Black Or White A Novel:

Black and White Thomas Bradbury Chetwood, 1928 Contemporary Fiction Jago Morrison, 2003 A much needed introduction to the field of contemporary fiction studies Introduces key areas of debate and offers in depth discussions of the most significant texts An ideal guide for those studying contemporary fiction for the first time The Spectacle of Twins in American Literature and Popular Culture Karen Dillon, 2018-07-26 The cultural fantasy of twins imagines them as physically and behaviorally identical Media portrayals consistently offer the spectacle of twins who share an insular closeness and perform a supposed likeness standing side by side speaking and acting in unison Treating twinship as a cultural phenomenon this first comprehensive study of twins in American literature and popular culture examines the historical narrative within the discourses of experimentation aberrance and eugenics and how it has shaped their representations in the 20th and 21st centuries GERTRUDE STEIN Ultimate Collection: Novels, Short Stories, Poetry, Plays, Memoirs & Essays Gertrude Stein, 2023-12-10 Gertrude Stein s Ultimate Collection encapsulates the avant garde spirit of her literary oeuvre presenting a rich tapestry of novels short stories poetry plays memoirs and essays Stein s experimental style eschews traditional narrative forms employing stream of consciousness techniques and a unique use of repetition that invites the reader to immerse themselves in the rhythm of her prose This collection not only showcases her contributions to modernism but also reflects the zeitgeist of the early 20th century a period of profound cultural and artistic upheaval that Stein was pivotal in shaping Gertrude Stein an American expatriate in Paris was at the forefront of the artistic movements of her time befriending luminaries such as Pablo Picasso and Ernest Hemingway Her own experiences as a Jewish woman and a groundbreaking writer informed her exploration of identity language and the very nature of art itself Stein s insistence on the significance of the structure and sound of language reveals her innovative approach to writing emerging from her deep engagement with both psychology and the avant garde This collection is a treasure for both aficionados of modernist literature and newcomers alike offering an expansive view of Stein s intellectual landscape Readers will find in this anthology not just a compilation of her works but a gateway into the mind of a literary revolutionary whose legacy continues to influence writers and artists today Black and White Paul Volponi, 2009-07-01 A novel for secondary school English classes with great writing and important themes Voices and Visions Nancy Dixon, Leslie Petty, 2025-01-15 Contributions by Ruth R Caillouet Mary C Carruth Nancy Dixon Kathleen Downes Edward J Dupuy Shari Evans Paul Fess Carina Evans Hoffpauir Leslie Petty Heidi Podlasi Labrenz Tierney S Powell Shanna M Salinas Matthew Teutsch and Marcus Charles Tribbett Voices and Visions Essays on New Orleans s Literary History examines a rich combination of writers and texts from antebellum works like Martin R Delany s novel Blake and the poetry of Les Cénelles to Patricia Smith s recent collection of poems Blood Dazzler The thirteen essays in Voices and Visions treat two hundred years of literature and include discussions on canonical contemporary and experimental writers Authors often associated with New Orleans such as Kate Chopin George

Washington Cable and Walker Percy are treated in new ways as are well known writers who are not often thought of in relation to the city Charles Chesnutt Eudora Welty Zora Neale Hurston and Joy Harjo Examining this wide array of voices demonstrates the myriad ways New Orleans's storied past has affected its present Scholars find enduring themes race gender religion disease art but do so in the context of emerging conversations Essayists in the volume address such topics as New Orleans as part of the Global South and the Black diaspora the transformation of New Orleans after Hurricane Katrina and the recovery of previously lost voices including those of Native Americans and immigrants They also discuss the legacy of pandemics and racial violence that in more recent years has been manifest in the COVID 19 outbreak and the Black Lives Matter movement

Intersectional Trauma in American Women Writers' Incest Novels from the 1990s Marinella Rodi-Risberg, 2022-03-24 This book explores the intersections of sexualized gendered and racialized traumas in five US novels about father daughter incest from the 1990s It examines how incest can be connected to wider past and present structural oppression and institutional abuse and what fiction looks like that testifies against and references a historical background of slavery poverty settler colonialism annexation and immigration Investigating the means of resistance used against attempts at silencing and denial in these texts the book also shows how contemporary women's novels can propose social change Overall this study uniquely argues that the individual trauma of incest in these texts must be understood in relation to histories of and present collective wounding against marginalized communities By sitting at the intersections between trauma theory and US third world feminism it allows for theory to meet literary activism

