book is a tribute to the resilience and strength of the black community With raw emotion and lyrical language each poem in Ode to an Ebony Rose delves deep into the soul painting vivid portraits of the African American experience Whether it be a celebration of black beauty an ode to the powerful women who came before us or a call to action against the systemic inequalities that persist in society this book offers a nuanced and poignant look at the world Through its rich imagery and heartfelt words Ode to an Ebony Rose invites readers to join in a chorus of hope love and empowerment This book is a must read for anyone seeking to better understand and appreciate the richness and diversity of the black experience So come take a journey with us as we pay homage to the ebony rose that blooms amidst adversity and shines with beauty and grace Ebony, 1981-08 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine Black Love Matters Jessica P. Pryde, 2022-02-01 An incisive intersectional essay anthology that celebrates and examines romance and romantic media through the lens of Black readers writers and cultural commentators edited by Book Riot columnist and librarian Jessica Pryde Romantic love has been one of the most essential elements of storytelling for centuries But for Black people in the United States and across the diaspora it hasn't often been easy to find Black romance joyfully showcased in entertainment media In this collection revered authors and sparkling newcomers librarians and academicians and avid readers and reviewers consider the mirrors and windows into Black love as it is depicted in the novels television shows and films that have shaped their own stories Whether personal reflection or cultural commentary these essays delve into Black love now and in the past including topics from the history of Black romance to social justice and the Black community to the meaning of desire and desirability Exploring the multifaceted ways love is seen and the ways it isn't this diverse array of Black voices collectively shines a light on the power of crafting happy endings for Black lovers Jessica Pryde is joined by Carole V Bell Sarah Hannah Gomez Jasmine Guillory Da Shaun Harrison Margo Hendricks Adriana Herrera Piper Huguley Kosoko Jackson Nicole M Jackson Beverly Jenkins Christina C Jones Julie Moody Freeman and Allie Parker in this collection Perfect Loving Christopher J. Mickel, Dr. Elijah Mickel, CRT, 2016-10-31 Perfect Loving Forty Eight to Eighty Four by Christopher J Mickel Dr Elijah Mickel CRT Centering on the themes of love life family and friendship Perfect Loving Forty Eight to Eighty Four uses eclectic poetry to describe define and divine perfect love In part it is an extension of co author Dr Elijah Mickel's earlier work Two Plants One Flower the poems contained within infuse the authors creativity constructing cultural and community concerns while honoring the past present and future of the authors Black Dignity Vincent W. Lloyd, 2022-11-15 Why Black dignity is the paradigm of all dignity and Black philosophy is the starting point of all philosophy This radical work by one of the leading young scholars of Black thought delineates a new concept of Black dignity yet one with a long history in Black writing and action Previously in the West dignity has been seen in two ways as something inherent in one's station in life whether acquired or conferred by birth or more recently as an essential condition and right common to all of humanity In what might be called a work of observational philosophy an effort to describe the philosophy underlying the Black Lives Matter movement Lloyd defines dignity as something performative not an essential quality but an action struggle against domination Without struggle there is no dignity He defines anti Blackness as an inescapable condition of American life and the slave's struggle against the master as the primal scene of domination and resistance Exploring the way Black writers such as Frederick Douglass Langston Hughes and Audre Lorde have dealt with themes such as Black rage Black love and Black magic Lloyd posits that Black dignity is the paradigm of all dignity and more audaciously that Black philosophy is the starting point of all philosophy
