Black On Black Baby Sister And Selected Writings:

Black on Black Chester B. Himes, 1975 The Concise Oxford Companion to African American Literature

William L. Andrews, Frances Smith Foster, Trudier Harris, 2001-02-15 A breathtaking achievement this Concise Companion is a suitable crown to the astonishing production in African American literature and criticism that has swept over American literary studies in the last two decades. It offers an enormous range of writers from Sojourner Truth to Frederick Douglass from Zora Neale Hurston to Ralph Ellison and from Toni Morrison to August Wilson. It contains entries on major works including synopses of novels such as Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl, Richard Wright's Native Son and Lorraine Hansberry's A Raisin in the Sun. It also incorporates information on literary characters such as Big Boy Thomas Coffin, Ed Johnson, Kunta Kinte, Sula, Peace, as well as on character types such as Aunt Jemima, Brer Rabbit, John Henry, Stackolee, and the trickster. Icons of black culture are addressed including vivid details about the lives of Muhammad Ali, John Coltrane, Marcus Garvey, Jackie Robinson, John Brown, and Harriet Tubman. Here too are general articles on poetry, fiction, and drama; on autobiography, slave narratives, Sunday School literature, and oratory, as well as on a wide spectrum of related topics. Compact yet thorough, this handy volume gathers works from a vast array of sources from the black periodical press to women's clubs, making it one of the most substantial guides available on the growing, exciting world of African American literature.

Gothic to Multicultural A. Robert Lee, 2009 Gothic to Multicultural: Idioms of Imagining in American Literary Fiction. Twenty-three essays, each carefully revised from the past four decades, explore both range and individual register. The collection opens with considerations of gothic as light and dark in Charles Brockden Brown, war and peace in Cooper's The Spy, Antarctica as world genesis in Poe's The Narrative of Arthur Gordon Pym, the link of The Custom House and main text in Hawthorne's The Scarlet Letter, reflexive codings in Melville's Moby-Dick and The Confidence-Man, Henry James, Hawthorne as self-mirroring biography, and Stephen Crane's working of his Civil War episode in The Red Badge of Courage. Two composite lineages address apocalypse in African American fiction and landscape in women's authorship from Sarah Orne Jewett to Leslie Marmon Silko. There follow culture and anarchy in Henry James, The Princess Casamassima, text into film in Edith Wharton's The Age of Innocence, modernist stylings in Fitzgerald, Faulkner, and Hemingway, and roman noir in Cornell Woolrich. The collection then turns to the limitations of protest categorization for Richard Wright and Chester Himes, autofiction in J.D. Salinger's The Catcher in the Rye, and the novel of ideas in Robert Penn Warren's late fiction. Three closing essays take up multicultural genealogy, Harlem, then the Black South in African American fiction, and the reclamation of voice in Native American fiction. A. Robert Lee is Professor of American Literature at Nihon University, Tokyo, having previously taught at the University of Kent, UK. His publications include Designs of Blackness: Mappings in the Literature and Culture of Afro-America (1998), Multicultural American Fiction: Comparative Black, Native, Latino, and Asian American Fictions (2003), which won the American Book Award for 2004, Japan Textures: Sight and Word with Mark Gresham (2007), and United States

Re viewing Multicultural American Literature 2008 Of Sex and Faerie: further essays on Genre Fiction John Lennard, 2010 Taking up where Of Modern Dragons 2007 left off these essays continue Lennard's investigation of the praxis of serial reading and the best genre fiction of recent decades including work by Bill James Walter Mosley Lois McMaster Bujold and Ursula K Le Guin There are groundbreaking studies of contemporary paranormal romance and of Hornblower's transition to space while the final essay deals with the phenomenon and explosive growth of fanfiction and with the increasingly empowered status of the reader in a digital world There is an extensive bibliography of genre and critical work with eight illustrations John Lennard is Director of Studies at Hughes Hall Cambridge and has also taught for the Universities of London Notre Dame and for the Open University and was Professor of British American Literature at the University of the West Indies Mona 2004 09 Of Modern Dragons and other essays on genre fiction 2007 is also available from Lulu

