Black Migrants: White Natives Daniel Lawrence, 1974-06-27 Monograph comprising a case study of race relations in the Nottingham urban area in the UK to demonstrate that a lack of overt racial conflict should not be confused with a state of harmonious social integration presents the research results of an attitude survey of West Indian and Asian immigrants and covers racial discrimination in housing and employment the political aspects of race relations the role of race relations associations etc Bibliography pp 241 to 251 maps and statistical tables

Black Migrants: White Natives Daniel Lawrence, 1992 From Immigrants to Ethnic Minority Lorna Chessum, 2017-07-05 This text will be the first social history of a black community in modern times which attempts to weave many aspects of life together to give a more comprehensive understanding of the lives of black people in Britain

An Immigration History of Britain Panikos Panayi, 2014-09-11 Immigration ethnicity multiculturalism and racism have become part of daily discourse in Britain in recent decades yet far from being new these phenomena have characterised British life since the 19th century While the numbers of immigrants increased after the Second World War groups such as the Irish Germans and East European Jews have been arriving settling and impacting on British society from the Victorian period onwards In this comprehensive and fascinating account Panikos Panayi examines immigration as an ongoing process in which ethnic communities evolve as individuals choose whether to retain their ethnic identities and customs or to integrate and assimilate into wider British norms Consequently he tackles the contradictions in the history of immigration over the past two centuries migration versus government control migrant poverty versus social mobility ethnic identity versus increasing Anglicisation and above all racism versus multiculturalism Providing an important historical context to contemporary debates and taking into account the complexity and variety of individual experiences over time this book demonstrates that no simple approach or theory can summarise the migrant experience in Britain

Outsiders Inside Bronwen Walter, 2002-05-03 Notions of diaspora are central to contemporary debates about race ethnicity identity and nationalism Yet the Irish diaspora one of the oldest and largest is often excluded on the grounds of whiteness Outsiders Inside explores the themes of displacement and the meanings of home for these women and their descendants Juxtaposing the visibility of Irish women in the United States with their marginalization in Britain Bronwen Walter challenges linear notions of migration and assimilation by demonstrating that two forms of identification can be held simultaneously In an age when the Northern Ireland peace process is rapidly changing global perceptions of Irishness Outsiders Inside moves the empirical study of the Irish diaspora out of the ghetto of Irish Studies and into the mainstream challenging theorists and policy makers to pay attention to the issue of white diversity

Education, Racism and Reform (RLE Edu J) Barry Troyna, Bruce Carrington, 2012-04-27 In this introductory text the authors look closely at widely held assumptions about race and schooling in Britain and evaluate the role of the school in a multi ethnic society Focusing on contemporary issues and concerns they consider such controversial questions as Is the education system rigged against black pupils Is tolerance really a characteristic of the British The volume provides a detailed analysis of the Education Reform Act 1988 and the debate surrounding the National Curriculum and asks whether these new initiatives do truly open the doors of opportunity for all children

Colonized by Humanity Rob Waters, 2023-09-05 Colonization through a process of affection wrote the London based Barbadian novelist George Lamming in 1960 was the worst form of colonization Lamming's London was marked by the violent currents of racism some seen many disavowed But the operations of race the putting in place of its hierarchies the destructions of the self that its logics entailed exceeded only expressions of violence and hatred It was in affection too that colonialism's racial visions operated It was not only among the illiberals but among the liberals that colonization continued its hold on metropolitan culture This was colonization as Lamming would also put it by humanity Colonized by Humanity is a study of racial liberalism at the end of empire It uncovers the projects to cultivate racial integration developed in the two decades between the arrival of the Empire Windrush and the passage of the first Race Relations Act These were the years that integrationism took hold as a social phenomenon its reflexes lodged deep in an English culture that took the idea of tolerance as its watchword It was a culture that re inscribed race even as it aimed at overcoming its discriminations Caribbean London is at the heart of this story It was in the capital that integration projects multiplied fastest and it was the multicultural capital that provided integrationism's imaginative geographies Viewing integrationism through the eyes of Caribbean Londoners Colonized by Humanity allows us to see it as they did with its colonial and racial dynamics up close

