Starks, 2024-03-19 When Shirley Chisholm was asked why she would dare run for president her response was why not her Shirley Anita St Hill Chisholm rose from being the child of immigrants to the United States to running for the highest office in the land She was both the first African American woman elected to the US Congress and the first African American woman of a major political party to make a serious run for president of the United States These achievements were not in spite of her background but rather because of it She persevered by being steadfast in her political convictions and unwilling to compromise on the issues she believed in Chisholm directly challenged the political establishment and gave a political voice to so many segments of society that were historically ignored women racial minorities young people the gay community domestic and agricultural workers and the poor not only in her home district in Brooklyn New York but across the country Her run for the 1972 Democratic presidential nomination may not have ended in victory but it was successful in forging a grassroots campaign that united diverse Americans behind a candidate who championed their collective interests Her efforts laid the groundwork for change then now and in the future Without Shirley Chisholm there may not have been a Hillary Clinton Barack Obama or Kamala Harris Black Visions Michael C. against black people over the last five hundred years in America I will show and also prove the absolute diabolism being applied throughout history against the masses of black people to keep us in a submissive role in this American society Through history I have assembled undisputed facts of this American conspiracy to destroy black people as America present their version of black people As black people aEUR not African Americans but black people aEUR we have the right to be our own selves We have the right to choose for ourselves We have a right to reject the lies and atrocities that America tells and have committed aEUR and are still committing We have the right to have the true history not this distorted American history It is our right to be free of everything America does we have nothing to gain I m telling the truth that the majority of civilization is trying to hide but can no longer hide Read everyone this is the absolute truth The New Colored People Jon M. Spencer, 2000-08 Most Americans remain oblivious of a new racial phenomenon that may radically alter the political landscape of the United States In recent years dramatic increases in racial intermarriage have given birth to a generation of mixed race children whose interracially married parents refuse to allow them to be shoehorned into neat pre existing racial categories The parents through organizations they have founded or joined have lobbied aggressively for the category multiracial to be added to official racial classifications at the state and federal levels including the United States census Since a nonracial society is one of the stated goals of the multiracialists Spencer suggests that the undoing of racial classification will come not by initiating a new classification which will only give Americans the impression that mixed race people can be neatly classified but by our increased recognition that there are millions of people who simply defy classification America, You Have Some Explaining to Do! Darnell L King-Cason, In a world where the complexities of race history and personal identity intersect I have embarked on a journey to share my reflections experiences and lessons learned throughout my life This book is not just a collection of stories it is a heartfelt exploration of love resilience and the unbreakable spirit of the African American community As I reflect on my life as a husband father and son I am reminded of the importance of understanding our past to shape a better future The struggles faced by my ancestors echo in the stories of those who came before me from the horrors of slavery to the triumphs of self made communities like Black Wall Street Through these pages I aim to pay homage to their sacrifices while encouraging future generations to embrace their heritage with pride and strength This book also addresses the uncomfortable truths of racism the impact of systemic oppression and the nuances of human relationships It serves as a reminder that not every individual is defined by their race or experiences urging compassion and understanding in a world too often divided by color I share my reflections not only to recount my personal journey but also to ignite conversations that can lead to healing and unity The path to understanding one another begins with dialogue and it is my hope that this book will inspire readers to engage in that essential conversation Join me as we navigate the complexities of our shared humanity recognizing that while our stories may differ our struggles and dreams are deeply intertwined Together let us strive for a future filled with love respect and understanding About this book