Cultural Resistance Reader Stephen Duncombe, 2002 From the Diggers seizing St George Hill in 1649 to Hacktivists staging virtual sit ins in the 21st century from the retributive fantasies of Robin Hoods to those of gangsta rappers culture has long been used as a political weapon This expansive and carefully crafted reader brings together many of the classic texts that help to define culture as a tool of resistance With concise illuminating introductions throughout it presents a range of theoretical and historical writings that have influenced contemporary debate and includes a number of new activist authors published here for the first time Cultural Resistance Reader is both an invaluable scholarly resource and a tool for political activists But most importantly it will inspire everyday readers to resist Worlds of Difference Eleanor Palo

Stoller, Rose Campbell Gibson, 2000 This collection of readings presents a variety of perspectives on ageing from different communities across the United States Native American Puerto Rican African American the elderly homeless white working class gay and Mexican amongst many others The readings cover topics such as life course social and psychological contexts of ageing paid and unpaid activity the American family and health Popular Culture in the Age of White Flight Eric

Avila, 2006-04 In Popular Culture in the Age of White Flight Eric Avila offers a unique argument about the restructuring of urban space in the two decades following World War II and the role played by new suburban spaces in dramatically transforming the political culture of the United States Avila's work helps us see how and why the postwar suburb produced the political culture of balanced budget conservatism that is now the dominant force in politics how the eclipse of the New Deal since the 1970s represents not only a change of views but also an alteration of spaces George Lipsitz author of The Possessive Investment in Whiteness The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient

Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation s creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential

Contemporary Black American Playwrights and Their Plays Bernard L. Peterson Jr.,1988-05-17 This work provides a wealth of information on obscure and overlooked American playwrights as well as some famous ones it will be a welcome addition for collections specializing in the theater arts Reference Books Bulletin This directory and index the first such volume devoted exclusively to contemporary black American dramatists will have an important place in theatre collections It captures and preserves an elusive part of artistic endeavor giving access to literally thousands of dramatic works that would otherwise be lost to scholars and the public Organized as an encyclopedia it provides information on more than 600 noteworthy Black American playwrights whose plays have been written produced or published between 1950 and the present The volume begins with an introductory essay surveying the history of contemporary black American drama Playwrights screenwriters radio and television scriptwriters and musical theatre collaborators are treated in individual entries that comprise the bulk of the book The volume also supplies a bibliography of anthologies books and periodicals cited mailing addresses for more than 200 of the playwrights and title and subject indexes That's the Joint!

Murray Forman,Mark Anthony Neal,2004 Spanning 25 years of serious writing on hip hop by noted scholars and mainstream journalists this comprehensive anthology includes observations and critiques on groundbreaking hip hop recordings The Recursive Frontier Michael Docherty,2024-05-01 The Recursive Frontier is an innovative spatial history of both the literature of Los Angeles and the city itself in the mid twentieth century Setting canonical texts alongside underexamined works and sources such as census bulletins and regional planning documents Michael Docherty identifies the American frontier as the defining dynamic of Los Angeles fiction from the 1930s to the 1950s Contrary to the received wisdom that Depression era narratives mourn the frontier's demise Docherty argues that the frontier lives on as a cruel set of rules for survival in urban modernity governing how texts figure race space mobility and masculinity Moving from dancehalls to offices to oil fields and beyond the book provides a richer more diverse picture of LA's literary production during this period as well as a vivid account of LA's cultural and social development as it transformed into the multiethnic megalopolis we know today

African-American Writers Philip Bader, 2014-05-14 African American authors have consistently explored the political dimensions of literature and its ability to affect social change African American literature has also provided an essential framework for shaping cultural identity and solidarity From the early slave narratives to the folklore and dialect verse of the Harlem Renaissance to the modern novels of today