The Crisis, 1979-04 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Cyrus R. K. Patell, Deborah Lindsay Williams, 2024-03-05 The Oxford History of the Novel in English is a twelve volume series presenting a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction written by a large international team of scholars The series is concerned with novels as a whole not just the literary novel and each volume includes chapters on the processes of production distribution and reception and on popular fiction and the fictional sub genres as well as outlining the work of major novelists movements and tendencies This book offers an account of US fiction during a period demarcated by two traumatic moments the eve of the entry of the United States into the Second World War and the onset of the Covid 19 pandemic The aftermath of the Second World War was arguably the high point of US nationalism but in the years that followed US writers would increasingly explore the possibility that US democracy was a failure both at home and abroad For so many of the writers whose work this volume explores the idea of nation became suspect as did the idea of national literature as the foundation for US writing Looking at post 1940s writing the literary historian might well chart a movement within literary cultures away from nationalism and toward what we would call cosmopolitanism a perspective that fosters conversations between the occupants of different cultural spaces and that regards difference as an opportunity to be embraced rather than a problem to be solved During this period the novel has had significant competition for the US public's attention from other forms of narrative and media film television comic books videogames and the internet and the various forms of social media that it spawned If however the novel becomes a residual form during this period it is by no means archaic The novel has been reinvigorated over the past eighty years by its encounters with both emergent forms such as film television comic books and digital media and the emergent voices typically associated with multiculturalism in the United States

Psychoanalysis and Black Novels Claudia Tate, 1998 The author of this text argues that psychoanalytic paradigms can produce rich readings of African American desire alienation and subjectivity

Humanities, 1982

The Haunted States of America James Morgart, 2022-05-15 The study highlights several writers who have not received much if any attention among Gothic scholars This allows readers exposure to writers they may have never encountered before or may realize dimensions to the authors works they have never considered The study reconsiders scholarship's understanding of post war American literature This gives readers students and scholars a new approach to discussing post war fiction that is not delimited to widely accepted understanding of how Cold War anxieties were manifested in fiction The study contextualizes the fiction it examines within each work's respective region This allows readers a new way of approaching not just post war Gothic fiction but Gothic fiction in general

White on Black on White: a Novel, 2016

White Turrets Mrs. Molesworth, 1896

Deforming American Political Thought Michael J. Shapiro, 2016-02-19 Deforming American Political Thought offers an alternative to the dominant American historical imagination treating issues that range from the nature of Thomas Jefferson's vision of an egalitarian nation to the persistence of racial inequality Presenting multifaceted arguments that transcend the myopic scope of traditional political discourses Michael J Shapiro summons disparate disciplines and genres architecture crime stories novels films and jazz blues music among others to provide approaches to the comprehension of diverse facets of American political thought from the founding to the present The book's various investigations disclose that there have always been dissenting voices articulated in diverse genres of expression that cast doubt on the moral purpose and exceptionalism of the American mind This highly anticipated updated second edition features a preface focusing on aesthetic theory and the contributions of artistic genres for political analysis and a completely new chapter on critical thinking about the US western and urban encounters afforded by the two HBO series Deadwood and The Wire respectively

Multiethnic American Literatures Helane Adams Androne, 2014-11-19 This book provides original essays that suggest ways to engage students in the classroom with the cultural factors of American literature Some of the essays focus on individual authors works others view American literature more broadly and still others focus on the application of culturally based methods for reading All suggest a closer look at how ethnicity culture and pedagogy interact in the classroom to help students better understand the complexity of works by African Americans Native Americans Asian Americans Latinos and several other sometimes overlooked American cultural groups Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Black/White Writing Pauline Fletcher,1993 The volume closes with an essay by Gerald Monsman that takes the reader back to an earlier South Africa examining Olive Schreiner s writing in the broader context of other stories from an imperialist past Two poems by Dennis Brutus open the volume They speak eloquently of human suffering and the desire for peace Reimagining the Republic Sandra M. Gustafson,Robert Levine,2022-12-20 Albion W Tourg e 1838 1905 was a major force for social legal and literary transformation in the second half of the nineteenth century Best known for his Reconstruction novels A Fool s Errand 1879 and Bricks without Straw 1880 and for his key role in the civil rights case Plessy v Ferguson 1896 challenging Louisiana s law segregating railroad cars Tourg e published more than a dozen novels and a volume of short stories as well as nonfiction works of history law and politics This volume is the first collection focused on Tourg e s literary work and intends to establish his reputation as one of the great writers of fiction about the Reconstruction era arguably the greatest for the wide historical and geographical sweep of his novels and his ability to work with multiple points of view As a white novelist interested in the rights of African Americans Tourg e was committed to developing not a single Black perspective but multiple Black perspectives sometimes even in conflict The challenge was to do justice to those perspectives in the larger context of the story he wanted to tell about a multiracial America The seventeen essays in this volume are grouped around three large topics race citizenship and nation The volume also includes a Preface Introduction Afterword Bibliography and Chronology providing an overview of his career This collection changes the way that we view Tourg e by highlighting his contributions as a writer and editor and as a supporter of African American writers Exploring the full spectrum of his literary works and cultural engagements Reimagining the Republic Race Citizenship and Nation in the Literary Work of Albion Tourg e reveals a new Tourg e for our moment of renewed interest in the literature and politics of Reconstruction Dracula Roy & Dick, Adaptation from Novel
