Black Manifesto Robert S. Lecky, Elliott Wright, 1969 The Black Manifesto addressed to the white Christian churches and the Jewish synagogues in the United States was presented by James Forman to the Black Economic Development Conference in Detroit and adopted in April 1969 Among other things the Manifesto demanded that the churches and synagogues pay 500 million in reparations to black people Robert S Lecky s and H Elliott Wright s Black Manifesto Religion Racism and Reparations is a collection of eight essays reflecting upon racism and the churches in the light and heat of the Manifesto The editors have themselves contributed a useful introduction that sketches the background out of which the Manifesto emerged documents the responses of the white churches to it and considers the case for reparations Adapted from the New York times March 15 1970 Housing and Planning References ,1970 Library Journal ,2003 The Age of Apology Mark Gibney,2008 In The Age of Apology twenty two law politics and human rights scholars explore the legal political social historical moral religious and anthropological aspects of Western apologies Christian Ethics in the Protestant Tradition Waldo Beach,1988-01-01 With Christian Ethics in the Protestant Tradition Waldo Beach provides a basic introductory text on Christian ethics He has designed a challenging work that grapples with the ethical questions surrounding modern day problems from the perspective of Protestant theology and tradition His two part format is especially helpful for study The Publishers Weekly ,1970 Lutheran Forum ,1969 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1972 Religion in the Lands That Became America Thomas A. Tweed,2025-05-13 A sweeping retelling of American religious history showing how religion has enhanced and hindered human flourishing from the Ice Age to the Information Age Until now the standard narrative of American religious history has begun with English settlers in Jamestown or Plymouth and remained predominantly Protestant and Atlantic Driven by his strong sense of the historical and moral shortcomings of the usual story Thomas A Tweed offers a very different narrative in this ambitious new history He begins the story much earlier 11 000 years ago at a rock shelter in present day Texas and follows Indigenous Peoples African Americans transnational migrants and people of many faiths as they transform the landscape and confront the big lifeway transitions from foraging to farming and from factories to fiber optics Setting aside the familiar narrative themes he highlights sustainability showing how religion both promoted and inhibited individual communal and environmental flourishing during three sustainability crises the medieval Cornfield Crisis which destabilized Indigenous ceremonial centers the Colonial Crisis which began with the displacement of Indigenous Peoples and the enslavement of Africans and the Industrial Crisis which brought social inequity and environmental degradation The unresolved Colonial and Industrial Crises continue to haunt the nation Tweed suggests but he recovers historical sources of hope as he retells the rich story of America s religious past Red, White and Black ,1970 Ethnic American Literature Dean J. Franco,2006 Offers a comparative approach to ethnic literature that begins by accounting for the intrinsic historical geographical and political contingencies of different American cultures This work looks at a range of writing from novels to literature The Book Buyer's Guide ,1969 Library-College Journal ,1970 Paperbound Book Guide for Colleges ,1972 Public Affairs Information Service Bulletin ,1972 Choice ,1970 To be Black in America Free Library of Philadelphia,1970 Learning Today ,1970 Racism in the United States Meyer

Weinberg,1990-05-21 This volume represents the most comprehensive book length bibliography on the subject of racism available in the United States Compiler Meyer Weinberg has surveyed a wide ranging group of material and classified it under 87 subject headings drawing on articles books congressional hearings and reports theses and dissertations research reports and investigative journalism Historical references cover the long history of racism while the heightened awareness and activity of the recent past is also addressed in detail In addition to works that fit the narrow definition of racism as a mode of oppression or group denial of rights based on color Weinberg includes references dealing with sexism antisemitism economic exploitation and similar forms of dehumanization References are grouped under a series of subject headings that include Civil Rights Desegregation Housing Socialism and Racism Unemployment and Violence against Minorities Items which do not have self explanatory titles are annotated and virtually every section is thoroughly cross referenced Also included is one section of carefully selected references on racism in countries other than the United States Unlike the remainder of the book this section is not comprehensive but rather provides an opportunity to view racism comparatively The volume concludes with an author index This work will be a significant addition to both academic and public libraries as well as an important resource for courses in racism sociology and black history Introduction to African American Studies

Talmadge Anderson,James Benjamin Stewart,2007 There is an ongoing debate as to whether African American Studies is a discipline or multidisciplinary or interdisciplinary field Some scholars assert that African American Studies use a well defined common approach in examining history politics and the family in the same way as scholars in the disciplines of economics sociology and political science Other scholars consider African American Studies multidisciplinary a field somewhat comparable to the field of education in which scholars employ a variety of disciplinary lenses be they anthropological psychological historical etc to study the African world experience In this model the boundaries between traditional disciplines are accepted and researches in African American Studies simply conduct discipline based an analysis of particular topics Finally another group of scholars insists that African American Studies is interdisciplinary an enterprise that generates distinctive analyses by combining perspectives from d