Hard-boiled Masculinities Christopher Breu, 2005 The persona of the American male in the period between the two world wars was characterized by physical strength emotional detachment aggressive behavior and an amoral worldview This ideal of a hard boiled masculinity can be seen in the pages and even more vividly on the covers of magazines such as Black Mask which shifted from Victorian influenced depictions of men in top hats and mustaches in the early 1920s to the portrayal of much more overtly violent and muscular men Looking closely at this transformation Christopher Breu offers a complex account of how and why hard boiled masculinity emerged during an unsettled time of increased urbanization and tenuous peace and traces the changes in its cultural conception as it moved back and forth across the divide between high and low culture as well as the color line that bifurcated American society Examining the work of Ernest Hemingway Dashiell Hammett Chester Himes and William Faulkner as well as many lesser known writers for the hypermasculine pulp magazines of the 1920s and 1930s Breu illustrates how the tough male was a product of cultural fantasy one that shored up gender and racial stereotypes as a way of lashing out at the destabilizing effects of capitalism and social transformation Christopher Breu is assistant professor of English at Illinois State University

The Critical Response to Chester Himes Charles L. P. Silet, 1999-10-30 The work of Chester Himes is now undergoing a critical and popular reevaluation as it gradually comes back into print after years of neglect His protest novels from the 1940s and early 1950s his Harlem Domestic crime books first published in France and later released in English in the United States and his remarkable two volume autobiography are now gaining a wider readership through their republication Nonetheless the critical writings on his work remain scattered and are often difficult to obtain This collection of reviews and essays from both popular and academic sources traces the critical response to his work from 1946 to 1996 and thus sheds light on the critical reputation of one of the most distinguished but underrated African American authors Himes has a wide international reputation but this reference book focuses on those essays and reviews in the English language which provide a clearer assessment of his controversial literary standing in his native country where his reputation has been most under debate The book includes a balanced assessment of all his work along with an interview with Himes's brother that offers some corrective commentary on his autobiography The volume also provides a chronology a checklist of his writings and a bibliography

African American Almanac Lean'tin Bracks, 2023-10-17 Courage resilience and triumph Celebrating the African American experience the extraordinary people and their profound influence on American history African Americans helped build the United States Their contributions deeds and influence are interwoven into the fabric of the country Celebrating centuries of achievements the African American Almanac 400 Years of Black Excellence provides insights on the impact and inspiration of African Americans on U S society and culture spanning centuries and presented in a fascinating mix of biographies historical facts and enlightening essays on significant legislation and movements Covering events surrounding African American literature art and music the civil rights movement religion within the black community advances in science and medicine and politics education business the military sports theater film and television this important reference connects history to the issues currently facing the African American community The African American Almanac also honors the lives and contributions of 800 influential figures including Stacey Abrams Muhammad Ali Maya Angelou Josephine Baker Amiri Baraka Daisy Bates Reginald Wayne Betts Simone Biles Cory Bush Bisa Butler George Washington Carver Ray Charles Bessie Coleman Claudette Colvin Gary Davis Frederick Douglass W E B Du Bois Michael Eric Dyson Duke Ellington Margie Eugene Richard Medgar Evers Henry Louis Gates Jr Roxane Gay Amanda Gorman Nicole Hanna Jones Eric H Holder Jr Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston Ketanji Brown Jackson LeBron James Mae C Jemison Gayle King Martin Luther King Jr Queen Latifah Jacob Lawrence Kevin Liles Thurgood Marshall Walter Mosley Elijah Muhammad Barack Obama Gordon Parks Rosa Parks Richard Pryor Condoleezza Rice Smokey Robinson Wilma Rudolph Betty Shabazz Tavis Smiley Dasia Taylor Clarence Thomas Sojourner Truth Harriet Ross Tubman C Delores Tucker Usher Denmark Vesey Alice Walker Raphael Warnock Booker T Washington Denzel Washington Cornell West Colson Whitehead Justus Williams Serena Williams Oprah Winfrey Malcolm X and many more Completely updated and revised for the first time in over a decade the African American Almanac looks at the recent challenges from the Black Lives Movement to Covid 19 and ongoing resilience of our nation and it shines a light on our momentous and complicated history the individual accomplishments and contributions of the celebrated and unsung but no less worthy people who built our country and who continue to influence American society Comprehensive and richly illustrated it thoroughly explores the past progress and current conditions of America This seminal work is the most complete and affordable single volume reference of African American culture and history available today and it illustrates and demystifies the emotionally moving complex and often lost history of black life in America