In Place of Work Rob Fiddy, 2024-09-18 Originally published in 1983 this book promotes understanding of the provision for the young unemployed in Britain in the 1980s both in policy and practice through a series of research based papers Various strategies are analyzed which were available to policy makers The place of black youth amongst the unemployed and the connections between unemployment and street violence are also discussed The book focusses on Britain but high levels of youth unemployment were found all over the Western world during that period

Black and Ethnic Leaderships Pnina Werbner, 2009 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Unsung Stories of Black Women's Activism in the UK Adele Jones, Diana Watt, 2024-09-27 This book is a long overdue contribution to the history of Black feminist activism in the UK It provides unique insights into both historical and contemporary issues that impact Black women their families and their communities including immigration education policing domestic violence and poverty It fills a void in sociological and feminist literature by centring the voices lived experiences and perspectives of women of the African and Caribbean Diaspora in the UK Through the use of research archival materials narrative interviews photographs poems and reflective conversations the authors explore the social issues which inspired these women's action for change In drawing on personal and professional testimonies grounded in over two decades of community activism and scholarly analysis the authors weave together the story of the Abasindi Cooperative a woman's organisation famed for its progressive and far reaching social justice programmes In so doing the authors reveal narratives of political struggle that have their resonance in present day society This book is an acknowledgment and celebration of the sociopolitical activism and achievements of Black women in the UK and represents the hope solidarity and triumph possible when women organise collectively to tackle social and racial injustice Middle-Class Blacks in Britain Sharon J.

Daye,2016-07-27 This book examines the relationship between race and class and considers how these two concepts articulate to determine class relationships in British society Daye argues that race in the form of structural racism plays a significant role at two levels Firstly it serves to determine the class position of black labour and secondly determines the type of race class and political consciousness generated by black labour in Britain Using empirical data this volume provides an important contribution to the race class debate

British Immigration Policy Since 1939 Ian R.G. Spencer,2002-11 The first survey of British Immigration policy to include both its pre World War Two origins and its development after the crucial 1962 Commonwealth Immigrants Act An accessible introduction to a subject of increasing popularity A Centenary History of Nottingham J. V. Beckett,1997 This new study of Nottingham over the past one thousand years is the most comprehensive account of the city's development ever produced This book may be of interest to urban historians and those interested in the evolution of a British industrial city

Race and Racism Peter Jackson,2003-09-02 First Published in 1987 In September 1985 the Social Geography Study Group of the Institute of British Geographers held a three day conference at Coventry Lanchester Polytechnic on the subject of Race and Racism The present volume is a selection of essays derived from some of the papers that were given at the conference together with one newly commissioned paper by Susan Smith and an introductory essay

Colonial Immigrants in a British City John Rex,Sally Tomlinson,David Hearnden,Peter Ratcliffe,2022-11-16 Colonial Immigrants in a British City 1979 analyses the relationship between West Indian and Asian immigrants and the class structure of a British city Based on a four year research project in the Handsworth area of Birmingham the book is a study of race and community relations political social economic and personal in a major centre of immigrant settlement It considers the relationship between housing class and class formations and consciousness in other sectors of allocation such as employment and education It includes a consideration of the changing political climate on race relations between 1950 and 1976

In a New Land Nancy Foner,2005-08 According to the 2000 census more than 10% of U S residents were foreign born together with their American born children this group constitutes one fifth of the nation's population

Race and Labour in Twentieth-Century Britain Kenneth Lunn,2019-08-16 This collection of essays was put together with a view to furthering the study of the history of immigration into Britain Naturally enough a good deal of attention in recent years has been directed at race relations in Britain from the 1960s onwards As Peter Fryer's study

Staying Power 1984 has shown there is a rich and important history of black settlement before these years and its significance in shaping responses towards more recent migrants has still to be adequately evaluated We are constantly being reminded of the legacy of empire and its importance in terms of influencing current policy and attitudes