The Routledge Reader of African American Rhetoric Vershawn Ashanti Young, Michelle Bachelor Robinson, 2024-11-01 The Routledge Reader of African American Rhetoric is a comprehensive compendium of primary texts that is designed for use by students teachers and scholars of rhetoric and for the general public interested in the history of African American communication The volume and its companion website include dialogues creative works essays folklore music interviews news stories raps videos and speeches that are performed or written by African Americans Both the book as a whole and the various selections in it speak directly to the artistic cultural economic gendered social and political condition of African Americans from the enslavement period in America to the present as well as to the Black Diaspora

The several lives of Chester Himes, 1997 The Writings of Chester Himes are colored by a fascinating blend of hatred and tenderness of hard boiled realism and generous idealism His life was complex his relationships complicated How did this gifted son of a respectable southern black family become a juvenile delinquent How did he acquire self esteem and a new sense of identity by writing short stories while in the Ohio state penitentiary Drawn from his letters notebooks memoirs and fiction this straightforward account of Himes's varied episodic life attempts to trace the origins of his significant literary gift It details the socioeconomic familial and cultural background that fed his ambivalent views on race in America His Deep South childhood his adolescence in the Midwest his young manhood in prison his years as a menial laborer his struggle as an author in California and New York City and finally his glory days as an expatriate and celebrity in France and Spain are plumbed deeply for their effects upon his creative urges and his works In his native country Himes is recalled more as the author of successful detective novels such as Cotton Comes to Harlem than as a practitioner of the art of fiction In France and Spain his adopted countries he is regarded as a literary master This critical biography is the bittersweet story of a troubled man who found salvation in writing

The African American West Bruce A. Glasrud, Laurie Champion, 2000 A collection of stories written by African American authors about the American West over the course of the twentieth century

Popular Fronts Bill V Mullen, 2024-04-22 The Communist International's Popular Front campaign of the 1930s brought to the fore ideas that resonated in Chicago's African American community Indeed the Popular Front not only connected to the black experience of the era but outlasted its Communist Party affiliation to serve as both model and inspiration for a postwar cultural insurrection led by African Americans With a new preface Bill V Mullen updates his dynamic reappraisal of a critical moment in American cultural history Mullen's study includes reassessments of the politics of Richard Wright's critical reputation and a provocative reading of class struggle in Gwendolyn Brooks' A Street in Bronzeville He also takes an in depth look at the institutions that comprised Chicago's black popular front the Chicago Defender the period's leading black newspaper Negro Story the first magazine devoted to publishing short stories by and about African Americans and the WPA sponsored South Side Community Art Center

On the Real Side Mel Watkins, 1999-05-01 This comprehensive history of black humor sets it in the context of American popular culture Blackface minstrelsy Stepin Fetchit and the Amos n Andy show presented a distorted picture of African Americans this book contrasts this image with the authentic underground humor of African Americans found in folktales race records and all black shows and films After generations of stereotypes the underground humor finally emerged before the American public with Richard Pryor in the 1970s But Pryor was not the first popular comic to present authentically black humor

Watkins offers surprising reassessments of such seminal figures as Fetchit Bert Williams Moms Mabley and Redd Foxx looking at how they paved the way for contemporary comics such as Whoopi Goldberg Eddie Murphy and Bill Cosby
